"Happier" Weekly under date of April 3 will devote a great deal of space to the Pacific Northwest, and in this number Oregon will not be overlooked in either text or picture. The Portland commercial club has a page in which the central feature is the famous scroll carrying the message "Oregon is the place for you."

George D. Maxfield, general passenger agent of the Wabash railroad, with headquarters at Buffalo, New York, is anxious for literature from all parts of Oregon. He says the inquiry for this information is insistent, and it is emphasized at this time by the rate of $42.50 in effect to Oregon points from six regions until April 30, the regular fare being $57.50.

Development league meetings will be held at Independence on Monday, at Dallas on Tuesday and Corvallis Wednesday, under the auspices of the local organizations of these cities.

Oregon has a champion in R. L. Smith, of Shawnee, Oklahoma, who has advised that a half a dozen families started for this state last week, with fifteen families to follow from the same vicinity on the 15th. Mr. Smith will locate here himself in the near future.

Why do you buy a hand me down suit when you can get them made in any style you want them at ready made prices? W. W. Eifert, the progressive tailor. 309.

A Plea for the Paving.

Here's hoping they'll pave Seventh street.

The finest street in town; The reason isn't hard to guess; On that street look JOE BROWN.

It should be made a boulevard, At which to point with pride; But the state it's in at present You can neither walk nor ride.

If they don't decide to pave it Their feelings will get hurt; For there will be a mighty howl From the MAN WHO SELLS THE DIFF. 307.

SALEM BEER

SALEM is the most popular beer in Northern California and Southern Oregon. It is acknowledged to be the equal of the very best eastern product. All beers are good, but some beers are liked better than others. The proof for this assertion lies in drinking Salem beer. If you wish to be convinced, ask for Salem beer and drink it.

ERUSA—THE ONLY LAWFUL PILE CURE

Because ERUSA CURES PILES, and DOES NOT contain narcotics, mercury, cocaine, lead or any poisonous drug. U. S. Dispensatory recommends every ingredient of ERUSA. Drug laws make "false and misleading statements" a crime. Therefore, the sale of all other or narcotic pile medicines is illegal because they affect the brain and spinal marrow, produce constipation and never cure. ERUSA is not for sale at opium joints. Only druggists if highest standing endorse ERUSA. Medford Pharmacy, Eagle Pharmacy, Chas. Strang, Haskins' Drug store.
