

Social and Personal

Edgar Tafer is in Portland on business.

G. W. Pierce of Tacoma is visiting in Medford.

A. Hearn, the Phoenix merchant, was recently in Medford.

Cabinet Minot, accompanied by H. R. Dudley, left Thursday evening for a trip to Portland.

Dr. J. P. Huddy has left for the east on business.

E. Poole of Butte Falls was a Medford visitor Thursday.

Mrs. C. W. Cook of Oregon City visited friends in Jacksonville recently.

Mrs. F. Aman of Oakland, Calif., is visiting her mother, Mrs. White, in this city.

J. Richardson has returned from a visit in southern California.

George Crank of Grants Pass was a recent visitor in Medford.

Orders for school cars or battenills promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

Mrs. Allen and daughter, Miss Clara, of Phoenix were in Medford recently.

County Judge J. H. Neil was a recent visitor from Jacksonville.

A. C. Burgess has arrived from North Dakota for a visit with relatives.

A. E. Purdy of Edie was a recent Medford visitor.

Phone your orders for street cars or battenills to the economy.

George McCain, the prosperous rancher, was in Medford on business recently.

At the annual meeting Thursday A. J. Brophy was appointed night watchman by Mayor Cannon. The appointment was confirmed.

A. P. Edwards is planning to open a moving picture show in Gold Hill. He was formerly manager of the Grand.

Mrs. C. A. Holmes of Seattle is visiting with her sister, Mrs. O. V. May, in this city.

Roberts & Roberts, experts in repairing and rebuilding sewing machines, will remain a few days longer, affording an opportunity for good and accurate service. Phone 506, Room 10, De Stephanos' car, W. Ninth and Main.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

RESOLUTION.

Be it Resolved, By the City Council of the city of Medford:

That it is necessary to construct a plank sidewalk or road of grading each of the primitive hovels described as follows in Article II, Sec. 1.

Along the east side of Lots 1, 2, 3, 4, of Block 17, in Beatty addition to the city of Medford.

Along the east side of Blocks 18, 19, 20 and 21, in Beatty addition to the city of Medford.

Along the east side of Blocks 1 and 2, in Kendall addition to the city of Medford.

And the members of the council, resolved to supply the money required to construct such sidewalks or roads of grading for the primitive hovels described as follows in Article II, Sec. 1.

The foregoing resolution was passed by the City Council this 18th day of February, A. D. 1909, for the sum of $1000.00. Witness, William G. Morrison, Secretary of the City Council.

Approved, February 18th, 1909,
W. H. Clegg, Mayor.

Attest: JOHN M. CALHOUN,
Treasurer.

285

AMUSEMENTS.

Medford Theater.

The audience will for Williams' Jubilee Singers, who come to the Medford theater Tuesday, February 25, will open at Haskins' drug store tomorrow, Saturday, morning at 10 o'clock, and judging by the response for reservations coming in steadily, there will be a tremendous house.

This is the same company that made and a hit here last season, and made up of exactly the same people. The management of the Medford Theater absolutely guarantees this company, and if you are not more than satisfied, your money will be refunded at the box office. Best seats 75¢.

Pra Diavolo.

Rehearsals are progressing smoothly for Manager Heddle's production of "Aida's Famous Comedy".

Orders for tickets are now promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

Mrs. Allen and daughter, Miss Clara, of Phoenix were in Medford recently.

County Judge J. H. Neil was a recent visitor from Jacksonville.

A. C. Burgess has arrived from North Dakota for a visit with relatives.

A. E. Purdy of Edie was a recent Medford visitor.

Phone your orders for street cars or battenills to the economy.

George McCain, the prosperous rancher, was in Medford on business recently.

At the annual meeting Thursday A. J. Brophy was appointed night watchman by Mayor Cannon. The appointment was confirmed.

A. P. Edwards is planning to open a moving picture show in Gold Hill. He was formerly manager of the Grand.

Mrs. C. A. Holmes of Seattle is visiting with her sister, Mrs. O. V. May, in this city.

Roberts & Roberts, experts in repairing and rebuilding sewing machines, will remain a few days longer, affording an opportunity for good and accurate service. Phone 506, Room 10, De Stephanos' car, W. Ninth and Main.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H. Reed, Blanch, Clara and son, Collins, Maud Fields, N. M. Neches, Ernest, May, Rose, Mary, John and Kathryn Nestor, Helen, Herman, Isabella, Tommy, Dennis Fletcher and Barbara, Pritchett.

TABLE ROCK TATTILING.

The valentine party and dinner supper at the home of A. W. Bush Saturday evening was largely attended and pronounced a very pleasant affair by those present.

Earl May, who is employed at the Washington orchard, returned from the agricultural college at Corvallis, where he has been studying for some time.

Miss Rose Nestor began the spring term of school in the Chappaqua district Monday.

Harry Clegg and family are soon leaving the house on the Cemetery Lane where Mr. Clegg is employed.

At our Sunday school meeting next Sunday morning Washington's tenth day will be commemorated by appropriate exercises. Rev. A. C. Howlett will be present to fill his regular appointment.

Miss Mary Held has left for Portland to visit with friends and may remain until joined by her family, who are contemplating moving to that section soon.

Our school is progressing favorably under Miss Louise Ward.

A large crowd assembled at the schoolhouse Friday evening to celebrate the birthday of the greatest and best American, the immortal Lincoln. The room had been handsomely decorated by Miss E. S. Hedges and her assistants.

A suitable program was prepared by Miss Rose Nestor and the excellent manner in which it was carried out was much appreciated by the audience. The exercises consisted of patriotic songs, music, recitations, readings, flag drills, tableau, dialogues, etc. Those who took part in the exercises were: Lulu Guy, Willie and E. H. Davis, V. A. Green and daughter, Jessie Eddie, Katie and Blanche Chamberlain, Edel and Ethel Garretson, Maxy, Evan, Albert, Kenneth, Victoria and A. H