Six Leading Figures in the Electrical World Will Be Indicted By Grand Jury

NEW YORK, Sept. 19 .- Six of the leading figures in the electrical world will be indicted for forming and mainsuccess of the federal grand jury, which came to light today, results as reports based upon the best authority say that it will.

President Roosevelt ordered the inquiry, which has been conducted quiet-ly and was not known to the public ly and was not known to the public Christie for a deer near Wonder, Ja until today. The management of the sephine county, was taken from the General Electric company and six other big electrical concerns have been subjected to the closest examination. Enough evidence to warrant an indistment of the six predominating fug-ures already is in the hands of the grand jury, it is said, but it has been deemed advisable to postpone action and this further terminant the second se and take further testimony pending the of documentary vidence securing.

Delay Owing to Politics.

It is reported that there is a tempo rary delay in pushing the case of count of the injury it might do the republican party in the present campaign, though this is more surmise or the part of persons inclined to put po litical significance on the case

The matter was brought to the at-tention of the president, and when Roosevelt obtained a general under standing of the alleged facts he at once ordered the federal authorities to make a most thorough and searching exam ination and follow it up with vigorous action if the revelations should war rant further procedure. It is alleged that the six big elec trical firms have a complete monopol all the electrical business in this section, their Interests having been extended into almost all branches of allied businesses. It is further charged that the combine has a working agreement regarding prices and fixes and controls rates, competitors having been put out of business.
