SOCIETY NOTES

The third meeting of the Bridge Whist club was held on Friday afternoon at the beautiful home of Mrs. F. E. Merriek, the hostess being Mrs. Nye, who entertained most charmingly. The 12 members of the club were present and spent a most enjoyable afternoon. The next meeting of the club will be held on the first Friday after New Year's.

Special music and exercises in keeping with the Christmas spirit will be held in all of the churches Sunday. One of the most attractive features will be the Christmas cantata at the Methodist Episcopal church in the evening under the able direction of Mrs. Krause. Besides the chorus of many voices, there will be a trio by Mrs. Krause and Messrs. Muller and Mason. Solo parts will be given by Mrs. Bliton, Mr. D. T. Lawton, Mr. Mason and others. A delightful evening is assured.

On Friday evening occurred the second dance of the season given by the ladies of St. Ann's society and it was fully up to the standard set by these ladies, who have gained an enviable reputation as charming hostesses. The dance was well attended. Splendid music, beautiful gowns, delicious refreshments and delightful company combined to make the occasion a most delightful one, and one long to be remembered. As a result the ladies realized a goodly sum with which to carry on the work of their society. The grand march was led by Mrs. Edgar Hafer and Mr. Dudley. The patronesses were Mrs. Paul Theiss, Mrs. P. H. Hopkins,

Mrs. John D. Otwell, Mrs. Nicholas Cooke, Mrs. C. Hunt Lewis, Mrs. J. D. Heard, Mrs. George P. Mims, Mrs. J. Stillman Vilas, Mrs. John S. Orth, Mrs. Josephine Russell, Mrs. W. Hyde Stalker, Mrs. A. A. Davis, Mrs. J. F. Reddy, Mrs. W. I. Vawter, Mrs. Edgar Hafer.

The Married People's Dancing club, which has been christened the San Souci club, held its third meeting on Thursday evening. An informal dance was enjoyed by nearly all of the members, a few not being able to attend. The music has been much improved, the inspiration to the dancers being supplied by Messrs. Colvig, Warner. The next meeting of the club will be on New Year's eve.

The Stoddard Reading club was entertained Wednesday afternoon at the hospitable home of Mrs. F. K. Deuel. Instead of subjects being read and discussed as is usual at their meetings, the club listened to a rendition of Dickens' "Christmas Carol," which was charmingly rendered by Mrs. Gale. Since the organization of the club last spring the subjects, "India," "Spain," "Greece," "Switzerland," "Constantinople," "Venice," "The Passion Play" and others with many supplementary articles have been studied with much pleasure and profit by all of the members.

With the return of many of the young people from college the youngest set has many events planned for the next two weeks. The holiday season is crowded with dinners, lunches and parties and there is much pleasure in sight for all.

The fireman's ball to be given on New Year's eve promises much, as the boys are known to be the best of entertainers. They have been hard at work for some time in completing the arrangements for the ball. The money realized will be used in purchasing equipment for the fire station.

The ladies of the Episcopal church are planning a number of social events for the entertainment of Bishop Scadding, who is expected in Medford the Sunday after Christmas day.

Dr. J. F. Reddy is ill at the Oregon hotel. Mrs. Reddy is nursing him, having been called from Spokane. He intended returning to Medford Saturday, but was unable to travel.

Mrs. Mammie Delin, who has spent the past six months visiting relatives in Medford, will return to her home in Seattle after Christmas. Miss Gleason will accompany her.

A. C. Randall of the Talent orchard is spending the holidays with his family in Minneapolis, having gone there from the apple show at Spokane.

Colonel and Mrs. Frank Ray have returned from the east to spend a season at Gold Ray. Mr. and Mrs. Gage, Mrs. Ray's parents, and her daughter, Miss Ethel Boyd, accompanied them.
