50 ACRES NEAR GRANTS PASS SOLD FOR $16,000

GRANTS PASS, Or., Feb. 8.—The sales of real estate in Rogue River valley have already begun to move with the new year's business. Just at this time many eastern buyers are in the field having in view the purchase of some of the wonderful orchard land which has made southern Oregon famous for its fruits.

HEIRESS WEDS CAPTAIN IN THE SALVATION ARMY

BURLINGTON, N. J., Feb. 8.—Marion Woolman, daughter of George Woolman, who died leaving her a fortune estimated at $200,000, is now the bride of Samuel A. Hewitt, a captain in the Salvation Army. The wedding was celebrated here yesterday at the home of the bride's mother, who finally consented to the match although stoutly opposed to it at first.

RUSSIAN EXILE MARRIES; WILL NOT BE RETURNED

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 8.—Fleeing from Russian cruelty, which had made a cripple of her father, Miss Fannie Berkowitz came to Los An gales from Warsaw, Poland, to find happiness and a husband. Sunday afternoon 300 friends will gather in Walker's theater to witness her marriage to Harry Fisher of 915 East First street.

The bride-to-be was only 16 years old when, three years ago, the Cosacks descended on her home in Warsaw. When they left her father was a hopeless cripple. Hearing of the misfortune, Fisher, father of the prospective husband and who owns $7500 worth of Los Angeles property, wrote and offered the girl a home with his wife and himself. The offer was promptly accepted.

The 17-year-old son soon fell in love with the pretty refugee, and his affection was reciprocated. The family refused to sanction the union until the young couple were older. The boy and girl remained constant, and now that the son has almost reached his majority, Mr. and Mrs. Fisher have consented to the marriage.

IOWA IN THROES OF ANTI-BOOZE CAMPAIGN

DES MOINES, Ia., Feb. 8.—Representative C. A. Meredith introduced in the house today a joint resolution demanding that the legislature take steps toward amending the state constitution so as to prohibit the manufacture and sale in Iowa of intoxicating liquor as a beverage. This is regarded as the beginning of the campaign for the adoption of a prohibitory amendment.

SALEM, Or., Feb. 8.—For once in the history of street car accidents in Salem the fender is accredited with saving the life of a man. Martin Blood, aged 73, was struck and dragged. He was little hurt, the motorman having dropped the fender just in time.

WINDY CITY WILL BE "WET" FOR ANOTHER YEAR

CHICAGO, Feb. 8.—Chicago will be a wet town for another year at least. The movement by the "drys" to have the people vote at the April election on the question of excluding saloons from the city under the local option law has fallen down. They started out to obtain the necessary 100,000 petitioners to place the question on the ballot, but got less than 50,000. The feature of the movement has been reported to the police committee, which has decided to make another effort next year. It has authorized the organization of a committee of 100, each member of which shall pledge to subscribe $20 and obtain 1000 signatures to the petition.

HAS A NEW IDEA IN MOTORCYCLES

CHEVASE, Wash., Feb. 8.—H. P. Farnsworth of Chehalis, a practical machinist, is working on an improved motorcycle, which he claims is a radical departure from the regular type. The machine he is constructing is really a combination of a motorcycle and automobile. Instead of the two wheels being connected with tubing, there is a platform 18 inches wide by 7 feet long hung at each end on springs. A little back of the center is placed the cushioned seat, and a steering wheel similar to one on an automobile rises in front of the seat. The bonnet, usually found over the engine of an automobile, in this machine is placed over the front wheel, and is used to hold parcels. Two foot levers on the floor of the platform operate the brakes. One operates a brake on the rear wheel and the other is contrived to connect, by means of a sliding wheel, with the face of the fly-wheel, and by friction five or six speeds may be secured.

Rising at the side of the center of the platform is an arrangement which operates two small wheels, which may be lowered to the ground or raised out of the way. These little wheels are for use when stopping or starting the machine, and when running at low speed. The machine is built to give at least four-horse power.

Liverpool has a library of 28,000 volumes. The number of books taken home during the last year was 13,622,000, while 1,410,774 were used for reference in the library. In other words, each book was on the average used ten times.

An artillery lieutenant in Krasnoyarsk, Siberia, has been sentenced to twenty-one days' imprisonment for compelling a recruit to undergo the most cruel drill in the service camp. This consisted in making him shave ten times.

Women of China are said to be keenly anxious to have a voice in public affairs, and a movement is afoot among the daughters of the orient to establish themselves on a level with their menfolk as far as social and political affairs are concerned.

There are at present on duty in the main thoroughfares of Paris twenty-one policemen who speak English, nine who speak German and six who speak Spanish, and their usefulness has been so clearly demonstrated that the prefect of police has decided to add to their number as opportunity may arise.

The distance around the world via the Transiberian and our own transcontinental railway lines is shown to be 17,907 miles. The sailing distance around the world from New York via Suez, Singapore, Manila, Cebu, the Hawaiian Islands and Panama canal to New York again would be 23,092 miles.

The first tunnel under a river ever constructed in France has just been completed in Paris. It runs under the Seine from the Place de la Concorde to the chamber of deposits and is part of the new Metro-Normandie line, which will be opened probably by spring. It is 2100 feet long from Montmartre to the Porte de Vincennes.

A Musical Crowd.

If you have company make them for the time laugh themselves to be a band of musicians, though without the instruments. The leader of the band is supposed to furnish each of the performers with a different musical instrument. Consequently a violin, a harp, a flute, an accordion, a piano, a jews-harp and anything else that would add to the noise are all to be performed at the same time. Provided with an instrument of some description himself, the leader begins playing a tune on his imaginary violin, or whatever else it may be. The others all do the same, the slight present being as may well be imagined, exceedingly ludicrous and the noise almost deafening.

In the midst of it the leader quite unexpectedly stops playing and makes an entire change in his attitude and tone of voice, substituting for his own instrument one belonging to some one else. As soon as he does this the performer who has been thus unconsciously deprived of his instrument takes that of his leader and performs on it instead. Thus the game is continued, every one being expected to carefully watch the leader's actions and to be prepared at any time for making a sudden change.

The one who fails to make the change promptly pays a forfeit.

The Huntsman.

One player is the huntsman. While all the others sit in a circle he gives each one a name, calling one his coat, others his hat, shot, gun, flask, dog etc. The huntsman then walks round outside the circle and calls for instance, for his gun. The player who represents the gun at once gets up, takes hold of the huntsman's belt and walks round after him. The huntsman calls for other accessories till all the players are going round, each having hold of the player in front of him. When all are running fast by order of the huntsman he suddenly shouts "Hunt!" when all, including the huntsman, must let go and rush for seats. One player will necessarily be left out and must pay a forfeit for his failure or he may be counted out of the game and a chair removed, or if so arranged beforehand the one left out may become huntsman and the game go on as before.
