THE RESCUE Saw Passenger Grabbed by Four Men---Notified Police-Arrest Kidnappers

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Dec. 2.-The police today are investigating the peeuliar incidents surrounding the alleged kidnapping of R. B. Elder, western representatives of the Allis-Chalmer-Pamping company, who was taken in sensible in an automobile to San Jose vesterday by four men, one of whom called himself "Frank Martin," and asisted that he was the son of former Police Captain John Martin of this The quartet were arrested at Santa Clara on complaint of William A. Han-son, the chauffeur, who says he drove the party with Elder down the penin-sula yesterday morning and saw Elder robbed of a draft for $375, a diamond pin, a fountain pen and a jeweled match box. Hanson says that Elder was drug ged in the Cutter saloon on Market street and was in a stupified and help less condition in the ride from Sa Francisco to Santa Clara. The Chauffeur's Story.

Hanson says that when he was sun moned from the Pioneer garage at a'clock in the morning he found four "rough looking men, apparently trying to take care of a drunken man. He received his orders to drive to San Jose and set out for that city. He says that he soon guessed that something was wrong, as he found the four men in dustriously going through Elder's poch et. Martin, he says, explained tha Elder had a check on his person which he had promised to indorse so that the could cash it at Watsonville. Hanson says that he saw Elder's other value bles removed and this, he says, prompt ed Martin to say to him: "Keep quiet and stand in with us and we will give you a rake off on the

Queen Oaroline's Pastime

Queen Caroline, wife of King George IV. of England, with whom she was on the worst possible terms, is de-scribed in "The Diary of a Lady in Walting," written by Lady Charlotte Bury. The queen seems to have tried witchcraft on the king. Lady Char-lotte writes on one occasion: "After dinner her royal highness made a wax figure, as usual, and gave it an amia-ble addition of large horns, then took three pins out of her garments and stuck them through and through and put the figure to roast and melt at the fre.
