NEW SOUTH WALES MAY REGULATE PHIZE FIGHTS

SYDNEY, N. S. W., Jan. 2, -William H. Wood, which servings of New South II. Wood, each services today end that wales, in an interview today end that the prize fight situation at Sydney was being given serious consideration by the government authorities, as the Buras-Johnson contest last Saturday savored of being more brutal and repulsive than selectifie. He decurred that unless infighting was eliminated, boxing here would have to be regarded as an illegi-imate sport. Dr. Woods said that an attempt would be made to amount the less of a happy hunting ground for se enring big states, as in the last con-test, as it was not desired that Sydneshould correspond with the Pacific slope regarding pogulistic analyttakings. Howregarding pugilistic mulertakings. However, as a result of the low character of pugilism inducated by the fight on Samulay the value good prevent any further contest here between Borns and
