Frisco Papers Condemn

ing the arch-grafter into the place where he belongs is one of the most regrettable occurrences ever witnessed in San Francisco or any other city. It is shocking and lamentable, but it is gratifying to know that Mr. Heney is not mortally wounded. The physicians hope to save his life, and every good citizen fervently hopes that he will be spared.
Who is the man to lead in Heney's place? Who is the man to do the great work for San Francisco that any lawyer can ever do for the glorious city?
This is a time for calmness and reflection, a vital day in the city's history.
Punish the would-be assassin quickly and punish the hoodlums and grafters as well. Let there be no delay in this public duty.
What The Chronicle Says.
The Chronicle says in part:
The appalling crime which was committed in this city yesterday adds another paragraph to the long record of disasters which have befallen this unfortunate community. An officer of the law was shot down in cold blood by a cowardly assassin whom he had offended in the discharge of his official functions. Happily the murderer—for to all intents and purposes he is a murderer—failed to wholly accomplish his purpose, for at this writing there is reason to hope and believe that the victim will not die. But murder was intended and almost accomplished—and a most deadly murder, for the cowardly assassin stole up unseen behind his unsuspecting victim and shot him in the back.
Mr. Heney, let us hope, will recover. The would-be assassin must be left to the hands of the law. Fortunately, the city has been spared the spectacle of summary vengeance at the hands of horrified witnesses of the atrocious deed.
Nothing is gained and much is lost when the people take the law into their hands.
It is not possible that this city can escape injury, as it can only be misrepresented in the press of the world. It would seem that there is no end to our misfortunes. We shall not suffer if we regard it as an appalling crime and let justice take its regular course with such machinery as we have provided for the purpose, without inflammatory appeals to human passion. The victim and his family will receive the profound sympathy of the community, coupled with fervent hopes that the present belief that he will recover may be well founded.

Mass Meeting to Be Held

have been hired by the "higher-ups."
The appeal follows:
To the Citizens of San Francisco:
Francis J. Heney has fallen by the hand of an assassin, shot from behind while fighting at his post in the cause of justice for the people of this city. He would be the first man to appeal to the calm reason of the citizens to preserve the order and proceed only by the processes of the law; to look not for vengeance but to demand swift justice through the law. We make the same appeal.

Mass Meeting Tonight.
The prosecution will proceed. We are assured that the trial of Agranah Reef will continue Monday morning without interruption.
The Citizens' League of Justice calls upon the citizens of San Francisco to lend their aid to the cause of justice, and to that end a mass meeting of citizens is hereby called for Saturday evening, November 14, at Dreamland rink, at 8 o'clock. We call on every citizen to be present.

THE CITIZENS' LEAGUE OF JUSTICE.
REV. C. N. LATHROP, Chairman.
WARREN OLNEY, JR., CHARLES BENTLEY, FRED SANBORN, WALTER M. ARTHUR.
The police have taken precautions to place agents about the Dreamland rink for tonight's mass meeting which is expected to be one of the largest ever held in the city. Chief of Police Boggy today issued the following statement:

Expect No Violence.
I do not look for any mob violence in San Francisco. We are taking every precaution to prevent any possible riot, and I think that the citizens of San Francisco will help us. Reef and Haas are securely guarded at the county jail and will not be kept until it has been decided what will be done with them.
The meeting tonight is for the deciding on a general plan of action regarding the graft cases. Attorneys Hiram Johnson and Matt Sullivan, two of the most prominent attorneys in the city, have dedicated themselves to the work of the graft prosecution to continue Heney's work until he gets well or even afterwards.
Johnson and Sullivan went responsible for the position of helping; they sealed the bargain when the news of the shooting came to them, and Johnson made a speech before the most prominent members of the league last night, at which the call for tonight's meeting was issued.

Johnson's Statement.
Johnson said:
In the efficiency of the law I have no confidence, and for the administration of justice in this community I have the profoundest contempt, but it is given to us of the profession to work in but one way, and that is through this same administration of the law and justice. When the shot reverberated throughout our town that laid Frank Heney low, Mr. Sullivan and myself dedicated ourselves to this work until his recovery. We will answer ready for the people with the consent of the district attorney when the case is called on Monday, and with the aid of the citizenship of San Francisco and by the grace of God, we will put Abe Reef where he belongs and avenge this attempted assassination. Mr. Sullivan will go into this work, not as the employee of any individual, but as representing the decency of San Francisco and with out any compensation whatever.
This statement was greeted with tremendous cheers by the people at the meeting.

Ex-Mayor Phelan Speaks.
Attorney Matt Sullivan, ex-Mayor James B. Phelan spoke about the same time. Phelan said in part:
San Francisco is not an outlaw city. We will show to the world that it is not. We must drive out of the temple those men who sit in high places and assume to be the representatives of the business interests of San Francisco.

Scores of other prominent citizens spoke to the cheering crowds. Professor George R. Boker of the University of California, president of the league, counseled moderation.
The San Francisco Bar association and the Iroquois club, the big democratic club of this city, adopted resolutions of sympathy with Heney and condemnation of the crime.

Mayor Taylor Agitated.
Mayor Taylor was greatly agitated when he learned of the crime.
It is an awful affair," he said. Later he talked with the surgeons who are in attendance on Mr. Heney and declared that he believed that Heney would pull through.

The history of great assassinations show that it is difficult to protect a public man when another has determined to take his life and is willing to risk his own.
At the same time, it would be well if our courts were to be re-arranged, placing the judge, jury, witnesses, prisoner, court officials and attorneys with in the railing apart from the crowd.

Burns Says Crime Due

believe that he has been responsible for another murder.
This constant vilifying, ridiculing and caricaturing of Mr. Heney is as much responsible for the attempt to assassinate him as the bold plot, which I believe was behind the whole thing.
The shooting of Mr. Heney is not unlike the assassination of President McKinley. That crime was laid at the door of the vile yellow journals, which have consistently advocated murder by making vicious attacks on public officials. It is better for good citizens to take steps to curb these vile organizations which have openly defended crime and venomously attacked the sworn public officers who have fought fearlessly to rid San Francisco of its debauchers and the shame which they have brought upon the municipality.

SHOWS DEMAND FOR FINE CHINA

MEDFORD, Or., Nov. 7.—Wheeler Company, Peoria, Ill.—Gentlemen: The large consignment, which you recently sent us of fine china, stoneware and pottery is going remarkably fast and we feel justified in placing another large order with you. You will remember that you expressed a fear that Medford was too small a city to market such high-class goods. At first we found sales a little slow, and were inclined to think that perhaps we had made a mistake, but since people have become acquainted with our stock and find we sell it at less than Portland prices, it is having a ready sale. We have the best stock of this kind in southern Oregon, making a specialty of fine china and ornamental pottery, carrying all of the choice patterns, including Norse ware, Bearfoot West Indiana and Baseline ware. Although we have been established but a year, we have built up a remarkably fine business, a business that is growing faster than the city, showing our goods are fully appreciated by the people of Medford and Jackson county.
Yours very truly,
MEDFORD TEA & COFFEE HOUSE.

WHAT THE KIDNEYS DO.

All the blood in the body passes through the kidneys once every three minutes. The kidneys filter the blood. They work night and day. When healthy they remove about 600 grains of impure matter daily, when unhealthy some part of this impure matter is left in the blood. This brings on many diseases and symptoms—pain in the back, headache, nervousness, hot, dry skin, rheumatism, gout, gravel, disorders of the eyesight and hearing, dizziness, irregular heart, debility, droopiness, dropsy, deposits in the urine, etc. But if you keep the filters right you will have no trouble with your kidneys.
John Davis, living on Broadway street, Medford, Or., says: "I was afflicted with kidney trouble for 12 years, and although I doctored and used many remedies, I was unable to find relief. I suffered severely from pains in my back and generally felt tired and worn out. Learning of the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills, I decided to try them and procured a box at Haas' drug store. I had only used them a short time when I noticed a great improvement in my condition, continued and was benefited in every way. I am still using Doan's Kidney Pills, and the results are so satisfactory that I feel I can recommend them very highly."
