AMUSEMENTS

W. H. WEST
Who Wrestles Welsh Wednesday.

Wrestling Match Tonight.

Both of the principals in tonight's wrestling go have gotten into the finest possible shape and will both make a hard fight for the long end of the purse. Welsh agrees to throw West three times in an hour and there are many who say that the big boy cannot do it. There is, however, a strong following who are backing the Twin City boy.

The match starts at 8:30 p. m. in the Medford Opera House. A 24-foot mat has been provided so there will be no danger, as in the first go.

West won from Welsh on November 9, taking three falls out of four, though one was by default.

A preliminary between local men will first be witnessed. A good time promised for all. Tickets on sale at H. H. Hines' drug store.

Van Dykes

For the next attraction at the Medford Theater Manager Hazelrigg has selected the well known actor, Mr. Les Willard.

No star has ever made such rapid advancement and favorable impression as this young actor. Besides being an actor, he is a scholar and stands high in the literary world. Mr. Willard is most favorably remembered as starring in "The Christian" and "The Country Squire," in which parts he received high praise and made a tremendous success. He is not unknown in all the large cities, and for his excellent work has received most favorable criticism. He will appear at the Medford Friday night, November 20, in "A Poor Relation." The prices for this engagement will be 25c, 50c, 75c and $1. Seats on sale at Haskins' drug store Thursday morning.

YOU SHOULD ATTEND THIS

THANKSGIVING SALE

HERE IS A REASON WHY—

We are shaving the profits close these days and think we are doing the people of Medford a favor. If by selling at a profit of 10 per cent we can do a business of $10,000 a month we make $1000 and that pays all of our expenses and a little over, we feel that we have done you a favor. If we were asking a profit of 25 per cent and did only $5000 a month we would make $1250, or $250 more than the other way, but you would be paying 15 per cent more for your goods. Listen, dear reader, we prefer to do the big business on a small profit than to do the small business on a big profit. Read on—We are doing the big business in our line in this town. Why? Because we are asking only small profits. We invite you to replenish your needs at this sale, knowing full well that you will be glad you bought here; and if you ain't glad, we will make good if you tell us.

Are Corsets Necessary?
CORSETS ARE NECESSARY.

If a lady expects to have her clothes fit perfectly, she must wear a corset, so corsets are necessary to every woman, especially if she desires to appear well dressed. Corsets are absolutely necessary to this store, because the demand is growing fast and we must have them in order to supply that demand. Redfern, W. B. Warner Bros. and the Sablin are all good, and we have just received large shipments. We have a Miss Ward in charge of our corset department, and can assure you that you will get the right style, for Miss Ward has had years of experience in selling and fitting corsets in such stores as Olds, Wortman & King, Portland, and The Denver Dry Goods Co., Denver, Col. We invite your patronage.

Twenty Five Dollar Suits

$25.00

We've raised the standard of $25.00 Suits by offering our trade better suits for $25.00 than can be had elsewhere for the same price.

Our Twenty Five Dollar Suits

rather dwarf the value of other $25.00 suits.

$25.00

The fabric, the style and the tailoring our $25.00 Suits at once stamp them as unusual Suits for the price.

Now, sir, if you want a good Suit at a popular price, we say in all frankness and sincerity,

Hold on to your twenty five dollars with a firm grasp until you see our line. Then, as if to clinch your security, we say to you, "money back" if you want it, sir.
