The newspapers build town. Why not help build newspapers? There is no advertisement in the world better than a good newspaper. It is the barometer of the town. Show us a good newspaper full of advertising, and we will show you a good town, full of business.

Billboards are an eyesore. Programs are worthless; hoaxes, from an advertising standpoint, are ridiculous.

Cut out the foolishness for the upbuilding of your state by upholding your newspapers.

CHICAGO HAS WIVES FOR SPOKANE MEN

CHICAGO, May 21.—Two thousand young bachelor pioneers, "healthy, wealthy and wise," throughout the forest and farm lands of the great northwest, are seeking wives, according to information received in Chicago this morning in a letter signed "Levi Grant Morton, secretary of the Spokane chamber of commerce," who has heard that there are 200 pensive maidens in the congregation of Halsted street Institutional church of this city, who are willing to marry honest men who can make clean money.

Mr. Morton, who shrinks from figuring as Cupid's messenger, naively lets the bars down to all eligible young women, saying, "girls in cities and towns in eastern, middle western, southern and coast states are not barred."

Rev. D. D. Vaughan of the Institutional church has received direct several appeals from these young men.

A HARBINGER OF SPRING.

He is so old, so threadbare and his coat Gains, feebly pinned around the gaunt, gray throat,
While bleak as gusty March,
shuffling and bowed,
He cries his pussy willows through the crowd,
Poor little scions from the countryside
His aching fingers must have plucked and tied,
Yet prophets of new hope, while in his eyes
The only hope is—just that some one buys.
Sweet prophet they of sun, and birth and song
That in his heart, have all been dead
so long!
A wintry wreek—an age-worn, weary thing
Bearing the very signs of Youth and Spring!
—Charles Buxton Going, in the June Everybody's.
