BREAKDOWN: VACATION

The young men have induced L. B. Harris, formerly manager of the Lewis orchard, to supervise their properties and act in an advisory capacity. Mr. Harris enjoys an enviable reputation as an expert fruit man and the owners are fortunate to have him in charge while they are in the east.

The final chapters of the story will probably tell of eastern capital interested in the valley, of the growing fame of the Rogue River valley and prosperity—always prosperity.

KING APPLE REIGNS IN PORTLAND WINDOWS

This is the time of year when the Oregon apple comes to the front, and it is here. With the winter banana, which is reputed to be the flower of apple evolution, holding first place and selling at the retail stores at two for in second place and moving at $5 a box, the apple list just now is a big one, and there is in it everything that anybody could want.

In the displays of apples at the stores now there are Ortley's, Kings, Newtown Pippins, Johnathans, Baldwins and half a dozen other fall and winter varieties, all the equal of the best apples grown anywhere in the east, and selling at retail here at $1.50 to $2.50 a box. Local dealers say that the demand for apples, now that the summer and short season fruits are more or less out of the way, is steadily increasing. It is now the main feature of the fruit market.—Portland Telegram.

MONEY COMES AT RATE OF $125 PER MINUTE

Goldendale, Wash., has given all the communities of the Pacific coast a record in raising money for advertising purposes, by giving $2.00 for every man, woman and child within the city limits, or a total of $3500, and this came in at the rate of $125 a minute.

During the last few days that the colonist rates were effective more than 1200 people came to Oregon on one-way tickets to make this state their permanent home.

PREPARING TO IRRIGATE JOSEPHINE ORCHARDS

At the meeting of the directors of the Josephine County Irrigation and Power company last Friday evening H. L. Gilkey was elected president, G. H. Carner, vice president, J. G. Riggs, secretary and G. A. Hamilton, treasurer, says the Courier. During the week the canvassing committee have completed the work of securing subscriptions to the capital stock of the corporation and will hold a meeting in a day or two to act on the applications of experts who have asked to make the examinations along the lines of irrigation. The officers of the company hope to have an expert at work examining the heads of the various streams to find opportunities for impounding flood waters and examining various points on Rogue river where dams can be built and water secured. The expert will also make preliminary surveys for four ditch lines, two on each side of the river, each of the ditches to be about 12 miles long. The work will be pushed to completion in from four to six weeks when a full and complete report will be made to the directors of the company.

Great Day at Christian Church.

Sunday was one of the greatest days in the history of the Medford Christian church. All were looking for great things, but the services were even better than the church was expecting. At the morning service the auditorium was well filled with eager worshippers. Mr. Whiston preached on "The Headship of Christ." It was an able address and at the conclusion four heads of families took membership. These are all splendid people, and will be a great help to the church.

Last night it is estimated that nearly as many were turned away as got in the house. The building was simply packed with interested hearers. Evangelist Whiston preached a splendid sermon on "Some Absolute Certainties." Three confessed their faith in Christ. These were young people.

Both Mr. Langman and Mr. Edmeads rendered some splendid solos. They also sang a duet, which was very highly appreciated. The large chorus delights all with splendid songs.

The subject tonight is "The Crimson Tide." Fine singing. Cordial invitation to all.
