

S. P. BRAKEMAN TORN OFF TRAIN

Supposed He Leaned Out From Platform and Was Struck by Girders

Carl Will, a well-known and popular Southern Pacific trainman out of Ashland, was brought to the hospital at Ashland terribly crushed and in a dying condition last Friday evening about 7:30 o'clock, says the Tidings. The injured man lingered until midnight and regained consciousness only long enough to tell Dr. Pearson, the railroad company's surgeon who attended him, that he was struck off the moving train (first section of No. 16) by the timbers of a bridge eight miles south of Ashland between Ayers Spur and Steilman. The rest of the story is surmised, but it plain to trainmen. Will was the rear brakeman of the train in question, which was in charge of Conductor Cooper. It is the custom of the brakemen in coming down the Siskiyou to watch carefully the operation of the air brakes. It is supposed that Will was leaning out from the rear platform doing this when the rapidly moving train crossed the fatal bridge which is a wooden one with girders boxed in leaving small space between the passing cars and the timbers, that he was struck and hurled against the bridge and to the rocks below 12 or 15 feet, where he was found two hours afterwards by holos who first found his hat on the track and later found the unfortunate man's mounds from the creek below that runs under the trestle. Two light engines came along down the mountain and brought the brakeman to Ashland, where he was taken to the hospital, but was found to be fatally injured.

No one saw the accident and the brakeman was not missed until the train reached Ashland. It was thought perhaps he had been left somewhere and would pick up the second section of train 16, but when it was found that he had not been seen at all there was an alarm and word was telegraphed along the line back to Siskiyou.

The deceased, who is survived by a wife and little daughter, besides his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Will, now of Santa Cruz, Cal., and other relatives, was aged 36 years.

The funeral will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, at Mountain View cemetery, where the local Masonic lodge, of which deceased was a member, will conduct the service.

Ladies of this town and vicinity will be interested to learn that Mr. and Mrs. White have a line of embroidery on exhibition at their home and have for sale art linens, braids, royal society floss, etc. Stamping and teaching at reasonable prices. All ladies interested are invited to call. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. White, 312 North A street. 306

Purity and More

As I have explained fully before, Colestin Mineral Water is put up in all its natural purity. This might mean little if I should stop there. However, the quality of this water is such that most doctors in the valley of the Rogue recommend it for weak stomachs and kidneys. And, as an ounce of preventive is worth a pound of cure, why not use it at the table daily?

Center whom you want to impress with your way of living, bring him here for dinner. We'll reserve a table for you and guarantee a meal that will do proud and us too.

NASH CAFE

You Do Not See Many signs of this character about Medford. We always find a desirable tenant before a good building has been "to let" more than 24 hours, and land owners know we can always find a purchaser if a reasonable valuation is put on property. Consequently Medford does not impress the homeseeker as being "under the hammer." This is as it should be.
