The Only Explanation.
Old Mrs. Smith was a chronic complainer and was constantly securing for the family physician and giving him a list of her fancied allments. He ai-ways listened quite patiently, but was getting a little tired of hearing the same things over and over.

One day when the old lady considered herself in an unusually bad way she sent for the doctor and, after going over the usual list, ended by saying: "Really, doctor, I do not know what in the world is wrong with me.

A Generous and a Selfish Way

Most merchants, no matter what line of business, are constantly figuring to make money. They buy goods to sell at a certain price and pay as little as possible. In fact, they figure to make all the money possible. This is the selfish way; but the modern way of doing business is to buy as close as possible or for as little money as possible, in order that we may give our patrons goods for less money. For instance, if we buy hosiery that is usually sold for 25c a pair at a price which enables us to sell it to you for 19c a pair, we feel that we are doing business not only the modern way, but the generous way.

Listen—If we knew when to buy hosiery that everyone sells for 25c at a price which would enable us to sell them for 19c a pair, most merchants would tell you that we were entitled to that additional profit, but we don't figure that way. If we pick up bargains in the wholesale market—and every up-to-date merchant does -we feel that we should in turn give our customers the advantage of our buying,

Bargains Make Sales We're Busy When Others Are Idle

Because the great buying public of Medford and Jackson county know where they get the best value for the money. WE'RE SELLING CLOTHES ALL THE TIME. WHY! Because we offer the latest upto-date clothing at an average of 25 per cent less than others ask for the same goods. HOW CAN WE DO IT? Probably we are better buyers, have been in the business the longest and know the demand best. We believe in quick sales at small profits, so we keep goods moving all the time and sacrifice stock rather than earry goods over from one season to another.

Comparison proves our assertions. The latest patterns in clothing and overcoats, 25 per cent less than
