NEWS "BUTCHERS" MUST SELL NO MORE LIQUORS. MEDFORD CITY, March 19.—An order has been issued prohibiting the sale of liquor by news "butchers" in violation of the national laws in Oregon. Hereafter news, liquor and newsstand have been prohibited from the streets by the news vendors, and its sale at times has resulted in much trouble. The sale of liquor by the news vendors will not be discontinued.

Can a Woman Preach? Come to the tabernacle and see. We are pleased to announce that Mrs. Clark of Eugene, Bible school graduate of Oregon, will give an address on the tabernacle Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Come and worship with us and enjoy the opportunity of hearing a woman talk in the pulpit of our church. Mrs. Clark is a fluent and pleasing speaker and has a message for all, especially Bible workers. Don't fail to hear this address. At 7:30 p. m. the subject will be "The Glory of the House of God." This is a great theme. Don't fail to hear it. Bible school at 9:45 p. m. Young people's meeting at 8:30 p. m. Welcome to the "Latter-day church."

AMUSEMENTS. Tonight at The Savoy. "An Irish Hero," which will be shown tonight at the Savoy, is a romantic drama full of fire and will hold your attention from start to finish. Besides this, there are three other pictures on the bill, including two photographs of the advertising type. Extra change of program Sunday evening. Admission free.

SOCIETY NOTES

Mrs. F. K. Boyd entertained the ladies Wednesday. Holding club. The affair was most profitable. The program was the topic. The program was arranged by Mrs. E. B. Pichel and Mrs. P. H. Page. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Colvig.

Pythian Sisters on Wednesday evening at their regular social night held at the hotel and 80. Patrick. An attractive program was arranged and many loyal sons and daughters of the Stars and Stripes showed that they were as faithful to their first love of the great old flag as they were. The banquet consisted of many Irish dishes, at least they were labeled Irish names. The evening was most attractive and the evening was most enjoyable. The committee consisted of Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Trow, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Gray, Mrs. C. L. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Dixon and Frank Baillie.

A large number of friends surprised Henry Morrison at his home on the Medford-Central Point road Thursday evening. The occasion being his 21st birthday. Henry was completely surprised, but presented in time to have a splendid evening. Those present were Fred Hamilton, Alma Martin, Vera Anderson, Mrs. Meier, Mrs. Bode, Mrs. North, Mrs. Daily, Mrs. Plumber, Mrs. Allison, Paul James, Douglas Jay, Frank Blinnson, Perry Talbot, Harold, Ed King, Harry Morrison, and Mrs. J. A. Morrison.

Mrs. C. R. Roy entertained the ladies of the Aid society of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon. A very pleasant afternoon resulted, a delightful collation being served. Mrs. Roy was assisted in receiving by her daughter, Miss Mahall. Some 20 members of the society were present.

One of the most delightful evenings Medford has seen in many months was that of Wednesday, when the pupils of Mrs. Mary's academy presented the legendarily drama, "St. Elizabeth of Thuringia," in five acts, to a large and delighted audience. Everything seemed to make the affair a perfect success, and the Sisters of the academy can be congratulated upon their ability as delineators by their well drilled pupils. The affair was a perfect success, the large assembly hall of the academy being completely filled. The music was exceptionally good, every number being rendered with much feeling, not matter how young the performers. The drama was complete with beautiful thoughts and was in itself not only of value to the performers, but to the audience as well. The great lesson of charity and thought and each principal delivered their part in a manner showing the greatest understanding of their lines. The chorus, including 15 boys, a large number of girls, were well contained, and excellently drilled. They sang well, looked well and acted well, and added greatly to the pleasure of the audience. The instrumental music was a pleasing variety and was rendered in a splendid manner. In fact, many who attended were greatly surprised at the excellence of the performance, and were sure the entertainment was arranged by the Sisters. It probably has to obtain a larger assembly hall.

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry King entertained the children in a delightful manner. "A King's Story" was the subject of the evening. The children were given a most interesting and profitable program. The program was arranged by Mrs. E. B. Pichel and Mrs. P. H. Page. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. W. M. Colvig.
