A KING'S HOBBY.

The Mania of Frederick William For Collecting Giants. Of all the manies that afflict man kind the most ancient and curious is probably that for collecting. The vic-tims collect protty nearly everything from books to shoe buckles and from pols to postage stamps, but glant col-lecting was the hobby of Frederick William I., king of Prussia. Nature designed him for a recruiting officer; destiny made him a mon All were fish who came to his Turks, Swedes, Englishmen, Irishmen Africans-provided they were at least two yards long. Some of his spect mens were seven feet long. Now and then he obtained one still more pro-

A Smile From a Stranger. Most of us owe debts of gratitude to strangers whose kindly smile has sen has given us courage when we were disheartened.

It is a great thing to go through life with a smiling face. It costs little, but who can ever estimate its value? Think how the pleasure of life would be increased if we met smiling faces everywhere-faces which radiate hope sunshine and cheer! What a joy is would be to travel in a gallery of liv ing pictures radiating hope and cour

Who can estimate what beautiful and the downcast, those whose life burdens are crushing them?

She Was Deliberate.

It is said that Dinah Mulock Craft the famous author of "John Hallfax Gentleman," made a habit of leaving at her bank the manuscript of each of her stories as soon as it was completed It would remain there perhaps sta months, and then she would call for and see how the story affected her after that lapse of time. If it pleased her, the manuscript was sent to the publisher. Otherwise it was rewritten or thrown away.

Ladies' Coats and Suits

Direct from the Manufacturer

We are very proud of our ready-to-wear department and we certainly have reasons. Last year when we first opened up people were afraid to buy of us, because they were afraid the goods wouldn't wear. From that time, few persons have come to us and honestly shown that a single garment has proven unsatisfactory, and in every instance we made good,

If you know of a person who ever bought a garment here that did not wear we will make it right. If they won't come and allow us to make good, we shall conclude that they haven't any real gricvance, but are simply knockers
