

DELIBERATELY MISREPRESENTS

So Says Dr. Ray in Reply to Articles Appearing in the Morning Paper

The Condor proposition means reservoirs of 4,000,000-gallon capacity and two reservoirs, and it costs no more under the Condor proposition to give a 3,000,000-gallon high reservoir and a 1,000,000-gallon low reservoir or vice versa. The Medford Mail, deliberately misrepresenting, as usual, tries to convey the impression that the Condor company only supplies a 1,000,000-gallon reservoir.

Social and Personal

"Blue Stem" flour is made from blue stem wheat. It is the best. 195 T. F. Hammersley, United States deputy marshal, Saturday served a complaint on B. H. Harris and a subpoena on J. A. Perry in a civil action brought by W. J. Vlarke in regard to a Butte Falls timber case. Mr. Hammersley is the man who spirited Scriber, defauling bank cashier of La Grande, away to Portland to escape a lynching. Mr. Hammersley returns to Portland Saturday evening.

BULL ATTACKS WOMAN ON VANCOUVER'S STREETS

VANCOUVER, Wash., Oct. 30.—In terrible agony and perhaps fatally injured, Mrs. Lulu Burgy is lying at her home in this city following an attack made upon her yesterday by a bull while she and her 7-year-old Joe were walking along Columbia avenue. The animal was being driven by a young man, who persisted in whipping the brute until it became infuriated and attacked the first individual that crossed its path. Mrs. Burgy glanced over her shoulder and saw the bull charging upon her and attempted to ward off the attack by striking vigorously at the animal with her umbrella. This simply intensified its anger and the goring began.

THE APPLE AND PEAR MARKET IN NEW YORK

A New York Produce bulletin says: Apples have been in somewhat larger supply this week, and while demand has ruled light and market weak and irregular for ordinary and poor fruit, including most of the up-river receipts, fine stock has ruled firmer with prices gradually improving. King, Baldwin, Greening and most other winter apples were advanced about 2 1/2c early in the week and toward the close a further advance has been established, but to command full outside figures stock must be strictly choice, though in instances a premium is realized—for example, two cars of very fancy Greening sold at $4.50. Far western box demand also of Jonathan has been mainly at $2.25 for 4-tier, $1.75 for 5-tier, and $1.25 to $1.37 for 5-tier boxes. Pears have continued in moderate supply and anything choice has sold promptly with price showing gradual improvement, but poor stock dull and irregular. Ordinary Keifer pears are especially hard to move and prices low and irregular, though really fancy occasionally command more than quoted.

SAYS HE NEVER WHIPPED WIFE OVER FORTY TIMES

TAOUMA, Wash., Oct. 30.—Arrested before Police Judge Aronson on the charge of wife beating, Garhart Welfringer, a teamster in the employ of the city, was today fined $100 and costs. In her complaint Mrs. Welfringer declares her husband has whipped her on an average of once a week for three years. Welfringer told the court that his wife exaggerated the facts. "There have been times when I did not touch her for a month or more at a time," he said, in an aggrieved voice, "and I do not think I have whipped her more than 40 times in the past three years."

Portland Preacher Coming

C. F. Swander, a prominent preacher of Oregon, being editor of "The Apostolic Appeal," also corresponding secretary of the Christian church in Oregon, will deliver an address Sunday night, November 1, on the subject, "Without Spot or Wrinkle." This will be an address well worth hearing. Those who attended last Sunday night were delighted with the singing and the address. You will be equally delighted Sunday night with the music and the address. Welcome to all. Subject at 7 o'clock, "A Modern Plea for Ancient Truths." Bible school rally at 10 o'clock. Something doing at every service. Y. P. S. C. E. at 6:30. Cordial invitation and welcome to all our services.

BRYAN SCORES

(Continued from page 1.) cure legislation guaranteeing bank depositors against loss by the mismanagement of banks. "The democratic party seeks to reduce the tariff. "In words, the democratic party seeks to secure honesty in government through honest politics and direct election. "It appeals to the awakened conscience of the nation, as the result of justice and a growing desire for brotherhood. With victory for the national ticket and a democratic congress, the moral force of the popular verdict it would compel the senate to yield to the expressed will of the people and permit the passage of more urgent reforms. "The democratic party offers prospects of remedial legislation, and while it does not go as far as some reformers wish, a democratic victory will secure as much of reform as is now attainable. "The attempt to terrorize the American voter by threats of panics should be unsuccessful. We have had three panics, two under republican presidents. Taft says that a panic will come if I am elected. Let him give a bond that the present panic will disappear if he is elected. When he says that a democratic victory will bring a panic, he expresses an opinion; when I say that a panic came last fall, without waiting for a democratic victory, I state facts. Roosevelt Unfair. "Taft had the prestige which comes from a party in power; he has the aid of an army of officeholders; the support of monopolies, and law defying trusts; a large campaign fund, the source of which the republican national committee refuses to disclose, and most of the leading newspapers are allied with him. "I insist it is unfair for the president of the United States to use his high office to aid a party. Big Time in Chicago. CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—The greatest political rally in the history of Chicago is planned for tonight, when William J. Bryan and A. E. Stevenson, democratic candidate for governor of Illinois, are to speak here. A cavalry parade and tons of red fire are features of the reception that is planned when Bryan arrives here from his tour of Indiana. Bryan is to be met by the "Stockyards cavalry," of 800 mounted workmen, and escorted through blocks of red fire to the Morse pavilion at the stockyards, where he is to make his first address of the evening. A large number of bands have been engaged for the parade. Three other monster meetings have been planned at which Bryan is to speak. Simultaneously Stevenson will speak at meetings on the South Side. HARRIMAN SURVEYORS COMPLETE DESCHUTES WORK PRINEVILLE, Or., Oct. 31.—Harriman railroad engineers pitched their tents at Madras, this county, a week ago, and the last of Harriman's men have evacuated the lower Deschutes canyon for the prosecution of the Harriman survey through interior Crook county, work in the canyon having been completed and data fully prepared prior to grading. The engineers have rented an office at Madras and are evidently intending to make Madras their headquarters in Crook county, at least for some time to come. Engineer Mills, the surveyor in charge, is not divulging any of his company's plans in this section, other than that a line will be run south as far as Bend, and quite possibly clear to Klamath. They admit being the Harriman party, however, so it is believed that they will follow practically the route taken by former Harriman surveyors, one of which was known as the Columbia Southern extension, and the other as the Oregon Eastern. Both of these surveys cross Crooked river near O'Neill, and it is generally believed this route will be chosen. It is just possible, of course, that the new Harriman survey will pursue the course of the Central Oregon survey, which crosses Crooked river 2 1/2 miles west of Trail crossing at a point about 20 miles west of Prineville. Crook county feels more sure than ever that its railroad destiny will be a matter of only a few months at most. FRUIT CROP OF THE FOURTH DISTRICT LARGE THE DALLES, Or., Oct. 31.—The value of the fruit crop in the counties of Wasco, Hood River, Sherman, Morrow, Gilliam, Wheeler and Crook for 1908 is $1,130,500, according to a report just filed with W. H. Newell, president of its state board of horticulturists, by R. H. Weber as this city, commissioner of the Fourth Oregon district. Big apples, Hood River county leads with 300,000 boxes. The fruit crop shipped from this city during the season amounted to $225,000. AUGURS BRYAN VICTORY ON NEXT TUESDAY HOOD RIVER, Or., Oct. 31.—County Commissioner M. M. Hill, one of Hood River's staunchest democrats, and who owns one of the finest orchards in the valley, got into communication with County Judge Andrew Jackson Derby today by telephone and informed him that he is sure that Bryan will be elected, on account of the fact that a number of Spitzenburg apples which he picked yesterday have plainly defined on their skin, "B. 1908." Mr. Hill says that he believes coming events cast their shadows before and that the characters on the apples are a message of cheer to the faithful. CITY COUNCIL HOLD A BRIEF SESSION The city council held a brief session on Thursday evening. A. E. Roames was employed to represent the city regarding the sale of bonds to John Nuveen & Co. Seventh street was ordered paved from the bridge to Riverside avenue. Central avenue was ordered improved from Sixth to Eighth street. The janitor at the West school was made a special policeman.

AMUSEMENTS

Your Neighbor's Wife. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ellis, the marvelous character artists, will appear at Angle opera house, Thursday, Nov. 5, under the auspices of the Modern Woodmen. "Mr. and Mrs. Ellis represent ten different characters in "Your Neighbor's Wife." Mrs. Ellis as the German servant made a great hit, and Mr. Ellis as the old man and the tramp created an end of merriment. The play concluded with a very impressive scene, when in time of distress the widow receives a check for $2000 in payment of her husband's insurance certificate.—Fond du Lac, Wis., Daily Bulletin. At the Bijou. A big comic specialty is billed at the Bijou and it's the talk of the town. Good comedy always forecasts good crowds, and the crowds in attendance at the Bijou last night clearly showed their appreciation of the extraordinary selections. "Rivals for a Week" is an unintermitted chain of comedy throughout. You no more than finish a burst of laughter when you are right in the midst of another. The rivals are live ones, both determined to outdo the other. Their antics in trying to win the hand of the girl are most novel and amusing ones. "The Policeman's Vision" next in line is also capable of creating great mirth and laughter. The policeman falls asleep and has terrible dreams relative to the capturing of a most notorious burglar, who is capable of flattening himself out to the thickness of paper and disappearing through cracks in the wall. At the Savoy. Tonight at the popular theater will be shown one of the most novel entertainments ever shown in the city. Two original pictures are on the bill which are worthy of special consideration. "Head Over the Heels" is the story of a family living in the suburbs. The father after discharging his hostler for brutal treatment of a horse goes to business, leaving his wife and child alone. The hostler in revenge enters the house to rob; the wife observing his approach, calls her husband over the phone, but she is attacked by the robber, drops the phone and is murdered. The sounds of the conflict and the tragedy being carried to the ears of the horrified father at the other end of the wire. The acting of this picture is good and photographically it is specially artistic. "Comedy in Black and White" is a series of moving silhouette pictures produced in a particularly interesting and attractive manner. The story has to do with the calls of two lovers on a certain lively belle, whose father objects to the visit. The action is amusing, but the chief charm of the picture is the unique style of the photograph. The other attractions on the bill are very good, being the latest pictures.
