

MANY GROWERS IN SPOKANE

National Apple Show Attracts Large Crowds--
Roosevelt's Commission

PORTLAND, Or., Dec. 7.—Spokane's national apple show is attracting attention from fruitgrowers all over the United States this week. Eighty boxes of the choicest fruit shown at the Portland exhibit of the Northwest Fruit-growers' association and Oregon State Horticultural society are being displayed, while 20 other boxes of premium fruit are rushing across the continent to New York city to be shown in Macy's windows and then forwarded to the fairs of England, Germany, France and Russia, in specially sealed boxes to insure their safe arrival in London, Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg.

The women of the Pacific northwest are taking an increasingly active part in its development and advertisement, and the Portland Woman's club will go out on a unique excursion next week, when they will gather the beautifully tinted branches of "Oregon grape" in quantity sufficient to decorate the famous Plymouth church of Brooklyn, N. Y., of which Rev. Newell Dwight Hillis is pastor. The Portland Commercial club will send this east by express in ample time to reach Brooklyn by Christmas.

President E. J. Ross of the Washington State Dairymen's association and numerous other members of that organization will participate in the convention of the Oregon State Dairy association in Salem Thursday and Friday of this week. Electric power has been installed in the exhibit hall for working exhibits, and handsome cups are to be given as prizes, appropriately engraved, and assurance of dairy and creamery exhibits are coming in to the secretary daily. Salem people have arranged a splendid reception for their guests. Oregon dairymen will be well represented at the Washington meeting in Chehalis next week.

Members of the legislative committee of the Oregon Good Roads association and state grange, appointed at a largely attended state conference, have come to Portland to spend a full day for the third time in the past two months in order that they might agree upon such a bill as could be brought before the legislature and become a law without unnecessary delay.

Oregon and Washington were each given a hearing before President Roosevelt's commission on country life, and expressed themselves as more than pleased with the co-operation they received in these two states. They were particularly fortunate in being enabled to meet the leading horticulturists on account of numerous fruit meetings at this season. The whole country is awaiting the commission's report with genuine interest.

TALENT BUSTLINGS.

(Talent Rustler.)
Miss Ina Oatman was a visitor in Medford last Saturday.

Jay Terrill was taking in the sights at Medford last Saturday.

Five cartloads of apples were shipped out of Talent Thursday.

Eben Carver of Medford was visiting with the family of Thomas Bell last Sunday.

Road Supervisor Rose has housed the most of his road making machinery at the county poor farm for the winter.

Sheriff Jones was in town last Tuesday trying to get some information that might throw light on the disappearance of W. L. Fancher.

Fred Clark, who with his family has been living in a tent on Anderson creek about four miles from Talent, had the misfortune to lose his tent and a portion of its contents by fire last Saturday afternoon.

W. H. Norman, who came here recently from Oklahoma, will open up a barber shop in the Calkins jewelry store. He will install a bath and all modern appliances that belong to the twentieth century.

John A. Kahn of Yankton, S. D., en route to Portland by wagon, passed through Talent one day this week, and while in conversation with the Rustler man said: "You have here the best location for a thriving little city that I have yet seen throughout all my journey. All you need is a little money invested in good buildings, and the location of one or two good factories."

Mr. and Mrs. L. Waterman took a drive to the Kincaid home, above Ashland, Thursday and stopped at the coal mine on the Taylor place, where their sons, Archie and Ernest, are employed. It is understood that this property is all right and the coal deposit getting better as development work continues. Improvements still continue in town. The new addition being built on the residence occupied by Ray Stanford and wife, is a great improvement to that property. J. S. Spitzer has constructed a board walk in front of the Foster office, and J. N. Manning built a good walk in front of his blacksmith shop last Saturday. G. A. Gardner had several loads of gravel hauled and put in front of the confectionery store.

AMUSEMENTS.

"Don Fulano."
The Bijou theater surpassed all previous records for big attractions by securing Don Fulano, acknowledged by all to be the most marvelous horse in the world. Dr. Ellis, the owner, has from time to time been offered a small fortune for this wonderful horse, but no inducement in the world could tempt the master to part with his life companion and comrade, Don Fulano. The noble little black beauty possesses a brain of human intelligence, and his feats can be styled as nothing less than marvelous.

Don Fulano has known no other master than Dr. Ellis, and is yet to feel the sting of the whip. It was when Don was a young colt that he first showed signs of human intelligence. One day the doctor entered the stable, took off his coat and hat as was his custom, and as he was about to place them on the regular hook, Don approached him and, taking the coat in his mouth, placed on the hook for his master. This was Don's first exhibit of human intelligence, and day after day the master worked with him, teaching him little tricks to which the horse readily responded. Today Don is capable of performing more than 500 tricks.

The Bijou theater has been very fortunate in securing Don Fulano for all this week owing to a necessitated stopover for the horse between Portland and San Francisco.

The Medford Theater.
Walker Whiteside's greatest success, the splendid comedy, "We Are King," is the attraction at the Medford tomorrow night, Tuesday, December 8.

The following complimentary notice appeared in the Oregon Statesman (Salem) December 4, and is evidence that Medford is in for a treat:
"We Are King" proved to be one of the best offerings that has graced the boards of the Capital City's cozy opera house for some time and in its way probably for some time to come. It was a clean and delightfully refreshing production and those who saw it could not but be well pleased and satisfied. A very small house turned out, and a great number of those who like the good things in rich, sparkling comedy were not present and of course missed a treat. The acting was good and the action light and breezy. The company carried especially fine settings for the first and second acts," etc.

Louis Walters of Gold Hill has challenged W. H. West, the Medford wrestler for a match, to take place in Gold Hill on Saturday evening, December 19. Mr. West has accepted the challenge and arrangements are now practically completed. They will wrestle "catch as catch can" barring the struggle hold, and will weigh 170 pounds. This promises to be a good match, as Mr. Walters is a wrestler of considerable reputation, while West has but recently defeated Jack Welsh of Twin Cities, Minn., in two different matches at Medford. A Map of Jackson County

The Tribune and Southern Oregonian is having made at great expense a fine, colored, lithographed map of Jackson county.

This map will show all cities, towns and villages, rivers and waterways, section and survey lines, railroads and projected railroads, wagon roads, forest reserve boundaries, election precincts and other data needed by everyone. All townships shown in colors.

This up-to-date map will be ready for distribution some time in December. It will be sold only through The Tribune and Southern Oregonian.

This will be your only chance to secure a good map of Jackson county, as all map editions are out of print and plates were destroyed in the San Francisco fire, necessitating new plates made at an enormous expense. Further details later. Ready in December.
