AMUSEMENTS

Another Strong Bill at the Savoy.

Last night's performance at the Savoy was witnessed by a large and well pleased audience. The entertainment was a well balanced one and could not help but please the most critical person. The comedy picture, "A Football Friend," is a fancygraph of the first actor and kept the audience in a roar of laughter. The Italian legend, "Pablo's Bride," tells the story of an Italian maiden's love and hatred, and is well acted throughout.

"A Dual Life" is a story picture of dramatic intensity, portraying the double life of a man and showing how he at last saw the error of his ways and became repentant. "A little child shall lead them."

"The Two Sons" tell the story of the "Saint and the Prodigal" teaching a strong moral lesson.

Miss Elbert rendered a pictorial lyric in her usual pleasing manner. The same performance will be given to-night. Admission 10c. Remember only two more days left. Get busy. You may win.

Williams' Jubilee Singers.

In presenting this company to the public the management has made special effort to have a high moral as well as musical standard. Therefore, our members have been selected from the best Christian homes and have been trained by some of America's best schools. First university of Mississippi, Knoxville college and Park university of Tennessee and Oberlin college of Ohio are represented in our company.

Our quartet is a special feature and is always a favorite. Our prima donna was trained by one of the best instructors of Chicago; she has a lyric voice possessing the fine quality which is classed by the European masters as being the rarest and most beautiful. Our bass has produced few singers as great as she.

Our contralto has been a student at the Oberlin conservatory of music, and also traveled with the famous Fisk Jubilee Singers. She possesses a rich and commanding voice of great depth and power, which has won for her many admirers.

Our pianist is a trained accompanist of great natural ability. She also has a rich mezzo soprano voice.

For several seasons we have made return dates, and every season our audiences are larger and the circle of our personal friends is wider, because we always give our patrons a new program. Another cause of our great popularity is the fact that we keep the same personnel. This season you see the same familiar faces and our additional faces. This makes our company much stronger, as we now have both a "folks" quartet and a male quartet, who will compete for honors before our vast audiences all over North America.

Our selection of songs varies from the opera to the negro ballad and caber songs.

At Medford Theatre Tuesday, February 23. Seats now on sale at Haslins.

SOCIETY NOTES

A very pleasant stag party was given in honor of Hallett Frank Platt on Friday evening, February 19, at the home of Earl C. Gaddis, on North Riverside avenue, in which a few friends of the groom-elect participated.

The early part of the evening was spent playing whist, and at 11:30 the most, assisted by Herman H. Howard, prepared a touchdown, which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. The cigars were then passed, and while the clouds of smoke rolled forth, one and all spoke words of encouragement to their bachelor friend, who is soon to embark on the seas of matrimonial bliss. Those present were: Hallett Frank Platt, William S. Rowell, Albert S. Rosenbaum, Harry N. Butler, Jesse Butler, S. Thomas Howard, Francis D. Howard, Walter T. Koutner, Samuel T. Beckwith, Volney Davis, Frederick Stuedler, Marford Metrosky and Earl C. Gaddis.

The dance given by the ladies of St. Ann's society on last Thursday evening was quite the latest event of its kind so far this season. The music was of the best, and not enough dancers were on hand to crowd the floor, thus detracting from the pleasure of the evening.

A feature of the evening were the splendid dresses worn. Mrs. J. G. Biglum wore a pink striped chiffon with Valenciennes lace over white satin. Mrs. Hopkins wore a white lace over white satin. Mrs. Freeman wore a beautiful princess gown. Mrs. A. E. Remmes was gowned in blue messaline silk with Irish point crochet lace. Mrs. Mundy wore a black lace gown over green taffeta, while Mrs. Stokes appeared in a natural colored rajah with Persian embroidery. Mrs. Hafer wore a blue evening princess gown with silk lace. Mrs. Johnson was elegantly dressed in pink voile over taffeta. Mrs. Orth wore a gray silk and over taffeta, while Mrs. Miller appeared in grey voile with pippings of blue. Mrs. Heard wore an empire gown of white satin.

The masquerade ball planned for next Monday evening is creating considerable favorable comment. A number of striking costumes will be on hand.

SEATTLE, Wash., Feb. 20.—In the last six months there have now come into this country of this port 652 Japanese men, women and children on all the steamships plying to Seattle from the orient. CHAMBERMAIDS FIGHT OVER UGLY VALENTINE

WILLOWS, Feb. 20.—Tuesday afternoon there were some exciting times at a hotel when Mrs. Rita Henderson, Miss Rosa Hubert and Miss Blanche Lambert, employees, engaged in a mixup, which resulted in Miss Hubert consulting the justice of the peace with the intention of having the other two women arrested for battery. The justice referred the complaint to the district attorney.

On St. Valentine's day one of the women received a valentine which she did not like and she accused one of her associates of sending it to her. The assertion was denied by the accused and a general quarrel ensued. Had it not been for interference by a man who happened to be on the scene the fight might have resulted seriously. One of the chambermaids was discharged. No arrest has been made.

DYNAMITE ICE AT NIAGARA FALLS TO GET WATER

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Feb. 20.—The ice jam in the Niagara river has become so serious that power companies have resorted to blasting in the hope of increasing the flow of water. Thousands of visitors are coming to the city to view the ice spectacle.

ADOPTS SUICIDE PLAN OF NATIVE ISLAND

SAN BERNARDINO, Cal., Feb. 20.—Manuel Moreno, a Porto Rican, is in jail awaiting trial for the alleged theft of diamonds. He is attempting to show suicide by rubbing sugar into his eyes.

The prisoner was examined by Health Officer Strong yesterday, who discovered the sugar stuffed in between the eyelids and eyeballs.

When Moreno confessed that he had resorted to sugar as a means of ending his life he explained that in his native island and the custom prevails among those who desire to shorten their existence, and that it invariably proves successful.

ATTORNEY IS JAILED ON FORGERY CHARGE

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Feb. 20.—Elmer E. Rowell, attorney and mining promoter, was taken to the county jail last night after being arrested on a civil warrant in which his bail was fixed at $10,000. Rowell was also charged with obtaining $10,370 under false pretenses and with having forged a check for $2350. The forgery, it is set forth, was committed April 20, 1908, when Rowell executed a check on the Bank of Commerce of Pasadena.

The Huntsman

One player is the huntsman while all the others sit in a circle he gives each one a name, calling one his coat, others his hat, shot, gun, flask, dog, etc.

The huntsman then walks round outside the circle and calls, for instance, for his gun. The player who represents the gun at once gets up, takes hold of the huntsman's belt and walks round after him. The huntsman calls for other accoutrements till all the players are going round, each having hold of the player in front of him. When all are running fast by order of the huntsman he suddenly shouts "Bang" when all, including the huntsman, must let go and rush for seats. One player will necessarily be left out and must pay a forfeit for his failure or he may be counted out of the game and a chair removed, or if so arranged beforehand the one left out may become huntsman and the game go on as before.

QUEER BEDEVELLOWS ARE CAUSE OF DIVORCE SUIT

OAKLAND, Feb. 20.—Katie McCarley sued Samuel W. McCarley for divorce today, alleging habitual intemperance. She said that for four years her husband drank heavily and was frequently intoxicated from two to four weeks at a time.

She complained that she once found him in bed with 18 empty whiskey flasks, while a profusion of beer bottles lay scattered about the floor. She charged that he publicly abused her while riding in the streets of San Jose.

Mrs. McCarley secured an order restraining the man from withdrawing his bank funds or selling their house and lot pending the outcome of her suit.

SACRAMENTO CIL, Feb. 20

SACRAMENTO, Cal., Feb. 20.—Gov. Gillett today signed the Oia-Walker anti-race betting bill. The provisions will be effective in 60 days. Making wagers on horse racing is unlawful throughout the state.

In response to criticism that the bill was delayed the full legal limit before the signing of the bill in order to give the racing interests the longest possible time to operate, Governor Gillett declared that "many bills preceded the two-track measure. I determined not to take up any bills irregularly."

Many still believe the governor's delay was intentional.

Tonight's bill at the Bijou is one of the strongest in some time. The moving pictures are of special merit. The picture entitled "The Tenderfoot" is a most realistic picture on western life, shows the cowboy at their pranks. This time the tenderfoot is a budding hero, and he is speedily thrashed from the lawless track.

"School Days" is a big laugh producer showing two schoolmates who are making life miserable for the all school professors. "Sethuammas" is a most beautiful colored movie film. Two other strong subjects are included in tonight's bill. The performance is one well worth seeing. Admission, 10 cents.

Miss William Harty has returned to her home in Berra, Or., after visiting some weeks in this valley.
