SOMETHING TO BE THANKFUL FOR.

In resolving to continue the campaign of publicity for Medford, the Commercial club again has more than justified its existence. The coming year's campaign will be the greatest ever undertaken by a city the size of Medford.

There will be 50,000 copies of the new pamphlet issued, and the booklet will be the finest ever published for any community in the history of publicity. In addition, there will be 30,000 copies of another pamphlet itself superior to the booklets issued by most towns. Then, there will be over 100,000 pieces of literature printed and distributed for Medford's benefit.

In many ways the Southern Pacific and Sunset Magazine have shown interest in Medford, but in no way more than in aiding and abetting the campaign of publicity. For the third time in three years, Medford leads the procession, the first city in the northwest to begin its campaign of publicity. It is largely due to the example set by Medford that the trend of immigration from the east has set toward Oregon.

The coming year promises to be the brightest in Medford's history, and the most rapid growth is in sight—all of which is due to the efforts of the Commercial club—so that Medford has reason to be more than thankful for the Commercial club in this Thanksgiving period of the year.

Everyone with a particle of civic pride in the community should give, according to his means, to the publicity fund for the coming year—make it the largest that any city of its size ever received.

ADMITS ITS IMPOTENCY.

Neither perjured affidavits nor double-column first-page blackmailing personal attacks on the editor of The Tribune under the stolen caption, "So the People May Know," nor a large paper filled with unpaid ads and boiler plate, will make the Mail a real newspaper or remove the marks of the spineless amateur.

The personality of the editor of The Tribune is not in question. It does not interest the public. But whatever he has done to make himself unpopular is now being so rapidly and thoroughly undone by the Mail that, had it the circulation its publisher has sworn to, the crown of popularity would be pressed upon his unwilling brow.

By inducing a public parasite to monkey with the buzz-saw and malign the personality of The Tribune's editor, thus confessing the utter impotency of its own force, the Mail is able to present, however feebly, an excuse for a reply, hoping that abuse will supplant argument and distract attention from the point at issue—its circulation. But the Mail's affidavit, like the celebrated and profane spot on Lady Macbeth's hand, won't wash.

"The heights by the great man reached and kept," quotes the Mail, referring to its publisher and his lofty position. There is nothing like appreciating yourself. The strumpet fame has branded him and the jaded Jezebel of journalism claimed him for her own. Bow low, and be thankful this Thanksgiving that such a great man stalks among us.

"The editor of The Tribune," says the Mail, "has lost the respect of decent people," while the publisher of the Mail, according to the same authority, walks on the dizzy heights with great men. Pride goeth before a fall, and the man on the heights is likely to tumble quite a ways.

NAVAL OFFICERS PLEASSED BY THE RECOMMENDATIONS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—Navy officers today are making unofficial favorable comments on the recommendation of Admiral Helliwell, chief of the bureau of yards and docks, for large appropriations for insular stations and for a higher standard in the equipment and maintenance of home navy yards.

PROPRIETOR OF EULEN STORE VISITING MEDFORD

F. A. Sillars, the proprietor of the store at Eulen, which burned recently, is visiting in Medford. He says he was coming down stairs with a light in his hand when he fell and was rendered unconscious. When he regained his senses the entire interior of the store was ablaze. The hotel, some 25 yards distant, was saved. The loss was about $4500. Only $2000 in insurance was carried. He plans to reopen the establishment in the spring.

VISCOUNT GORT KILLS GUIDE WHILE HUNTING

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 25.—Word has reached here from Raleigh, a district 120 miles north of Kenora, that Viscount Gort of England accidentally killed his guide while hunting. Gort was a member of a party organized to go into the wilds after deer by Major J. P. Vereker of Kenora. On Thursday William Prettie and Gort were trailing mountain moose and when they thought they were close to their quarry Gort slipped on an ice covered stone and in falling his rifle went off.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warnings That No Medford Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 1 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are sick. Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Sick kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, ill-smelling urine, full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL No. 2 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, tell you of sick kidneys and warn you of the approach of dropsy, diabetes and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently. Here's Medford proof:

Mrs. J. H. Boussum, living corner of Twelfth and C streets, Medford, Or., says: "I suffered so severely from kidney trouble that I was unable to do any housework. My kidneys were very irregular and caused me much annoyance. My back pained me severely when tipping or lifting and sharp twinges were often present in my loins. I ran down in health and at times felt very miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were brought to my attention and I procured a box at Haskins' drug store. They helped me from the first, so I continued taking them and was entirely cured. I have recommended Doan's Kidney Pills to other sufferers."

Willing But Too Short

of the cash to buy good fruit land, is the plaint of many homeseekers. We happen to have on our list several first-class tracts, on terms so easy they will almost pay for themselves. There never was a better time to buy fruit lands in this valley than today; and when the reaction comes these "easy buys" can be subdivided and sold at a big profit. Interview the

A Map of Jackson County

The Tribune and Southern Oregonian is having made at great expense a fine, colored, lithographed map of Jackson county.

This map will show all cities, towns and villages, rivers and waterways, section and survey lines, railroads and projected railroads, wagon roads, forest reserve boundaries, election precincts and other data needed by everyone. All townships shown in colors.

This up-to-date map will be ready for distribution some time in December. It will be sold only through The Tribune and Southern Oregonian.

This will be your only chance to secure a good map of Jackson county, as all map editions are out of print and plates were destroyed in the San Francisco fire, necessitating new plates made at an enormous expense. Further details later. Ready in December.

SALEM BEER

SALEM is the most popular beer in Northern California and Southern Oregon. It is acknowledged to be the equal of the very best eastern product. All beers are good, but some beers are liked better than others. The proof for this assertion lies in drinking Salem beer. If you wish to be convinced, ask for Salem beer and drink it.

Up Here In The Northwest

there's no need for shipping in carloads of cereal coffee. Made from our own good wheat, made in a clean, successful right-at-home factory, is a strictly northwest product with absolute merit. For years people of Washington, Idaho and Oregon have been using it instead of coffee, and it stands without a peer for a high-grade cereal coffee. Ask your grocer for a box and give it one trial. The packages are larger than ordinary cereal coffees and cost only 25c.
