

SAYS EASTERN PRESS DOES NOT TREAT BRYAN FAIRLY

LONDON, Sept. 16.—Samuel H. Untermyer, a well known corporation lawyer of New York, left this morning for home on the Lusitania. Mr. Untermyer thinks Bryan has a good chance of being the next president. "Viewing the political situation from a distance, with a certain knowledge of political conditions, one sometimes gets a better perspective than when in the heat of the fray," said Mr. Untermyer. "I have been deeply interested in the obvious change of opinion in the east concerning Mr. Bryan and his policies. Among the conservative element he is no longer regarded with distrust, even among the most partisan of his political opponents, and his sincerity and ability are today conceded by the fair-minded men of all parties. It rarely has been the good fortune of any public man out of office so successfully to withstand the test. For years he has occupied the center of the stage, and he is today a bigger man and better beloved than at any other time in his career. He has lived to see his ideas of corporate control, for which he was denounced and derided, and his good faith attacked, appropriated by his opponents. "I do not believe the press of the east fairly represents Mr. Bryan's strength in the pending struggle. I believe he was an equal chance of winning and that his victory will be the greatest blessing that has come to the nation in many years. "It is true I am a corporation lawyer, but above all I am a citizen. As a corporation lawyer, I know something of the abuses of corporate management and the necessity for greater control than now exists. On the two great issues of tariff reform and more effective corporate control now before the people it seems absurd to expect the people will get a fair treatment or that it will be as easy to inaugurate the dramatic reforms that are needed under the guidance of the republican party which is dominated by the interests that are to be affected, as under the democratic party, which has such affiliations. Amid the denfencing clamor of the footing horse and the shrieking of whistles about the punishment of wealthy offenders against the laws very little has been done, and only a few of the least heinous abuses have been abated. The real work is still to be done to bring the powerful corporate and other lawbreakers within the law. "Even that which has been accomplished has been done by the president almost singlehanded and against the protest of the most powerful party associates he had had nothing but abuse from powerful interests that are now supporting Taft. His encouragement has come from democrats, and none has been broader or more patriotic than Mr. Bryan. It is fair to judge a party, as a man, by the company it keeps. Where are the lawdefying trusts and corporations in this fight? Has anybody any doubt?"

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS

C. P. Briggs, while riding, was thrown from his horse, which had a bucking fit, and Mr. Briggs sustained painful injuries to his right hip and was otherwise injured, but not seriously. He is able to be around on crutches. J. Doubleday is down from his homestead and will remain a short time. Mrs. Jila Miles, with Shorty and wife, are all at the homestead. Mrs. Miles is improving her claim in a splendid manner and is a most deserving woman. Professor Wright of Ohio has arrived and will open school Monday, September 14. He appears to be well suited for the place and will no doubt give good satisfaction. John Lee of Eagle Point is visiting our town. Mr. Hawk, a sawmill man of the newly surveyed lands, made a trip to Round top mill with a view of buying the machinery. Frank Netherland and J. J. Patton are making a trip to Medford. Ben Frenenburg, Charley Obenchain and Clarke Edmonson are driving their stock to Medford market, the stock having been sold to Pottinger. The cattle were in prime condition. O. Adams and family started Monday for a visit to Medford. Father Frenenburg of Medford is spending some time in our town visiting kin and friends. Mail Carrier Rayburn suffered the loss of his mother, who died lately at an advanced age. C. E. Wolverton of Sills Springs was interviewing our merchants lately. John Allen is driving his marketable cattle to Medford. J. H. Miller and B. H. Harris have gone to the valley and from there in company with some Michigan friends will make a trip to Crater lake during the week. Some of our boys had considerable sport in killing a porcupine on Saturday. The dog fight was interesting, but finally the "porley" was dispatched, but not until he left his mark in the throat of the dogs. It is reported that some of the young men are in the habit of carrying concealed weapons. This is a bad and unlawful practice and trouble is apt to come from it. Miss Stepp has been visiting the Obenchain family. It is a strange coincidence that forest fires have increased since the rangers have been on duty. There are enough of them to keep down all fires and it would be well to have them burn the woods of all litter in the early spring months, as did the Indians. Judge Pentz has been in attendance upon the court and homestead. He does not find any business demanding the exercise of his judicial functions. The county judge and commissioners are to be commended for the excellent road work being done on the road between Eagle Point and Brownsboro. Let the good work go on and the bridges and culverts along the road from Brownsboro up the Obenchain road be looked after. Some are dangerous. Ed Walker of the Iowa lumber camp is paying a visit to Medford in connection with business for Crater Lake company. B. H. Harris and J. H. Miller have returned from Medford. Robert L. Wilson has left Butte Falls to make an extended trip to Coos Bay. He may invest there. J. Geppart has sold his ranch property. C. P. Briggs has purchased the D. T. Richards store room and house. J. Doubleday is supplying J. P. Hughes with a fine Mt. of shakes. Mr. Doubleday is also improving his Butte Falls property. John Lee of Eagle Point expects to make Butte Falls his home. Mr. Lee is an excellent carpenter and contractor and will no doubt find plenty to do. Mrs. Scott Claspill is improving much in health. Mrs. G. W. Albert has a fine run of permanent and transient boarders and all speak in high terms of her table.

published in another column. These are the fixed rates in all the schools of the Sisters of the Holy Names, but, as the Sisters' main endeavor is to work for the physical, intellectual and moral development of youth, they wish the parents who feel that they can not meet these rates, to call and see them with the assurance of being received with every courtesy and of finding the Sisters willing to co-operate in the great work of forming the youth as good citizens.

To Our Good Friend The Farmer:

Before sending your money away on Mail Orders suppose you just peruse the ADVERTISING COLUMNS of this paper for bargains. Of course if you don't see ADVERTISED here what you want you are quite likely to find to the temptation to buy through a catalogue. Some of our local Merchants have discovered that the best way to combat Mail Order competition is to use the chief ammunition of the Mail Order people—ADVERTISING. No doubt you compare notes as between Home Advertisers and Foreign Advertisers—the outsiders—and prefer to trade at home if you see what you want.
