BEVERIDGE IS THE BIG GUN

Fairbanks Political Machine Wrecked and His Forces Put to Route

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Nov. 4.—The wreck of the Fairbanks political machine in Indiana, leaving Beveridge as the powerful factor in the state is forecast by the defeat of the Fairbanks men and the utter route of his organization yesterday.

Watson, Fairbanks' candidate for governor, has lost to Marshall, though the rest of the republican ticket was successful.

Senator Hemenway, a Fairbanks ally, is beaten for re-election by the ally of the legislature by the republicans. Representative Overstreet in the south district and Foster in the first district, both republicans, and Fairbanks men, are apparently defeated for re-election.

Senator Beveridge has always stood close to the Roosevelt administration, while Fairbanks has never been identified with it. The new situation puts enormous power in the hands of Beveridge and gives him the opportunity to build up a machine much greater and more effective than by the vice-president.

Thomas Taggart, former national chairman of the democratic party, is jubilant over the results in the state. He declared today that the legislature will be democratic by a big majority.

FRISCO POLICE LOOKING FOR EASTERN ELOPERS

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 3.—Believing that Edwin P. Shore, son of the Wisconsin and Michigan lumberman and Miss Betty Hedrick, a nineteen year old Pittsburg girl of prominent family are living quietly in this city following an elopement, the police are seeking the couple. The chief of police today received a request from the Pittsburg authorities to detain them although no charge has been brought against them in Pittsburg.

Probate.
Estate William Healey; order made appointing Mary Wetterer administratrix.
Estate M. P. Phipps; semi-annual account filed.
Estate David Allen; order made for final settlement.

C. W. Longman, Evangelist.
C. W. Longman, who sings during the evangelistic meetings was born in Iowa and then turned Nebraskan. His high school work was done in Iowa, and college work at Coler university. He has sung since childhood, and still sings. Mr. Longman was mixed up in all the quartets, chorus work and oratorios in college circles. He has done solo work since freshman days. All the work on voice has been to gain a clear, pure, sweet tenor for gospel work. His enunciation is particularly adapted for evangelistic singing. His belief is that singing was invented to make words more potent in the lives of men.
Evangelist Whiston waits two weeks to secure Longman, and he hopes to hold him for ten years to come. Whiston's only fear is that Longman will get married and refuse to leave home. Meetings begin Thursday night, November 5, at 7:45 sharp. Don't miss a service.

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS

Baker brothers, who have been working on the road between Bradshaw and Brownboro, have returned to the Falls and are warmly welcomed back.

Ben Prodenburg has built his home under construction and will build it so as to be an ornament of beauty and utility to the town.

J. H. Miller and Judge Pentz reached here on Wednesday from Medford.

John Obenehain and Jim Charley are at their homesteads.
Aaron Beck is finishing the inside of the hotel building.

Mr. Mathes of Medford has come among us to reside and will soon build upon his lot. He is a brother to Mrs. J. P. Hughes.

Our stores are stocked with an abundant assortment of winter supplies.

The new schoolhouse is fast nearing its finishing touches and will be a strong advertisement as well as a sight of beauty for our town. It is in fact one of the finest school buildings in our county.

The stage makes alternate trips every other day from here to Eagle Point and return and passengers can be accommodated by Mr. Stowell.

Samuel Poole has moved from his ranch to Butte Falls to enjoy the school advantages.

Mr. Stalker and family of Michigan is visiting the Miller family and may located.

As an evidence who what homesteaders have done to settle and open up this section, we point with pride to the many residences built in Butte Falls, to the erection of a fine school, to the establishment of a beautiful town site, to the installation of a fine mill plant, besides our stores and general interests of outsiders in Butte Falls. Verily, homesteaders have not failed in their duties, but have Uncle Sam recognized their work!

Mr. Duprey has erected a fine house and William Chambers is finishing up a nice cottage.

It is expected that the mill will operate all winter and fill the yard with lumber for the spring and summer trade of 1909.

C. P. Briggs has made some needed improvements around his lot.

Mr. Mathes has gone to the valley and will return with a load of supplies for Merchant Hughes.
