National Committeeman Sums Up Eastern Situation Upon Return

In an interview in the Portland Journal, Milton A. Miller says that Bryan will carry New York, Ohio, Indiana and Nebraska, with more than an even chance to win Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota and Iowa. Mr. Miller is a member of the national democratic committee, who recently returned from Chicago, where he went to a meeting of the committee held September 8.

"Democracy was never more united, never was as strong and never was more determined to win than it is now," said Mr. Miller. "From every state in the Union come reports to the national committee that the party is putting up a solid front to the enemy. Reports of probable democratic success are coming to the national committee from states that have been in the republican column for 50 years."

"While in Chicago I met Henry Waterson, who had just returned from a six weeks' stay in New York. Mr. Waterson has been in close touch with the New York democracy ever since the civil war, and he told me that he had never seen the party in that state in better condition than it is now. The Cleveland democrats, Hill democrats, Parker democrats and Carlisle democrats are all united and are loyally supporting Bryan and Kern. On the other hand, the New York republicans are badly split up over Hughes, and, no matter whether he is nominated or not, the ticket will lose many thousands of votes."

In Ohio the republican party is almost as badly demoralized as it is in New York. Leading democrats from Ohio claim that Judge Harman will be overwhelmingly elected governor and that the electoral vote will be cast for Bryan.

"The Iowa republicans are in a bitter party strife. Fred White, the democratic nominee for governor in that state, is an exceptionally strong man, and it is freely predicted that he will win out. The Iowa republicans are tired of Dingley protection and thousands of them will vote for Bryan."

"Indiana and Nebraska will undoubtedly give Bryan and Kern a good majority."

"I took the Criegno Labor day parade three hours to pass a given point, and as these 50,000 union workers passed the reviewing stand in front of the Auditorium hotel, almost to a man they cheered Bryan and saluted him as the next president."

"The people want a change and they are going to vote for it. Senator Hansborough went to North Dakota and asked for re-election and the people said we want a change."

"Senator Kittredge heard from the people of South Dakota, and they said, 'we want a change.'"

"Senator Long referred his case to the people of Kansas and they said, 'we want a change.' The same sentiment is sweeping the country everywhere, and it will sweep Bryan into the presidency on November 3."
