THE CRATER LAKE ROAD.

(Oregon Journal.) Speaking of the project for a fine public highway to Crater lake, after his departure from Oregon, Mr. Harriman said: "I am heartily in sympathy with the movement and will be glad to do anything I can do in the building of a fine boulevard from Medford to the lake and Klamath Falls. No investment Oregon can make will yield bigger returns than money invested in making Crater lake accessible to tourists, for it is the greatest natural wonder in the world, and thousands will come from all parts to view it." He also stated that though he could not attend to the matter in person, General Manager O'Brien would act in his place. It is encouraging that Mr. Harriman has thus expressed himself, and that Mr. O'Brien will be delegated to take his place on the committee appointed. This is really an important movement. As Mr. Harriman says, thousands will come annually to view this "greatest natural wonder in the world." They will spend a great deal of money in Oregon, but more than that, many of them will return to settle here, and their reports will bring other settlers and investors, people with means, and who will energetically aid in Oregon's development. So this is not merely a local affair, nor designed solely for the pleasure of automobile tourists. It is a project that will benefit the whole state, as well as southern Oregon.

JAPS REFUSE TO OBEY ORDERS OF WHITE OFFICERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 11.—The officials of the Toyko Kisen Kaisha, the Japanese line, are awaiting the arrival of the Tenyo Maru to settle a dispute that disrupted the service for months and has threatened a race war between whites and Japanese officers on the vessels. The Japanese under officers and crew of the ship have refused to obey the orders of the white officers, and the Japanese know that if the white officers are discharged, there will be no passengers from this port to Japan.

The white officers say that the insubordination of the under Japanese officers is insufferable. Chief Engineer Seaver of the Tenyo Maru has not been allowed any sleep by his Japanese assistants for months, according to the white officers and Captain Going has had to discharge several lots of first and second officers. An investigation is to be made when the Tenyo Maru reaches this port next Tuesday.

TRACEY NOMINATED FOR CONGRESS BY DEMOCRATS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 11.—After two ballots had been taken, president of the State Federation of Labor, was nominated by the democrats yesterday to make the race for congress in the Fifth district against Congressman E. A. Hayes Tracey is today preparing to make a whirlwind campaign in his district. It is the only congressional district that the democrats have any hope of capturing in this state, and they are all enthusiastic for Tracey. The convention yesterday afternoon was lively. Tracey had received the nomination of the Independence party and was opposed by democrats on this ground. Former Congressman James G. McGuire wanted the nomination.

PROFESSOR PROSTRATED BY SON'S SUICIDE

BERKELEY, Cal., Sept. 11.—Professor Samuel Benedict Christy, head of the mining college at the University of California, is prostrated today as the result of the death of his son, Stephen Field, who deliberately lay down on the railroad track at Auburn yesterday and allowed a passing train to sever his head from his body. The boy's body arrived from Auburn today and the strange story of his death came to light through letters he left addressed to his parents. They say that he is tired of life and finds he cannot make a success. The dead boy was 17 years of age. He had been an invalid for ten years as the result of a kick in the back administered by a playmate.

WILL GIVE GRANT FOR EXHIBIT AT EXPOSITION

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 10.—Hon. William Templeman, cabinet minister, met the Victoria board of trade today to ascertain the views of the board regarding a government appropriation for the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition at Seattle. The members were strongly in favor of a substantial grant being made. Mr. Templeman said his views coincided with those of the board. He felt strongly favorable to a grant and assured the meeting that if anything was done by the Ottawa government a substantial amount would be given.

JACKSONVILLE ITEMS.

Fred Loy is in town this week being summoned as a juror at the September term of court. H. M. Coss and family were over from Medford on Tuesday of this week. Frank Kashafer, Jr., and wife of Edgewood, Cal., arrived on Sunday after an absence of six years and will visit with the former's family for the next few weeks. Frank has a large dairy ranch at Edgewood and made the trip by team. George W. Trefren came down from Ashland the first of the week on court business. Miss Bea Nickel of Medford spent Tuesday and Wednesday with relatives living here. Mr. and Mrs. Chris Keegan have returned from Deal Indian, where they have been camped for the last month. Dr. and Mrs. R. T. Burnett, Mrs. L. J. Sears and Mrs. O. Harbaugh attended a social meeting of the O. E. S. at Medford Wednesday evening. J. H. Beeman of Gold Hill was a Jacksonville visitor one day this week. Miss Mary Peter, deputy county recorder, spent the day in Medford Wednesday.

H. F. Meader and wife of the Kisor orchard near Medford were among those who attended court on Tuesday.

Mrs. Nellie Newbury and Mrs. T. J. Kenney were Medford visitors Tuesday.

Miss Leith Prim is spending a few days in Medford.

Miss Grace Henry returned from Port land Tuesday, where she has been receiving treatment for her eyes.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Andrews of Medford were guests at the home of Dr. R. T. Burnett Wednesday. Mr. Andrews came over in the interest of the county fair, which will be held at Medford on the first three days in October.

A crowd of young people attended the pavilion dance at the fair grounds during the soldiers and sailors' reunion Wednesday evening and had a very enjoyable time. Those present from here were: Misses Fay Sears, Mary Peter, Maude Prim, Bertha Prim, Fleta Ulrich, Laura Neuber, Frances Kenney, Emma Wendt, Anna Wendt, Maude Tucker, Gladys Shaw, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ulrich, H. C. Walther, Ray Ulrich, Pat Donagan, E. Wilson, Ira Fungate and Charles Nunan.

Professor Carl Moore has returned to Jacksonville and will begin his duties as principal of the public school next Monday.

Attorneys Norton, Hale and Colvig came up from Grants Pass to attend circuit court Thursday.

Hugh Elliott, formerly a blacksmith here, but for a number of years a resident of Portland, has returned and will take charge of George Lewis' black smith shop. Mrs. Elliott will follow in about a month.

Adam Schmidt is able to be up again after a serious illness of a number of weeks.

The Methodists held their last quarterly conference here yesterday, Presiding Elder Wire of Portland being present.

RUSSIANS OBSERVE THE BIRTHDAY OF TOLSTOI

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 11.—Despite the prohibition by the government of an official celebration in honor of the 80th birthday of Count Leo Tolstoi, yesterday was virtually a holiday in Russia. The efforts of the government to prevent any celebration has served only to increase the enthusiasm of the people, and all classes are celebrating the anniversary of the birthday of the great Russian philosopher. All attempts at formal demonstration have been suppressed. The government has ordered every theater in the empire closed in order to prevent any demonstration by Tolstoi's admirers. Count Tolstoi is spending a quiet day at his home at Yasnaya, Poliana. Hundreds called to congratulate him on the occasion, but owing to his illness, the countess would not admit anyone to his sick room.

WRIGHT MEETS ALL THE REQUIREMENTS OF UNCLE SAM

WASHINGTON, Sept. 11.—Signal corps men freely express the belief that Orville Wright, who shattered all records in his three story-making aer plane flights yesterday, will be able to exceed by a wide margin the requirements of the war department. One official predicted that the Wright aeroplane would be able to make 45 miles an hour. The matter of remaining in the air for a given length of times bothers no one now, since Wright sailed last evening for 62 minutes and 15 seconds with perfect ease. Orville Wright is the hero of the day and his claim to the title of "king of the air," though not advanced by himself, is not disputed. He has received congratulations from aeromants from all parts of the United States and Europe, but is calm and unassuming as usual. He has little to say except that he knew the machine would do it.

A TENDERFOOT'S REVENGE.

Bully of New Mexico Town Had the Tables Turned on Him.

The average tenderfoot is not a coward. He simply lacks ranch experience. An illustration of this fact occurred down in New Mexico several years ago. One day a pale looking, thin and sickly young man alighted from the train and put up at the little adobe hotel at Bernal Springs. The tenderfoot walked up to the bar and called for a bottle of soda pop. "Tain't allowed to drink that sort of stuff out here," said a toughy. "What you want is a stiff drink o' red liquor. Mr. Barkkeeper, set out the pistol for this young fellow." "You have the best at me," replied the tenderfoot, "and I'll have to drink the stuff, but I hope the time may come when I can make you drink my choice of liquid."

The tenderfoot raised the glass and gulped down the whisky. Sandy had had his way about it, and he made no effort to comprehend the vague remark of the stranger. The tenderfoot left for a ranch down the Pecos the next day after the incident in the saloon, and he was forgotten until one afternoon more than a year afterward a strong, healthy looking young man rode up to the hotel on a broncho, dropped the bridle reins upon the ground and dismounted. He had the appearance of a typical young man of the range. His face was bronzed and his eyes clear and penetrating. "I owe a fellow a debt which I believe I will pay right now," the stranger said. No sooner had he made the remark than he walked off in the direction of Sandy, who had his gun in his right hand and was firing it into the air every few steps. The stranger approached Sandy, pulled his gun and unceremoniously dragged the bully up to the saloon and led him in that fashion up to the bar. "Get me a pan of water and set it upon the floor," he said to the barkeeper. The order was complied with, Sandy standing there meekly, wondering what was going to happen to him. "Now, get down on the floor and drink water out of that pan like a dog," the former tenderfoot ordered. Sandy at first refused, but when the stranger began twirling his gun around on his forefinger and said the order must be obeyed the cowed fellow unlimbered and lay down upon the floor and began drinking water out of the pan.—Denver Field and Farm.

LUMBER YARD BURNS IN SAN FRANCISCO

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 11.—It is believed today that the loss sustained by the Van Arsdale-Harris Lumber company and Edward P. Niehaus & Co. in a disastrous lumber yard fire last night will amount to up to a quarter of a million dollars. Starting from some unknown cause, the flames gained such headway in the lumber yards at Fifth and Brannan streets that it was impossible to save the costly stock of hardwood and the mills, which occupied the property. After a fight of four hours, the flames were checked and prevented from spreading through the lumber and planing mill district.

A WILD RACE.

When the First Pony Express Was Nearing Sacramento.

Cornelius Cole, ex-senator from California, tells in his memoirs how the first "pony express" reached Sacramento, Cal., long before the first transcontinental railroad was surveyed: "Those who were there to witness it will never forget the arrival of the first of these express messengers at Sacramento. It was an occasion of great rejoicing, and everybody, big and little, old and young, turned out to see the fun. All business for the time was suspended. Even the courts adjourned for the event. A large number of the citizens of all classes, grave and gay, mounted on fast horses, rode out some miles on the line to meet the incoming wonder. "The waiting was not long. The little rider upon his blooded charger, under whip and spur, came down upon them like a meteor, but made not the slightest halt to greet his many visitors. Then began a race of all that waiting through over the stretch back to the city, the like of which has never been seen. It may have been rivaled in speed and confusion by some of the cavalry disasters during the war that presently followed, but the peaceful people of Sacramento, I am sure, never beheld anything of the kind before or afterward. "The whole cavalcade, shouting and cheering, some waving banners and handkerchiefs, riding at the top of their speed, dashing down J street, might have been taken, had it occurred on the plains, for a band of wild Comanches, but the little mail carrier paid no attention to them and kept in the lead."

Are You Living In the Cobweb Kingdom?

There are cobwebs on the windows. There are cobwebs on the door. There are cobwebs swinging, away from the rafters to the floor. Now the place is Cobweb Kingdom. Though it used to be a store. If the Cobweb Kingdom's ruler Were a man discreet and wise He would have no cobwebs swaying. Swinging round and catching flies! He would crowd his store with buyers— He would simply ADVERTISE!
