AMUSEMENTS.

The Burgomaster Coming

W. F. Cullen has made a big revival of Pixley & Luder's famous musical comedy success, "The Burgomaster", and will present it at the Medford Theater, Wednesday evening March 10th, with a large cast, headed by Harry Hermsen and Ruth White. These two sterling players are in the roles of the genial old Peter Stuyvesant, burgomaster of New Amsterdam, and Willie, the gay youth who leads the governor around New York when he is reincarnated. The company will number fifty people. The production is especially a handsome one. The costumes have been revised and are all new. Especial attention has been paid by Mr. Cullen to the voices of the chorus, as well as to the beauty of the chorus, as portion of "The Burgomaster" was the first of the Pixley & Luder pieces to gain popularity, others being "The Prince of Pilsen", "King Dodo" and "The Grand Mogul". The music is of the singing and whistling variety, and it is said more copies of the "Tale of the Kangaroo" and "I Love You" have been sold than any other songs brought out in musical comedies. The seats are now on sale at Haskin's.

At the Savoy.

Tonight at this popular theater you will have your last opportunity to witness an entertainment that is interesting, instructive and amusing. One of the best pictures ever produced from an educational viewpoint is on the bill, "Vulture Hunting in Africa." It is a film that holds one's interest from start to finish, as it shows us many wild birds of prey in their native haunts; also the dangers encountered and overcome by the African natives in capturing the young birds. It should not be missed by any lover of nature.

"Dreams of Wealth" is a drama of the days of '49, and portrays with great vividness the dangers sufferings and infinite courage of those forerunners of civilization who built up this great western empire.

Two other laughable comedy pictures round out an entertainment that is well worth seeing. Entire change of program Wednesday night. Admission 10c.
