CONSULATE STARTS SPEECHIFYING ATTACKED BY MOB

Royal Court of Arms of Austria Torn From Door And Burned - Ministers Narrowly Escape

BUDA PEST, Oct. 12.—The Austrian consulate at Antivari, a port in Montenegro, on the Adriatic sea, was attacked by an infuriated mob today. The royal court of arms was torn from the door and burned in the street, while the crowd danced about yelling like maniacs.

VIENNA, Oct. 12.—It is reported here today that Count Bergsch, the Austrian minister to Serbia, has been assassinated.

Communication with Belgrade has been cut off and it is impossible to verify the report. The foreign office discredits the rumor, but has no authoritative information.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 12.—A report today, credited to Ambassador John L. Leishman, says that Turkey disapproves the action of Austria in annexing Herzegovina and the declaration of independence by Bulgaria.

Ambassador Leishman visited the Turkish foreign office today, and it is said that he assured the porte that it has the moral support of America. It is intimated that he pointed out the impossibility of the United States participating in the trouble in any way, as the nation has no direct interests in the Berlin treaty.

BIG DEMAND FOR LIME CAUSE OF IMPROVEMENT

KENNETT, Cal., Oct. 12.—The Holt & Gregg company has received another motor for its two-mile electric road between creek and Kennett. This motor is of the same type as the two already in use weighing eleven tons and having motive strength of 84 horsepower.

It is one of the latest makes of the so-called mining type. A round trip conveying about 25 tons of lime rock is made every half hour during the working day, indicating a great growth in the demand for this fluing material for the smelter, since not so many months ago a few tons a day brought down by wagons sufficed. Now 400 tons a day are frequently brought to the railroad and the demand from the smelters continues to increase.

KENNETT IS A POOR PLACE FOR UNDERTAKERS

KENNETT, Cal., Oct. 12.—Not a single death has occurred in Kennett since last winter. The last case was that of a stranger who succumbed to pneumonia. I don't remember the last date, but it was in the winter. This statement was made today by Dr. C. J. Teas, who is deputy county health officer, and he therefor speaks authoritatively. It is remarkable that in a population of 2500 not a single death has occurred in over six months. "Furthermore," continued the doctor, "there has not been a single case of a contagious disease in Kennett all summer."

It will be remembered that there were so many cases of pneumonia in Kennett last winter, the town was widely advertised in the news columns of the state as being an unhealthy place. Kennett is now entitled to receive another kind of advertisement.

RECEIVE ONE BID FOR CONSTRUCTION OF WORK

KLAMATH FALLS, Or., Oct. 12.—The Klamath Water Users' association received one bid for the construction by farmers of the south branch laterals. This is the work on which the experiment will be made of cutting up the work into small contracts that the farmers can handle and make payments by means of certificates that will apply against the water assessments. The lack of bids was caused by the present work being too far from the ranches. When the laterals are extended the farmers say they can then take the contracts profitably. J. W. Jory was the bidder on the work.

TIGERS TAKE CUBS INTO CAMP

William H. Taft Off On Hardest Tour Of His Campaign - Will Make Long and Hard Trip

MORROW, O., Oct. 12.—Taft today began his most strenuous tour of the campaign, when he addressed the farmers here in the opening speech of a trip which will take him three days through the rural districts of Ohio, three days in the south, six days in New Jersey and Maryland, a day in Ohio, three days in Indiana, a week in New Jersey and a closing speech in Youngstown, O., the night before election. The Taft special left Cincinnati at 7 o'clock today with Senator William Alden Smith of Michigan as assistant spellbinder to the republican candidate. The first stop was made here where several hundred farmers gave the nominee an enthusiastic welcome. Taft was in good voice. The special train is scheduled to make 16 stops today and end at Akron, where Taft is to be principal speaker at a demonstration tonight.

AUSTRALIA FOR WHITE PACIFIC

Entire Political Pressure of Antipodes To Be Used To Break Jap=Alliance

MELBOURNE, Australia, Oct. 12.—If the entire political pressure of Australia is sufficient, the treaty binding England and Japan will not survive. Political Australia is determined to break the alliance as the first step to create a white man's Pacific ocean. Desiring not embarrass England, the Australian officials are not giving any official voice to the sentiment, but it is the belief of careful observers here that the treaty cannot last more than a few years. The feelings manifested during the visit of the American fleet here and a series of inspired articles during the past week in the press throughout the commonwealth have aroused interest in this subject anew in diplomatic circles. Situation Explained. In an interview today, a man who is recognized as one of the moulders of Australian destiny, who prefers to have his name unmentioned, gave the following explanation of the situation: "The defensive and offensive alliance between England and Japan affects in reality only Manchuria and India, and is directed entirely against Russia. England is committed to assist Japan against the invasion of Manchuria, and Japan has agreed to aid Britain in repelling an invasion of India. The only possible invaders of either country is Russia. "The alliance has been received with an outburst of popular disapproval in Australia where the people are more anti-Asiatic than the Pacific coast. We have drastic Asiatic exclusion laws and a tariff practically cutting off Japan and China from competing with our home industries. This is where the clash will originate."

MISSING GREEK TO COME BACK

G. Paduveris Writes That He Will Return and Asks Suspension of Judgement

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 12.—The Examiner today prints a letter purporting to come from Felix Paduveris, a Greek, charged in an indictment with dynamiting the home of James L. Gallagher, the chief witness in the graft prosecution. The letter is dated March 25, 1908, and is the first indication of the whereabouts of the suspected Greek. It is written in lead pencil and the lines are so close together as to make the message barely legible. Paduveris in his communication asks the people to suspend judgment on his disappearance, declaring that he will return later when he believes he will obtain a fair trial. He desires the greater portion of his letter to the abuse of Francis J. Heney and the men heading the prosecution of Albe Raef. He promises conscientious confession later, and in the meantime urges the citizens of San Francisco to awaken to the condition in which he says the graft prosecution has brought them. After his signature the pseudo Paduveris writes "the fugitive from justice."

Any ladies who are Maecenas or are interested in the order will send their names and address to Mrs. Alice Porges, Deputy Supreme Commander at Medford, general delivery. 182

CHICAGO, Ill., Oct. 12.—Detroit turned the tables on Chicago's Cubs in a game full of sensational hitting and base running today. CLAIMS HIS PARTY WILL POLL THIRD LARGEST VOTE

URGES THAT U.S. OVERSEE ROADS

Poor Maintenance Causes an Enormous Annual Loss To American Citizens

The necessity of seeing to the systematic maintenance of roads throughout the various states is a most important one in the opinion of G. M. Eddy of Stockton, who is the secretary of the California Good Roads association, and who is an earnest worker for the cause.

"I believe the roads of the United States should be placed on the same basis, relative to the government, as are the public schools of the country," said Mr. Eddy. "We should have government aid in keeping up our roads, and to a certain extent, government supervision. France has a college especially for the instruction of road builders and the graduates go into the engineering service of the country for the construction of roads just as our West Point graduates enter the army."

In the roads of the country are 20,000,000 acres of land. This land, if cultivated would yield $1,000,000 worth of crops in a year, which means that it would sustain 6,000,000 persons, so you see we have a big investment in our roads. Roads are the most important factor, save good weather, to the American people. They are the avenues of commerce, and with the entrance of automobiles will continue to be more so.

"But our system of making highways has been a failure. Our roads are two generations behind those of Europe, because unprogressive citizens have said that what was good enough for their fathers is good enough for them. Our roads cannot stand heavy traffic; if we place it upon them they go to pieces."

An Enormous Loss. "It costs $125,000,000 more annually for us to move our crops than it does France to move the same amount on equal distance, because they have better roads than we have. I think the poor condition of our roads in the '90s caused the civil war to continue two years longer than it would otherwise with the resulting loss in life and property."

"We should at once enact laws for the improvement of our roads and their maintenance. We have no road specialists as we have in all other branches of industrial life, and yet what is more important? We should have schools to teach our young men how to build roads so that they can help make up for the lost time."

Oregon should make a special effort to improve her roads, because this is the land of the tourist and nothing pleases them more than to be comfortable when they are riding in their automobiles. The result will be a stream of gold into the pockets of Oregonians."

O'Leary out via Chance runs walked. Crawford flied to Hoffman. No runs.

Hoffman singled and Tinker fanned. Kling hit into a double play, O'Leary to Schaefer to Rossmann. No runs.

Detroit 6, Chicago 3. Eighth Inning. Cobb doubled to left, Rossmann bunted and beat it to first, Cobb went to third on the play, Schaefer flied to Schulte, Rossmann going to second on the throw home, Thomas walked, filling the bases, Coughlin flied to Sheekard, Cobb scoring, Mullin singled, Rossmann scoring, Thomas going to third, Melntyre went out, Steinfield to Chance. Two runs.

Howard bats for Pfeister and went out, Schaefer to Rossmann. The official scorers give Chance an error for not handling Mullin's single cleanly. Sheekard out, Schaefer to Rossmann, Evers flied to Crawford. No runs.

Detroit 8, Chicago 3. Ninth Inning. Reulbach is pitching, O'Leary flied to Chance, Crawford flied to Hoffman, Cobb singled to left and stole second and then stole third, Rossmann walked, and attempted double steal Cobb was run down and put out, Reulbach to Kling to Steinfield. No runs.

Schulte flied to Crawford, Chance flied to Crawford, Pfeister flied to left and stole second, Hoffman out, O'Leary to Rossmann. No runs.

Final score: Detroit 8, Chicago 3.

J. R. Kelly, the efficient night operator at the Western Union office, spent Sunday in Ashland.

HEARST PLEASUED BY HIS RECEPTION IN SAN FRANCISCO

Presented With Basket of Rogue River Fruit—Discusses Campaign Outlook From the Independence Party's Standpoint.

William Randolph Hearst, owner of many newspapers, father of the independence league, and a would be Moses to lead the American laboring man out of slavery, passed through Medford Sunday evening on his way to Portland and Thomas L. Higson, the nominee of the independence party for the presidency. The two are to remain in Portland a few days in the interests of the new party.

Each of the two campaigners show signs of weariness, occasioned by their long trip across the continent speaking every day.

Mr. Hearst was asked what he thought of the outlook as far as the independence league was concerned in the coming election.

"We have succeeded in interesting thousands of workmen in the large cities of the United States in the platform of our party, and the returns will surprise many people. There is absolutely no doubt but that the independence party will poll the third largest vote in the election. Of course we do not look for success this year, but there are more years coming and it will not be long until our party is understood and the old line parties will be done for."

"I am very much pleased with the reception we received in San Francisco. Thousands of laboring men heard speeches by Mr. Higson and myself and their enthusiasm was marked. This has been true in other sections aside from San Francisco."

Promises More Exposures. Mr. Hearst was asked if he had any more Standard Oil exposures up his sleeve.

"I have a few things I have been holding back, but I promise to jolt some of the others as I did Foraker and Haskell. No, I am not through and will shake up the dust again before I am through."

Mr. Hearst was presented with a basket of Rogue River fruit and in an instant he forsook party to talk of the beauty of the fruit.

"That is as fine as any I have ever seen anywhere. Those apples are superb. I wish I could stop over and pick a few for myself."

STRUCK OUT 82 MEN IN FIVE BALL GAMES

MONTAGUE, Cal., Oct. 12.—A real phenom and strike-out wonder has been unearthed in this city with the season's baseball, in the person of Charles Wright, twirler for the Montague Club. The records of the games in which Wright has twirled shows that it is nothing for him to whiff down 18 to 20 batters in a game. His record for strike-outs for five games is 82, an achievement that any pitcher in the land would be proud to make. Against Dunsir he fanned 18; against the Weed Athletic club at Weed he fanned 17; against the Hill Athletic club at Montague he fanned 18; against the Hornbrook Athletic club at Hornbrook he fanned 20; and against Weed at Weed he fanned 8. This is a total of 82 strike-outs in five games. A twirler with a record like this is worth looking up by League magnates.

DORRIS WOULD BE AN INCORPORATED CITY

YREKA, Cal., Oct. 12.—The citizens of Dorris presented a petition to the Board of Supervisors, who were in session here this week, praying that they be allowed to incorporate as a city of the sixth class. The petition contained numerous signatures, but on examination it was found to be faulty. The board could not grant the prayer and the matter was continued until November, in order to give the residents a chance to amend their petition and to make it in proper form.

The board also received a like petition from the citizens of Montague to incorporate that place. It was also found to be improperly drawn and the petition was withdrawn. It is thought however, that the Montague people will prepare a new petition and present it at a future meeting of the board.

Mrs. B. F. Mulkey and children returned Saturday from a visit at Montague, where they went to attend the wedding of Mrs. Mulkey's sister.

BANKERS FAIL TO AGREE ON LAW

Disagreement Prevents Any Action Being Taken By State Bankers

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 12.—A disagreement as to the new banking law of the state prevented any action being taken on the draft of the proposed laws at a meeting of the California State Bankers' association.

A draft of the proposed laws compiled by Judge Starrevant, was received by the county court. No action was taken because the new laws were in a form to be accepted or rejected by the association without further debate.

The bankers today expressed their desire that a commercial bank be established by the United States government with a portion of the capital in the national treasury.

The next meeting of the association is to be held November 9, 1908.

JOHN MITCHELL, LABOR LEADER, FOR BRYAN. (John Mitchell to the New York World). "In accordance with your invitation, I wish to state that, in my judgment, the election of Bryan would be for the best interests of the whole nation. "He stands on such the better platform, and will be guided by it in the event of his election. "Mr. Taft is handicapped by the zealous advocacy of his cause by the predatory rich. "Honest wealth and business have nothing to fear in Bryan's election."
