

Small Orchards

Bearing and Young Groves on Easy Terms

We have subdivided into small tracts the famous Gold Range Orchard, two miles south of Medford, adjoining the Bear Creek and Burrell orchards, and now offer a limited number of the choicest orchard tracts for sale on reasonable terms.

This is your opportunity to secure bearing orchard, or young orchard, or both bearing and young orchard, consisting of the choicest varieties of pears and apples. The tracts range in size from five to 27 acres. The soil is the best in the valley—Bear creek bottom land. The old trees on these tracts have produced record breaking crops that brought record prices in eastern markets for years past.

No such chance was ever offered before to secure such orchard tracts.

Peanuts in Oregon.

That Oregon is destined to be a world's factor in the peanut market within the space of a few years those who have given the situation the best investigation are practically certain of the results.

While up to this time, with but only an exception or two, the experiments have been conducted on a very limited scale, investigation has shown that peanut raising is not only a commercial possibility in Oregon, but a financial surety.

Experiments in peanut growing have been made in practically every section of the state and success in cultivation and growth has been shown in almost every instance—and it has been proven beyond the slightest doubt that the crop under normal conditions was a paying one.

Chamberlain's Liniment.

This is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by Leon B. Haskins' Pharmacy.

THOUGHTS AND OPINIONS.

(By D. H. Hawkins.)

Levity in the pulpit is like blasphemy on the street.

If a man melt his wings in the sun he will fall into the sea.

If a cur bite you, stoop nede to kick him; else you will be classed with the cur.

I have observed men to discover that the deepest are shallow in part.

They that are temperate are so only in an arc of the circle—the circle is broken where their hobby ends.

A cunning man is not necessarily a wise man; there be that canterize others who of themselves can do nothing greatly.

I do observe that while some men outwardly adore the Savior, they inwardly leer at the Christ.

If there be nothing in evolution and environment, then whence arose the difference in species? Transplant an Englishman to Barbados and he becomes different both in speech and color.

He that sneezeth with the falling infection hath been much in society, but he that yelleth when he sneezeth bringeth reproof upon his ancestry.

KNIGHTS WILL HAVE BIG TIME AT FAIR

Plan to Bring Famous Team From Ohio, Who Will Present Great Spectacle.

SEATTLE, Wash., May 13.—Plans have just been made public by the Washington Domain of the Knights of Pythias to bring to Seattle this summer the famous Iola Knight Rank team of Dayton, O., with its spectacular performances of the drama of Damon and Pythias, the founding of the Knights of Pythias order at the ancient city of Syracuse, special drills and musical features, and secret work of the order. The team will give three performances in the new armory here, on July 6 and 7 and one on July 8 for Pythians only. Pythian week at the Alaska-Yukon-Pacific exposition is July 5-12, and the local reception committee expects 25,000 members of the lodge as visitors during that period.

The cost of bringing the Iola team, with its carloads of scenery and electric effects, to the coast will be $15,000, which the Knights of Pythias will raise by the sale of tickets to their own members throughout the west. Grand Chancellor Otto A. Case of Washington has already received orders amounting to $8000 and states that there will be no trouble in raising the entire sum. There will also be $1000 in cash prizes for a competitive drill of Uniform Rank companies from all parts of the west, which will be held on the exposition grounds.

Excursions by special trains will run to Seattle from many parts of the west during Pythian week at the fair. One from Montana, another from California and a third from the Yakima valley have already been arranged. Others will come from Spokane, Portland, Bellingham and other large cities in the northwest. The Wenatchee valley will probably send an excursion also.

Supreme Chancellor Henry P. Browne of Cleburne, Tex., will attend the gathering of Pythians in Seattle, and has promised to make the Independence day address at the exposition grounds. Mr. Browne is an orator of national reputation, and will deliver his famous address entitled "The American Flag." The supreme chancellor and other high officials of the order will be taken on several trips around the Puget sound country at the close of the ceremonies here, and the gathering, while largely western, will take on a national importance. No special event during the whole period of the A. Y. P. exposition will be more attractive than the performances of the Iola team, and the new armory, seating 5000 people, will properly accommodate the attraction. The exposition officials and the Pythian committee are working hand in hand for the big gathering of lodgemen will help the fair, and the exposition will be a big attraction for the Pythians.
