

Social and Personal

B. F. Riddle is visiting relatives in the city from Tacoma, Wash. Miss Helen Yockey spent Sunday in Roseburg with her brother. She returned on No. 15 Monday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Bradburn of Klamath Falls are in Medford planning to spend the remainder of the winter here. Flaming Tokay grape vines for sale in any quantity. L. E. Hoover.

Benbow, Ellis, who was arrested on a charge of impersonating a police officer, was bound over to the Circuit court on Saturday by Justice Canon. Miss Bees Kentner returned to the University of California Sunday, where she will continue her studies. Miss Alice Streets accompanied her.

See J. B. Brown about Riverside addition lots. Colonel J. F. Mundy has returned after a visit of several days in Portland. J. D. Finlay has returned from several weeks' visit in Silverton and Portland.

See J. C. Brown about those great big lots, 100x190. Every lot a garden. W. T. Henry, George McCutcheon and J. T. Young suffered a bad fall from a scaffold Saturday on a house they were working for Mr. Beverage, in West Medford. While the men were brained, nothing of a serious nature resulted.

Lehmester, the abandoned photographer, specialist on children, guarantees satisfaction on all work. Corner of Seventh and C streets, over Allen & Reagan's. The Bee Hive, 15 street is the place to get a good 15 cent meal and excellent service.

The ammonia compressor of the ice plant blew up on Saturday, owing to a valve sticking and causing the pressure to become so great as to break a two-inch casting. The loss will be nearly $2000. Harry Brown came very near being injured, his casting missing him only a few inches when it blew up. Needlecraft Shop, formerly 382 Washington street, now 147 Sixth st., between Morrison and Alder sts., Portland. January Needlework Sales now on.

A marriage license was recently granted to Dick Swenker and Miss Lillian Cooper, two popular young people of the Foots creek district. H. W. Dilsman of Gold Hill left for Southern California recently upon a business trip. Get your pipes repaired by Frater Bros., plumbers. Leave orders at Goode's Produce Store, Seventh and A streets.

H. A. Thierolf and Wes Green, of the Big Pines Lumber company, were in Gold Hill arranging for the opening of a retail lumber yard, recently. They rented the old Carter & Duffield warehouse in this city and will soon have a most complete line of building materials in stock. The heavy rains of the fore part of this week have started a lot of plaster mines to piping, says the Gold Hill News. Five mines are running full blast on Sardinia creek, and many others are going that have not been reported. It is to be hoped that sufficient rain will fall to allow the plaster miners a good season's run.

Lecture. On next Friday evening there will be things said and done in a way that may highly interest the thoughtful men and women who may gather at the Commercial club hall. Mr. Crow occupies a unique place in the lecture field, as he proposes a remedy for the defects in our civilization. He points out and proceeds to apply it without delay. All invited; 7:30 p. m.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE FOUNDERS AUTOBIOGRAPHY RECEIVED. Copies have been received in Medford of "The Life of Mary Baker Eddy, by Sibel Wilbur," published by the Concord Publishing Co. of New York. The biography, which was first printed in "Human Life," was originally written, with Mrs. Eddy's sanction, to controvert the purported autobiography published by McClure's magazine, which ridiculed Christian Science and its founder. The author is sympathetic with her subject, contradicts many of the alleged improprieties in the McClure narrative, and gives a sympathetic story of an whom all concede the most remarkable woman of the times. Despite slanders and ridicule, Christian Science has had a most wonderful growth, and the story of its founder will prove most interesting to her thousands of followers.

AMUSEMENTS

New Attractions at Bijou. New and strong features at the Bijou tonight. A good comedy vaudeville team is billed for the next three nights. The act is a musical one and full of the best of comedy. A late feature film is also included in tonight's performance, besides a late illustrated song hit. An extremely good contortionist act is billed for the last of the week. The act has been a feature in all the big vaudeville houses.

Coming Musical Event. Mrs. Irene Hampton Isaacs, pianist, and Miss Grace Josephine Brown, contralto, will give a musicale at the Medford Opera house, Tuesday evening, January 19, at 8:15 o'clock. This is the first opportunity Medford has had of hearing these young artists, since their recent study in San Francisco with the famous teacher, Herr Herman Genes. Her Genes, who is a pupil of Liszt, is a marvelous musician and in his compositions has been likened to Beethoven. The music-lovers will have an opportunity to enjoy of this, as selections from his works, both vocal and instrumental, will be rendered. The program will be announced later.

The sale of seats for Florence Roberts' coming engagement opened this morning, and the demand was enormous, there being a larger first-day sale than for "The Alaskan." As the company makes a long jump out of here on a special train, it will be necessary to start early so the curtain will rise promptly at 8 o'clock Wednesday night.

Florence Roberts. Miss Florence Roberts, still under the vigilant management of John Cort, comes to the Medford theater on Wednesday, January 13, in her new play, "The House of Bondage." The appearance of Miss Roberts, always an event, is made more conspicuous on this occasion, owing to the keen interest attached to her latest production, and the excellent and well-balanced supporting company. Arthur Forrest, Thurlow Bergen, Kent Bosworth, Harry Gibbs, Ann Warrington and Mary Bertrand, all sterling players, is each entrusted with a conspicuously important role.

The great popularity of Florence Roberts has been won by a series of hyperambitions that have won her a conceded pre-eminence among American actresses. From light comedy to tragedy she has attempted, and always with success, a range of parts that would appal a player of less versatility—such means any other contemporary artist this city readily brought to mind. Miss Roberts undoubtedly excels, however, in emotional roles, and in "The House of Bondage" she has a part in which she runs the gamut of emotions. In fact, her admirers who have seen her in this play declare that her impersonation is the triumph of her career.

MANY WANT PARTISANS AS TO STRAIGHT WAY. CLEVELAND, Jan. 11.—That the attempt of 11,000 young persons of Cleveland, clerks, stenographers, business men and others who are daily exposed to temptation to deviate from the path called straight and narrow, to live as they would, is to be tried in other cities as the announcement today. W. D. Price, law student and originator of the movement, is swamped with inquiries as to the steps necessary in organizing the movement. These come from ministers, business men and others. In the main living in the smaller cities of the central west. Mr. Price has received requests to visit several Ohio cities, to start similar movements to those in Cleveland.

WANTS EXAMINER TO LOOK OVER THE BOOKS. PITTSBURGH, Jan. 11.—In connection with the trouble between the New York state insurance authorities and the officials of the Pittsburgh Life and Trust company, as a result of the recent absorption of the Washington Life Insurance company of New York, W. C. Bulwin, president of the Pittsburgh Life and Trust company today sent a telegram to Governor Hughes of New York, requesting the appointment of a special examiner to come to Pittsburgh and learn the facts in connection with the transaction and as to the company's financial condition.

PROHIBITION (Continued from page 1.) (Being I could help it away with the Blue traffic. In theory, it looks all right, but in practice it is a complete failure every place where it has been tried. In spite of all the statements which have been made tending to show its opposite, I will submit this in case you want no business to come to your city by means of what you are willing to pay double in taxes, where you want to stop all public improvements, go in for it and your voters will be satisfied. In Other Cities. It has already been shown how the condition of affairs are at Ashland, Grants Pass, Roseburg, St. Johns and Eugene, and not a single fact or figure has been omitted. The only reply made by the organ or the speakers has been, "The Tribune lies."

Now, in conclusion, I say, let us be wise. Let us be Americans and turn out tomorrow and by our votes show that we demand that this quarrelsome issue and that we be left to use our best efforts for the upbuilding of Medford and not spend valuable time in venting petty spite, bickering and fighting. PENDLETON AND LA GRANDE HURT. Commercial Traveler Says In Both Cities Business Is Dead by Voting Dry. Silence! Not one word regarding the proposed amendment to the city charter, has candidate Perry for publication. And not one word regarding his stand as a prohibitionist or in favor of high license. His ultimatum delivered Monday morning was simply, "There is nothing further that I desire to say for publication."

SILENCE! A number of the electors in the city are wondering if Mr. Perry is in favor of amending the city charter so that the farmers of Jackson county can have a say in the regulation of its affairs. With this in view, Mr. Perry was asked for a statement as to his views in the matter, only to have him refuse to make a statement. Silence! Mr. Perry was also eludant when it came to the matter of determining whether he was in favor of prohibition or of high license. All attempts to obtain a statement ended in a refusal to make a statement. Silence! And so the voter must on tomorrow cast his ballot not knowing whether he is with the city or the county. Silence!

GOLD HILL IRON ORE PROVES TO BE GOOD. Though no positive announcement has been made to that effect, it is generally understood that the testing of the iron ore by Dr. Schumann has proven satisfactory, says the News, and that the steel plant for Gold Hill is now an assured thing. Silas Fleming, who has charge of the company's affairs in this city, has received instructions to put men at work opening up the main tunnel of the mine, preparatory to putting a force of men at work. This work will require some time, as it will have to be "mucked" out and timbered and matted safe for the workmen to enter it. Dr. Schumann is now in New York but is expected to return to the coast soon, where more definite information will be secured.

WONDERING WHO ARE TO PAY THEIR SALARIES. YREKA, Cal., Jan. 11.—Pending the rehearing in the supreme court of the salary case, County Auditor Dowling, under advice of District Attorney Luttrell, has stopped drawing warrants for the salaries of constables and justices of the peace. A few of the township officers had drawn their December salaries before the supreme court had granted a rehearing. There have been a good many crooks and turns in the case and all the officers are anxiously awaiting the time when it will be settled and stay settled.

KISSED PRETTY GIRL AND IS SUSPENDED. STOCKTON, Jan. 11.—When one of his fellow students held a piece of mischievousness over the head of the prettiest girl in the Stockton high school and dared Fred Brown to kiss her, what was he to do? He did it. Then he was suspended by Principal P. B. Wooten. Now the matter has grown serious. The father of the boy has taken the matter up with the board of education and declares that if the suspension is carried out his son will be unable to keep up in his work and will not be able to graduate. The father claims any boy would have done the same as Brown. He says the girl was perfectly willing to be kissed and reported the matter to the principal only when tormented by her girl associates.

PRINCESS GOES BROKE OWES MUCH TO THE TRADE. NEW YORK, Jan. 11.—The Princess de Montigny is a bankrupt. The fact that she has filed a voluntary petition became known today. Her liabilities will reach $10,000. Her assets are nothing. Most of her creditors are servants and tradespeople. There is one judgment of $500 against her. The Princess was formerly a prominent figure in Parisian society. She was the owner of diamonds said to be the largest ever imported to America. Those were seized by the customs house and later returned after suspicions concerning their entry had been lulled. The diamonds are said to have been worn by Marie Antoinette. At Appan, N. Y., the Princess ran an extensive dog kennel business. The Princess, who was divorced from her first husband, is now the wife of John trainers. L. B. Brown has left for his mines on Pleasant creek.

VIENNA, Jan. 11.—The crown prince of Serbia is becoming a royal jest at the courts of Europe. The prince recently obtained widespread notoriety posing as a Serbian patriot. His father's subjects declined to accept him as a patriot unless his press agent showed them proof. He visited the court of the czar, and now the news comes from St. Petersburg to the effect that the prince has made himself persons non grata by a bad check. He reached St. Petersburg a trifle short and negotiated with the czar's chamberlain a loan of $5,000, for which he gave a note. When it fell due and he couldn't collect the bank applied to the prince vainly and then approached king Peter. Both repudiated the debt.

STOLE MONEY ORDER AFTER IT WAS MAILED. DORRIS, Jan. 11.—Constable Hughes arrested an Italian, whose name cannot be learned, for attempting to rob a Spaniard of $50 Wednesday. The Spaniard, whose name is Antonio Salomon, wanted to send $50 to his nephew in San Francisco, and asked the Italian to interpret for him at the postoffice and assist him in obtaining a money order. This the Italian did, and the order was secured and mailed. After the two men left the postoffice the Italian came back and demanded the letter from the postmistress. The letter was given him, but later the post office people became suspicious, and the Spaniard was hunted up and questioned concerning the matter. He claimed he had not made a request for a return of the letter, and supposed the money was well on its way to his nephew in San Francisco. Constable Hughes found the Italian in one of the railroad camps, where both men had been working. The letter containing the money order was found tucked away in his inside pocket. It is likely that he will be held on a federal charge. LA GRANDE TO BUILD PIPE LINE FOR $146,000. LA GRANDE, Jan. 9.—At the council meeting last night the proposition of the American Light and Power company of Kansas City to build the Beaver creek water system complete for $146,000 was accepted and council is now awaiting the action of the Chicago firm whose bids for the bonds was previously accepted. Since the election and adoption of the new charter, the Chicago people have not been heard from. They have been given until January 20 to take up the bonds. The American Light and Power Co.'s bid is $11,000 lower than their previous bid and $14,000 lower than the amount of the bonds.
