

LADIES PLAN SOCIAL DANCE

Ladies of St. Ann's Society to Give Dance on the Evening of November 6

The ladies of St. Ann's society who so successfully gave the society event of last winter, are to give another dance at the Angle opera house in Medford Friday evening, November 6. The dance will be followed by a daintily prepared supper, for which the ladies of St. Ann's are justly renowned, so all are assured that the inner man will be well cared for. Those not dancing will be provided with tables on the stage, and cards will be the amusement, a handsome prize having been donated by the Edgar Hafer manager of the Crater Lake Lumber company. The music for the occasion will be furnished by the full Hazelrigg orchestra. The following ladies have agreed to act as patronesses: Mrs. B. Paul Thomas, Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. F. H. Hopkins, Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. John B. Olwell, Mrs. Nicholas Cooke, Mrs. J. D. Heard, Mrs. George P. Mims, Mrs. J. Stillman Vilas, Mrs. John S. Orth, Mrs. Josephine Russell, Mrs. W. Hyde Stalker, Mrs. A. A. Davis, Mrs. Edgar Hafer, Mrs. J. P. Reddy.

AMUSEMENTS

The sale of seats for the first attraction of the lecture course given under the auspices of the Greater Medford club, opened at Haslins' drug store this morning and already considerable interest is being manifested in the event. The course will bring to Medford some of the very best lyceum talent in the United States, and as the profits if any go to the library fund, each number should be well patronized. These ladies have never taken hold of anything that has not proved successful, and Medford is under many obligations to them.

The first number of the course will be given at the Angle opera house Friday evening of this week. The attraction consists of "Four Great Musical Artists," and has no other name. As each of these people is a star in the musical world, the management concluded to let the patrons name the company as they saw fit. Four musical artists, Angle opera house, Friday, October 30, benefit library fund. Admission 50 and 75 cents. Seats at Haslins'.

THE GREAT EXPLAINER.

Here is a copy of a poster, headed "Laboring Men—Attention!" which has been circulated in advance of Judge Taft's appearance in a number of cities: Come and hear Hon. William H. Taft. Republican candidate for president. He will explain how he secured his appointment as United States judge through the influence of Senator Foraker, the attorney of the Standard Oil company. He will explain why, as United States judge he put railroad men and mechanics in jail by means of his INJUNCTION process. He will explain why he is opposed to giving the laboring man a trial by jury. He will explain to you why the capitalistic class and the trusts and the syndicates of Wall street are supporting him, while the laboring men are opposed to him, almost to a man. By order of the committee. "Yakima Best," the flour of the hour. Miller & Ewbank. 53

HEARD ROBBER SHOOT HUSBAND, OVER TELEPHONE

PORTLAND, Or., Oct. 25.—Mrs. John Brugger is nursing her husband proprietor of a saloon at their home today after going through the unique experience of hearing over the telephone wire the reports of the revolver used by a lone hold-up man last night in shooting Brugger in his place of business.
Mrs. Brugger was talking to her husband from her home when she distinctly heard over the wire the command: "Hands up!" then she heard three shots. Brugger dropped the receiver and chased the bandit while in agony of suspense Mrs. Brugger waited till her husband came back to the telephone and informed her that he was shot but not badly hurt. The thug fired three shots, one of which hit the saloonman in the hip and another in the right leg. He escaped.
