Santa Claus Says

"Hello!—hello!—yes, this is the North Pole! Want to talk to Santa Claus—well, go right ahead—yes, this is Santa talking—

"What's that—am I busy?—well, say, AM I BUSY!—stop joking and get busy yourself or get off the wire.

"Want to know where you'd better select a few things you want to give yourself?

"You don't have to go far—hello, hello, keep off. This is a busy wire—I said you don't have to go far to find the finest kind of a stock of Christmas gifts—just go to Baker Hutchason's—and go right away—don't wait until all the best things are gone.

"Yes, well, I ought to know—I've seen a good many Christmas stores—but Baker Hutchason's suits me.

"Well—good bye—but hurry."

Very nice of Santa Claus—but we think we deserve his kind words because we've worked hard and planned thoughtfully to bring together the greatest showing of splendid gift-things ever massed under one roof in this part of the state.

And—YOU DON'T NEED A BULGING POCKETBOOK WHEN YOU COME HERE—for the prices are just as delightful as the gifts.

CARRYING OF GUNS
SALEM, Or., Dec. 14.—It is probably a bill will be presented to the next legislature making the carrying of concealed weapons a misdemeanor with punishment of six months' imprisonment without optional fine and making it a misdemeanor for gun merchants to sell revolvers unless the would be purchaser has a permit to buy issued by the circuit judge. Assistant District Attorney Charles L. McNary is father of the move.

His plan is for public protection. The people have been greatly aroused over a series of crimes in this city and Portland, which has caused terror in both communities, and it is generally conceded that some method of curbing the "gun men" will decrease murders and assaults fully 20 per cent.

It is argued that the quickest way of stopping crime becoming rampant through promiscuous carrying of guns is to strike at the foundation and make it difficult for people to purchase firearms. It is argued that the circuit judge is the logical man to pass on the advisability of carrying concealed weapons. The bill will also include the stipulation that guns may not be carried unless a permit from the circuit judge has been secured. The punishment suggested is to put a wholesome fear into the hearts of the habitual "gun men." The bill will also carry a clause giving safe and certain prerogative to sheriffs and deputies to search anyone whom they might suspect of illegally carrying concealed weapons.

Wonders With Handcuffs.

The Dreamland theater has a very unusual vaudeville act which will be put on each night this week, and that is the wonderful handcuff man, Fuzard, who will do the most wonderful stunts with the iron that could be imagined. At the county courthouse this afternoon he gave an exhibition in Sheriff Smith's office, where he was securely shackled with first one, then several wrist and leg irons, which placed the man in what seemed an impossible position to loosen himself, and inside of five minutes he had freed himself, and upon examination of all the locks were in good order, but opened. There were several gentlemen present, and the work of ironing the professor was done in their presence. He would elude himself for a few minutes and return free of irons.—Albany Evening Herald.

Professor Fuzard will be at the Grand all of this week and will be assisted by Mrs. Bulina, spirit medium. They will give an entertainment that you cannot afford to miss. The great trunk mystery is in itself worth more than the price of admission.
