TEDDY GETS SORE

WASHINGTON, Feb. 16.-It is reported here that rifferences have risen between President Roosevelt and President-elect Taft over the selection of the incoming cabinet. It is said that Taft is framing his cabinet without seeking the advice of Roosevelt, who, it is said, is particularly piqued over the refusal of Taft to offer a sent to Secretary

It is said that it would be very galling to the president to have Taft frame his complete enbinet without consulting him.

The action of the senate last night in voting to submit to the people $100,000 appropriation for the norm school at Portland will result in reducing the normal maintenance appropriations and will probably result in a dead icek with the house, which will hold up all legislation. At any rate, the sit-nation is not clarified.

The Crafer road bill is still in the hands of the senate ways and means committee. A report is expected this afternoon. Merriman is confident of a majority report favoring the bill. If this cannot be secured it will bring in a minority report and the question will be fought on the floor of the senate. The Crater road boosters here consis

Medford may now boast of as fine tailoring establishment as can be found on the coast. W. W. Eifert, who long ago won for himself the slogan, 'The progressive tailor." has been living up to his reputation by fitting up as fine a shop as can be found any

Confident of the continued growth of the city, and forced by a rapidly grow ing business, Mr. Eifert recently removed from his old location on South Central avenue to his present situa tion on Front street, in the Young & Hall building, just one door north of Seventh. A visit to Mr. Eifert's shop for the first time is rather a shock to the unprepared. In a large room 22 feet wide and over 75 feet long, he has fitted up a shop containing all of the new "wrinkles" in his line. The fixtures of oak all match—chairs, display tables, cutting tables, clothes cab-inels, screens, deska and all. Attrac-tively arranged, they form a most pleas-

The first 40 feet of the room is de voted to the display of his stock, the rear portion of the room being shut off from the front by large screens, be-hind which the work of making the lother goes on. In this working room are found the machines, electric and all of the tools with which the tal-

Mr. Eifert realizes the advantages of using a window display, for in the large ones in the front of his establishment are attractively shown the latest pat terns in the season's goods.

Business Rapidly Increasing. Since removing to his new place Mr. Effert's business has greatly increased and it will continue to increase, for his ability to build clothes to meet the views of his customers is well known and the goods displayed are nobby and up to date. Had Medford more mer-chants and citizens like Mr. Eifert the ity would soon be far more advances

And all the world seems better, And every gift is mine, And where the skies seemed dark to A million suns now shine!

For my life is what I make it,
I build it for weal or wee;
And the dwarfing fears of bygone years
I've crushed them long ago!
And the things that fret and trouble,
I've put them under my feet;
And I shall grow, every day, I know,

Till myself shall be complete! The tasks no more dismay

No longer do fears enthrall; For the God within gives me strength to win-I am master over all!

The path is clear and open,
It is easy to work and wait,
