YOUNG LADIES HAVE ENJOYABLE OUTING
 Two loads of young people, members of a class in the Presbyterian church, went on a picnic to Ashland Saturday, and had a most enjoyable time. Those in the party were: Mary Dressler, Mariel Roddel, Katharine Brown, Jessie Parry, Marjorie Kerr, Mary Trow, Mary Genevieve Wortman, Mary Gore, Mary Stevenson, Marion Renshaw, Lorraine Bliton, Ruby Burke, Winnie Lougreen, Charles Rogers, Maurice Miller, Fred Thatcher, Carl Glasgow, Lawrence Ulrich, Opal Daily, Ione Flynn and Ruth Agnew.
A Pleasant Surprise Party.
 A pleasant surprise party was given Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Shirley last Saturday evening at their home on Anderson creek. The event was the christening of their new dwelling just being completed. A very pleasant evening was spent, the children playing games and the older guests indulging in neighborly conversation until 11 o'clock, when luncheon was served, after which the guests departed to their several homes, all expressing themselves as having enjoyed a very pleasant evening.
 Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Da-huff and children; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Withrow and children; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Dowey and children; Mr. and Mrs. John Bailey and children; Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Brophy and children; Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Robison and children; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mapere and children; Miss Alice Hendricks, Miss Minnie Chapman.

AMUSEMENTS
At the Bijou.
 Packed houses greeted the initial appearance of vaudeville at the Bijou last night. A more pleased and highly satisfied audience has seldom been seen in the city. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Ellis appearing in their one-act play, "The Opera Singer's Husband," were frequently greeted with hearty applause. The play is a most novel and up-to-date one, being on a decidedly comical order throughout.
 The specialties by Mr. and Mrs. Ellis were also of a high order. Mrs. Ellis appearing in the makeup as a Dutch girl, doing wooden shoe dances and singing Dutch songs, is a feature of the performance.
 There will be an entire change of program as usual Sunday, Wednesday and Friday. Doors will be open at 7:15 p. m. to better accommodate the large crowds. Come early and avoid the rush. Admission 10 and 20 cents.
"Just Out of College."
 "Just Out of College" recalls some of the best things that the late Charles Hoyt wrote.
 In the third act the young man steps up to the fresh ticket man in the railroad station.
 "Have you seen my aunt?" he asks.
 "This is not a detective agency," says the fresh agent.
 "What is not, then?" he asks.
 "It's a bureau of information."
 "All right," the young man goes on, "is my hat on straight?"
 The gag atmosphere of the piece is great. There is something doing all the time and in the matter of characters there is a string of "types" that reminds one of "Bird Center" at its best. There is a story to the piece, of course, an ingenious yarn of a young fellow, just out of college, his girls, his business affairs, his friends and his scrapes. The chief interest is in the Ade method of working out the odd situations and the development of the sort of characters we see about us every day, the only difference being that it takes the eye of a humorist to see just what is funny in all of these everyday people.
