Joe Brown's an awfully busy man, He's bound to make things roll; At present he is all mixed up In dirt and oil and coal. 18

And as these lovely days go by He's doing all he can To get the coal that's in the earth To warm his fellow man. 18

And if you keep in touch with him The world will seem more bright; For now he's going after oil, The stuff that makes the light.

And parties wanting anything, Don't need to tear their shirt; They only have to call up BROWN, THE MAN WHO SELLS THE DIRT. 18

QUITTER SPOILS WHAT PROMISED GOOD MATCH

The boxing match at the Angle opera house last evening would have been a very classy affair had it not been for the fact that Ed Mathews of Roseburg, who met Earl Ralston of this city, proved a quitter. After two rounds that promised much of what was in store for the fans, the young Roseburger complained of a low blow and gave up the match. Ralston was showing his cleverness before the end came. The price of admission, however, was not lost, as the preliminary bout between Earl Burke and Art Hillebrand was a warm one from start to finish. Burke was the lighter, but he won the bout on points.

You can double your money in a month. There are only three lots for sale at the P. & E. junction. They will be worth double the minute building operations are resumed. That is as certain as the timber is in the hills. It will take many factories years to use all the lumber that is brought down. These factories will be located at the junction. Several hundred workmen will have to live near by. A boarding house will pay big when the factories are started. Then these lots will be worth two or three times what we ask. Remember there are only three of them for sale, so you will miss it if you don't hurry. Only $200 each. Also two houses for sale, dirt cheap. See Eastman at P. & E. Junction.

Roosevelt Frowns.

The newspapers of a very recent date contained a most interesting and exciting article on how ex-President Roosevelt stubbed his toe on the gangplank of his steamship while landing on the sunny shores of Italy. The article stated further that our precious Teddy came mighty near falling. Now in the event that he had fallen and a trifle barked his shins, wouldn't the American people have been frantic and wouldn't the newspapers have been calling out in accents wild "Hextra—hextra—all about Teddy's great fall?" The heading of this article reads "Roosevelt Frowns." Now wouldn't you expect that to attract the immediate attention of the readers of The Tribune. Well, the management of the Bijou expected it and consequently used that heading. The fact is in the Taft inauguration pictures on at the Bijou (tonight for the last time) Teddy, seen at close range, wears a frown. The pictures have been a great drawing card, and are certainly full of most interesting features. One of the strongest vaudeville attractions ever put on at the Bijou commences tomorrow night. The management can guarantee the new bill to please the most skeptical.

E. C. Hubbard (Savoy theater): People are coming out. Crowded houses are the rule. Something do in my business once more. I look for a splendid summer.

Easter Greetings TO ALL SOUTHERN OREGON The PEOPLES STORE Extend Greetings to the People When we open our eyes on Easter morning and look out upon the world, what meaning is called to our mind's eye? It seems but fitting and right that we should awake and lift our eyes and hearts to heaven in grateful praise and thanksgiving to that unseen, yet all powerful king who watches over—yes rules the lives of every living creature here below. And equally fitting is it that every one of us should arise and shine—array ourselves in the best that we have and go forth to worship ACCORDING TO THE DICTATES OF OUR OWN CONSCIENCES. And whether we attend church or not, let us be honest with ourselves and resolve to do our best and look our best during the coming spring, and blessing will surely overtake us.
