THE GOTHENBURG PLAN.

The most satisfactory solution of the liquor problem the world has yet seen is the Gothenburg system, which had its origin in Gothenburg, Sweden. It is in general use in Sweden, Norway, Finland, Switzerland and other European countries and the ordinance introduced in Medford at the instance of W. T. Vaughn of Portland is worthy of serious consideration by the councilmen, as a practical solution of the question.

Under the Gothenburg plan a company is granted a monopoly of the sale of liquors in the town. Managers at fixed salaries are placed in the public houses, and after paying fixed expenses and a regular dividend, the towns secure the balance. In Medford a regular license will be paid in advance instead of a percentage of profits.

In the places where the system has been tried, the number of saloons is decreased, the laws more rigidly enforced, for failure to observe regulations renders the franchise liable to forfeiture.

The proposed Medford law provides a ten-year contract for $55,000 to be paid for at the rate of $5000 a year for five years, and $6000 a year for the second five years. The number of saloons is limited to six and the district in which they can be located is limited. No noisy conduct is to be tolerated, no minors sold liquor, no women permitted entrance, saloons are to close Sundays and no gambling is to be permitted. A $10,000 bond is to be given as guarantee of conduct.

The chief benefit that would result to Medford from such a system as that proposed is that it would settle at once and for all the liquor problem, put the saloon out of politics, stop the factional fight now in progress between prohibitionists and anti-prohibitionists, and enable the people to concentrate their energy and efforts for the common good, instead of wasting them in endless squabbles.

Everything in the bounds of reason that a lover of law and order could demand seems to be provided by the Gothenburg system. The evil and objectionable features of the saloon are eliminated, yet personal liberty is not infringed.

DECAY OF THE CARTOON.

No one who has followed the present campaign can fail to remark the decay of the American cartoon. Few of the political cartoons published have been worthy of reproduction. As a rule they have been tame and pointless.

The republican cartoonists are making Bryan the central figure of their sketches; and Bryan hasn't suffered much from it. They have transformed the Nebraskan from the boy orator of 12 years ago into a decrepit old man, with chin and nose almost meeting. Surely no one ever aged faster than Bryan in cartoons.

The Haskell incident is made the most of in the absurd and frantic effort to fasten Standard Oil support upon Bryan, and the oil can figures largely in the drawings, as it does in democratic cartoons of the Frakker disaster. Teddy and the big stick are portrayed as frequently as Taft and the trusts.

The old masters of the cartoon, whose efforts delighted partisans in past years seem to have lost their cunning. Davenport, now drawing for Taft, has lost more than others. His pictures are utterly tame, lacking in force and humor and contrast poorly with his former virile works in Bryan's behalf. Opper, whose "Willie and His Pals" and "Trust Minstrels" made the whole world laugh, has lost his satire and humor in efforts to support Hearst's lost cause. And so the list may be scanned—no new cartoonists to attract attention and the old ones living on their reputations.

TOWN JOINS IN SEARCH

On account of the difficulty in the part of finding dogs to run baggage cars, it will be necessary to have the possession of Centralia figures, or being made ready in the bags of mailing. While Paul Bunyan the Esquimalt son of Wm. Bunyan, is moving.

That the old was kidnapped while he was away from the house of his master, Mr. Wm. Bunyan, at Centralia, where he was last seen at 4 o'clock yesterday. Between acts at the theater where he is playing Bunyan witnessed the disappearance of his master to the audience, taking assistance at the same time. The master called him and he escaped from the stage during his act.

After searching throughout that it was not a good signal when the police began to work on the case.

What Papers Say

MR. BRYAN'S HONESTY.

(From Peck.)

Our American Abdul, Speaker Cannon, made a mistake in attacking Mr. Bryan; he laid himself open to certain obvious come-backs; and Mr. Bryan is especially swift on the comeback. For one thing, the speaker referred to the Nebraskan as a "man who has a breaking out of the mouth"; this immediately recalled the breaking out of Mr. Cannon's mouth some years ago which retired him to private life—unfortunately, not for long.

For another thing, his remarks about Mr. Bryan's wealth called forth a challenge to declare the sum of his own possessions and to say how he came by them. Now, the Nebraskan's personal honesty has never been impugned; what he possesses he made by talking and writing. Mr. Cannon is reported a much richer man than Bryan, and he did not acquire his money by talking and writing.

The opponents of the Peerless One would better confine their attacks to criticisms of the political theories he puts forth, and let his personal affairs alone. If they were all as honest as he there would be no call for much rakers.

NOT NECESSARY.

(New York World)

No molocidile consideration for the dignity of the Presidency restrains Mr. Roosevelt from taking the stump. On the contrary as he told Senator Hemenway yesterday, he does "not consider it necessary to make speeches in support of Mr. Taft." If he did consider it necessary we may rest assured that "the just man armed" would spring at once to the platform and begin belaboring the weaklings, the cravens, the cowards, the manufacturers and the undesirable citizens. Still it is consoling to know that Mr. Roosevelt retains some scanty rag of a remnant of respect for his high office. He will not drag it through the mud of party politics unless it is "necessary."

Request Retained Orders.

Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally and which is perhaps not generally known is the system of prepaid orders now in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. By means of this system carloads may be purchased at Medford station and sent to any point in the United States and mailed or telegraphed direct to the place wanting to come here. Steamer accommodations and small amounts of mail in connection with these tickets may also be forwarded at the same time.

Sole Stock.

Some time ago I had a conversation with Mr. George M. Needham, the manager of the White Elephant saloon, Mr. George M. Needham, the successor to the business, assumes all obligations debts, losses, etc., and all accounts due the former firm are payable to him.

AFFINITY TROUBLED HIM
ORDERED TO HOSPITAL

Colonel William F. Tucker at Request of Mother-in-Law Has Been Ordered to the Government Hot Springs for Treatment.

CHICAGO, Oct. 15.—It developed here today that Colonel William F. Tucker, whose wife is suing him for desertion, had been ordered to the government hospital at Hot Springs for treatment at the request of Mrs. John A. Logan, his mother-in-law. It is stated that Secretary of War Wright was importuned by Mrs. Logan to remove Colonel Tucker from the influence of Mrs. Myrtle L. Platt, who is accused by Mrs. Tucker of stealing her husband's affections and that when the army officer arrives at Hot Springs today he will not be allowed to retain Mrs. Platt as a companion.

Word from St. Louis today states that Colonel Tucker left there last night for Hot Springs, attended by a nurse, and several others. Dr. L. H. Behrens said when the army man left that he would not be surprised to hear of his dying before he reached the hospital.

YOUNG MAN PASSED SELF
AS SON OF T. F. RYAN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 15.—The record of a young man of Alexandria, Va., who manuvered here for several days as the son of Thomas Fortune Ryan, the New York multimillionaire, is being investigated by the police today. The authorities have already discovered he has a wife and children in the Virginia city and that he was associated with a woman who is to be the wife of a New York stock broker. Yesterday detectives discovered an alleged attempt by the young man to defraud a guest of the New Willard hotel by representing that certain valuable pictures could be bought by the payment of a deposit. The deposit, however, was not paid.

HASTY WEDDING FOLLOWED BY A HASTIER BREAKFAST

NEW YORK, Oct. 15.—Forbes J. Hennessy, formerly an assistant district attorney of New York, and his young bride are today speeding for Europe on the fast liner Lusitania, while the guests that participated at the wedding breakfast yesterday are still talking about the most rapid feast they have ever eaten.

The young people were married yesterday morning at St. Patrick's cathedral and sailed immediately on a tour of Europe. Their wedding breakfast was served on the Lusitania. In the midst of the festivities, it was announced that the boat would soon be off from her pier and the guests had to scramble for the shore.

Mrs. Hennessy was formerly Miss Margaret Sheehan, daughter of John Sheehan, a prominent contractor of New York and San Francisco.

PAPERS SEVERELY CENSURE
JUDGE FOR ABSENCE

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 15.—According to a dispatch from Juneau, Alaska, the Skagway Ridge Top, the Tanana Tribune and the Juneau Record are all loud in their criticism of Judge Silas Reid for having been away from court. The newspapers refer to him as an "Oklahoma carpet-bagger" and are bitter over the appointment of his brother-in-law Goodwin as receiver for the Alaska Central railroad. President Frost of the road criticizes the appointment in severe terms. He said that he cannot understand the appointment of a receiver for the road at all when it has $4,000,000 and does not owe a dollar. "It is ridiculous," he is reported to have said, "for a receiver to have been appointed at all, let alone the judge's brother-in-law."

signs of this character about Medford. We always find a desirable tenant before a good building has been "to let" more than 24 hours, and land owners know we can always find a purchaser if a reasonable valuation is put on property. Consequently Medford does not impress the homeseeker as being "under the hammer." This is as it should be.
