

Young Ladies' Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition

TRIP CONTEST

THE Medford Daily Tribune and Southern Oregonian will give Seven Grand Tours to the Alaska-Yukon Pacific Exposition and various other points to the fortunate contestants in its Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Trip Contest.

PLAN OF CONTEST

Six young ladies and a chaperon will go to the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition this summer and every cent of expense from the time of leaving home until return will be paid.

A Pullman will convey the party, which will start from Medford, to the exposition. The party will be chaperoned by a Southern Oregon lady, and the contestant securing the greatest number of votes will be accorded the privilege of selecting her.

The party will be accompanied, too, by a representative of The Tribune and Southern Oregonian, who will look after their comfort and pleasure.

SEVEN FREE TRIPS

Medford and surrounding country has been divided into six districts, as described on this page. The young lady or woman in each district receiving the highest number of votes will be entitled to this splendid trip. Votes are determined by subscriptions. Votes are accorded to the contestants in whose favor they are cast according to the length of time of the subscriptions.

Every young lady or girl in Southern Oregon can enter this great popularity contest—and the most popular and the hardest workers capture the prizes.

Plan of Nominations

Any young lady or woman, who lives in Southern Oregon, is eligible to compete in the contest. Candidates may nominate themselves, or their friends may do so for them. Read over the list of the six districts, determine which one your friend is in, and send in your nomination. The nomination blank in this issue is also good for 500 votes—so use it. The rules and regulations of the contest are simple. The list of nominations will soon be published, and the voting will then begin. Get an early start, for the tour is going to be worth while.

Everyone Treated Fair

The accounts of this contest will be kept in such a way that a contestant may visit the office of The Tribune and check up her own account at any time, or that of any other contestant, so as to be satisfied that she is being properly treated. This is a contest in which hustle and individual effort will find its reward.

This newspaper is conducting this contest and the count will be on the square. Our reputation and standing back it up.

Don't Hesitate

Nominate yourself or friend at once and make up your mind to win a grand Vacation Trip This Summer, or to assist some friend to go. See nomination prize offer. You can win one of these.

Description of the various places to be visited by the party and all the good things within your reach will be discussed from day to day in this paper. GET BUSY.

You Can Get a Nomination Prize If You Want It

Anyone can win a nomination prize whether a subscriber to The Tribune or Southern Oregonian or not. All that is necessary is to cut out a nomination coupon printed opposite, fill in the name of someone who you think can pull a large vote, send the coupon to the Contest Manager, and then see that your candidate gets the hearty support of friends and secures enough votes to entitle you to the $5.00 Nomination Prize or at least one of the smaller cash prizes. You can nominate as many candidates as you desire, using a separate coupon for each nomination. MAKE YOUR NOMINATIONS NOW. Don't delay in making your nominations. Fill out the nomination coupon now and send to The Tribune office at once. A little delay on your part may cause you to lose the $5.00 in Gold Prize or one of the other cash prizes.

Rules, Regulations and Conditions

RULE NO. 1—Any young lady or woman living in Southern Oregon may enter The Tribune's Great Alaska-Yukon-Pacific Exposition Trip Contest, having one of the application for membership blanks (ask for blank) filled out and indorsed.

RULE NO. 2—There will be six separate districts from which to enter, described in this prospectus.

RULE NO. 3—A new subscriber will be known as one who has not taken The Tribune or Southern Oregonian for 30 days.
