APPLES TRUE FRIEND Prancisco, there are great archards from which are shipped annually 1000 car of apples to England, Germany and other European countries. It is famous far belleflowers and pippins. The growers just attend to the growing. The dealers go there and do the baying while the crop is unripe on the trees and plack down the cash in the com-mercial center of the district.

"Pippin" Now Means "Perfect."

In rapidly raining over this subject we find there are many caridies of good apples, and of the goet ones the ippings seem in all ages and at pre-cut to be preferred.

It gives an idea, tan, of the development of language, from the crude slang of the barn and the field to the ariseracy of the dictionary. When we hear the term popula applied to a person
