

Social and Personal

Lesmeister's gallery open all week and Sundays from 1 to 4 p. m. 211 Mr. and Mrs. John D. Olwell, Holbrook Withington and H. G. Rowley took Sunday dinner with Charles Champlin at Poots Creek. Their host returned to Medford with them, staying over night. The big dredge is working in good gold bearing gravel, states Mr. Champlin. Fred Champlin is in Chicago for Thanksgiving, but will return in a few weeks.

Representative D. H. Miller left Monday evening for Portland to consult a specialist regarding his health. He has been in poor health since he had inflammation of the bowels last summer. While in bed he was laid up to his waist in ice-cold water while on a fishing trip on the upper Rogue. He will try to get in shape to do good work at the coming session of the legislature.

Attention, K. of P. There will be work in the third rank on Monday night. All members are urged to be present. 212 Ella Gaunay, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building. J. C. Hall spent Monday in Grants Pass on business.

J. E. Hart of Eagle Point was visiting in Medford Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Miles are visiting in Portland.

J. W. Hicks of Central Point paid a visit to Medford recently. Mr. Hicks was much pleased with the result of the recent election. "McComb & True, located at Page & San's warehouse, opposite R. R. Co. water tank."

S. C. Collins of Sams' Valley was a recent Medford visitor. L. C. Narregran of Eagle Point was recently in Medford.

P. M. Kershaw has returned from a business trip to Gold Hill. W. T. Grieve was a recent Medford visitor.

How do you like the mud on streets ordered paved last June? Jack Donahue caught a number of small trout in the Rogue Sunday. He reports the river the color of coffee.

Another carload of machinery has been received by the Rogue River Electric company for their power plant enlargement at Gold Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Eynart spent Sunday at Gold Hill. "McComb & True for prices on 500 pound lots of flour and potatoes."

Will von der Hellen of Eagle Point spent Monday in Medford. A. B. Tronson of Tronson & Guthrie, Eagle point, spent Monday in Medford.

R. C. P. Astbury of Gold Hill visited in Medford Monday. The Hazelrigg orchestra played for a dance at Hills, Cal., on Saturday evening.

Vote for the most popular baby. Ballots at King & Long's. Sam McClendon, the Gold Hill capitalist, reports the sale of the Noah Smith tract, east of the Pelton place in Sams Valley, to J. B. Fisher of Lakeview, 858 acres, for $3825.

Many local fruitgrowers are planning to attend the state horticultural meeting at Portland December 1. J. S. Marsh of Central Point brought to Medford Monday some of the finest Spitzenberg apples ever grown anywhere. They are the first fruit from four and five-year-old trees and grown on the foothill slopes. In color, shape, size and flavor, they leave nothing to be desired.

"Johnson's Best Flour, $1.25. McComb & True. H. F. Meader, superintendent of the Kaiser ranch near Phoenix, is unloading a car of nursery stock that he recently purchased at Yakima. Nine thousand Newtowns and pear trees will be planted on the Kaiser place, the balance of the trees going to other orchards.

Do you know where you live? If you don't look at the number on your house. If you can't find it, look for your street signs, and thank the city council for its thoughtfulness. H. G. Rowley of New York is purchasing fruit in the valley from the various orchards.

R. V. Holden of Portland and his wife are spending a few days in the valley. J. M. Wagner, proprietor of the Six Kiyon mineral water springs, spent Saturday in Medford.

Charles G. Bailey of San Francisco, dealer in electrical appliances, is spending a few days in Medford. Colonel Frank L. Ton Velle has received a large shipment of fruit trees for planting at his newly purchased ranch north of Central Point.

CANADA TRADE BETTER THAN EVER BEFORE OTTAWA, CAN., Nov. 23.—Trade and financial conditions in the dominion are today better than at any time since 1902, according to the statement of Rudolph Forget, M. P., president of the Montreal stock exchange. There is a broadening tendency visible all around, and the indications are that there will be a good market for some months to come. All the banks are lending money at 4 1/2 per cent, and, in fact, money has never been easier while the country crop is on the move. That confidence is pretty well restored Porter has no doubt, and with the effects of Judge Taft's election in the United States he is of the opinion that conditions will improve more rapidly than at any time since the panic which upset things generally on this side of the line. The industrial situation has greatly improved in almost all lines in Canada. In some cases the increase has been 25 per cent upwards over the previous month.

DIED. HYDE—In the South Pacific hospital in Grants Pass Tuesday, November 17, 1908, Frank Hyde, aged 18 years. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Hyde, living at Laurel Grove, near Mariply. He had been ill for a number of weeks with a complication of diseases and was brought to the hospital for medical attendance the latter part of last week.

AMUSEMENTS

At the Bijou. A strong bill is now on at the Bijou, composed mostly of comic subjects. "Bower's Homecleaning" is the laugh producer of the age. Poor Mr. Bower enters into housecleaning with the rest of the family and fares rather poorly. His mislapses are most comical. The other subjects are also good laugh producers. A beautiful illustrated song is included in the performance. Admission 10c.

"The Holy City." With Luella Morey and a superb cast. Theater patrons will have increased interest in the remarkable performance now being given at last season's incomparable success, "The Holy City" because of changes made in the play. In selecting for his beautiful drama the thrilling narrative of St. John the Baptist, Mr. Bennett chose the most dramatic story ever told. The epoch covering the birth of Christianity provides scenes of vivid comparison; the arrogant and sensual splendor of the Roman, shown with the greater spiritual beauty of the humble followers of the Master presents entrancing contrasts. No more absorbing tragedy was ever conceived, no greater stage pictures ever presented. Spectacular and powerful acting combine scenes of unchastened inspire enrapturing thought. The interpreting company formed for this, the third season, and the support of Miss Morey is the strongest that could be engaged; the performances are again the most important theatrical offering of the year.

"The Holy City" comes to Medford Theater Friday, November 27, and Manager Hazelrigg has put the prices at 25c, 50c, 75c, $1. Seats on sale at Haslins' drug store Tuesday morning, November 24.

JAPAN ON THE EVE OF INDUSTRIAL AWAKENING SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Nov. 23.—Japan is on the eve of a great industrial awakening, according to Francis B. Loomis, commissioner general of the United States to the Tokio international exposition, who discussed today the commercial activities of Nippon. The commissioner, who arrived on the steamship Mongolia, also declared that Japan had postponed the exposition because she is not yet ready to accommodate the thousands of visitors who are expected to attend.

Loomis declared that the first step of the government is to get the most possible out of agriculture and then to convert the nation to a great workshop, incidentally taking advantage of the cheap labor.

Complaint has been made in the commercial centers of Japan and China that American foodstuffs and dried fruits are packed so carelessly that the products become wormy in the tropical climate.

Speaking of the exposition, Loomis said that Japan will send a commission to the United States to study the past exposition in this country.

JAPAN WATCHING AFFAIRS IN CHINA LONDON, Nov. 23.—Japan is watching closely the development of affairs in China and is preparing for whatever emergency the crisis may bring, according to advices received today by the British foreign office.

Despite Japanese denials of interference in Chinese affairs, there is every indication that the mikado is keenly alive to the possibilities of the oriental situation and will not be found unprepared in any event.

Chinese messages reaching London by way of Japan say that Prince Chun is splitting up the Chinese army and appointing division commanders with separate authority, as he fears to trust to a consolidation of power under any one general. This is taken to mean that serious disaffection exists in the ranks of the army and gives color to the report that a revolution is threatened.

A Map of Jackson County The Tribune and Southern Oregonian is having made at great expense a fine, colored, lithographed map of Jackson county.

This map will show all cities, towns and villages, rivers and waterways, section and survey lines, railroads and projected railroads, wagon roads, forest reserve boundaries, election precincts and other data needed by everyone. All townships shown in colors.

This up-to-date map will be ready for distribution some time in December. It will be sold only through The Tribune and Southern Oregonian.

This will be your only chance to secure a good map of Jackson county, as all map editions are out of print and plates were destroyed in the San Francisco fire, necessitating new plates made at an enormous expense. Further details later. Ready in December.

What Papers Say

COUNSELING DISHONOR. It certainly will do the state of Oregon no good and will not assist in the betterment of public and private morals for a leading newspaper of the state, like the Oregonian, to openly advise public officials to violate pledges signed voluntarily and filed with the records of the state. The Oregonian had a perfect right to urge these men not to sign the pledges in question, but once they have done so its only honorable course as a newspaper would be to insist that they now be carried out to the letter. Broken pledges are too common among officeholders to be in any manner advocated, or even condoned, by the press, which should seek to elevate the standard of political morals. Eugene Guard.

REPUDIATION OF PLEDGES. Grant that we have an anomalous condition in the state of Oregon; grant that the 51 members of the legislature elect, who subscribed to Statement No. 1, did a foolish thing; that the seating of a dyed-in-the-wool democrat from the solid south in the senate is not a consistent thing for a republican state to do; grant, even, that the interests of Oregon will be hampered by such action; yet all these considerations combined do not furnish a sufficient reason or excuse for the wholesale repudiation of a pledge—even a political pledge. This would be an anomaly at which the nation might indeed grieve; this would furnish a spectacle at which the nation might well wonder; this would be a precedent at which constituents would naturally stand aghast. The member-elect, who having made this pledge in the hope that he would hereby insure his election, violates it in the next assembly will not merely lay himself open to the charge of being swayed from his purpose by obnoxious influences; his constituents will be quick to arrive at the conclusion that he took the pledge with the cool and premeditated intention of violating it, for there is not a candidate who did not realize that the present contingency was not only possible but very probable. Verily we may consider that we have fallen on evil days if a question of party allegiance has led men to even the semblance of dishonor.—Grants Pass Outlook.

VIENNA, via Frontier, Nov. 23.—Taking advantage of the Balkan engagement and the violent racial struggles which threaten Austria with actual civil war, Hungary is openly preparing an attempt to swallow the dominant country.

As a seat of government, it is admitted even here that Buda Pest has already become more important than Vienna. The Hungarian leaders propose to make Austria's formal acknowledgment of Vienna the place of base for the Balkan struggle.

Below We Tell You Why The Big THANKSGIVING SALE at this Store is a Success.

If you were looking for a home and should pick up an advertisement which simply stated that in a certain place you could buy the best home in the world and should turn around and pick up another advertisement which stated that you could buy a home in a certain place for a certain price, that it consisted of so many acres, had on it a certain kind of a house and all the necessary buildings, improvements and stock necessary for making it a success as a home, which would be inclined to investigate—the advertisement which stated nothing or the one which gave a clear, concise straightforward description of what you were looking for? OUR ADVERTISEMENTS tell you about our goods, the former and sale prices, and you know what to expect when you come to this store. We invite you to see Sunday's Mail and tomorrow's Tribune and Wednesday's Mail for examples of the kind of advertising that tells something.
