INDIANS ARE NEARLY KILLED BY A WHALE

Six Indian fishermen, in attempting t six tidian baremen, in artempting to kill a whale which ran aground while trying to cross a shoul to get into Bel-lingham hay teday, had a narrow es-cape from death. They were thrown out of their heat by a blow from one of the monster's finces and two of them were knocked unconscious. The Indians state that the whale came into Hale's Pass from the Gulf, of Georgia and they could see it at intervals as it arose to the surface. The Indians ran alongside and assailed it with club-curs and pike poles in an effort to kill it. After a thrust from a pike pole the whale gave a sudden flop and one of its huge flukes hit the ganwale of tae fishermen's hoat and knocked its secupants into the water. Two of the Indians received a glancing blow from the fluke and were knocked into the water in a semi-conscious condition and might have drawned had it not been for the bravery of their comrade to rescuing them.

THE RECORD.

(Sacramento Bee.)
Taft at last got down to the real ossie, when he said it was whether the republican party should be judged by its record during the last 12 years. It is chiefly a record of opposition to the reform policies originated by Bryan and adopted by Roosevelt. And the opposition was triumphant in the Chiconvention which nominated Taft and Sherman.

BE PERFORMER, NOT REFORMER"-PORTER

BERKELEY, Cal., Get. 24.— Be a performer and not a reformer is the suplent advice from the lips of Lieutenant Governor Porter over which the students of the University of California are pondering today. Porter addressed 2000 men and women of the undergradute body yesterday and told them that girls know nothing of practical politics and that a ward politician is not as had he is pictured.

'Be a performer and not a reform

The a performer and not a retorm-cer' advised Parter, "for nothing is accomplished by some methods of re-form, and we have one reform of the real sort once in many years. "Your professors tell you what they think is happening," continued the speaker, while the faculty members who attended the meeting, shifted uneasily, but they don't know what is happen-ing until they get out. When you hear someone who is a ward politician south the valley a visit this week.
