

Daniels For Duds SAYS:

"Why suffer with the summer heat, when we have every summer comfort clothing under the sun."

Cool Summer Shirts . . . 75c to $5.00

Summer Underwear 50c to $4 Garment

Straw, Crash and Panama Hats 25c and more

ASK ANYONE ABOUT THE

Largest Clothing Store in Southern Oregon

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

Wilbur Wright's Aeroplane.
The Lady Book Agent—A Scream.
Play Patience—An Illusion.
The French Duel—A Comedy.
The Savoy tonight. One dime.
C.V. Baker and S. N. Clavenger of Butte Falls were recent visitors in Medford.

See Wright, the Wizard of the air in his aeroplane tonight at the Savoy.
Alex Smithson of Redding is spending a few days in Medford.

Smile, laugh, roar at the Lady Book Agent tonight at the Savoy.

A great educator. See Wright's aeroplane break all world records tonight at the Savoy.

Captain Pug has his kangaroos doing all sorts of stunts getting in shape to trim Grants Pass Sunday.

Best Bear-creek bottom orchards, one mile from town. Two year old trees. $50 down $10 per month. Benson Investment Co. 67

Editor S. A. Pattison of the Central Point Herald was a recent Medford visitor.

Another one of the usual successes of the Boston Ideal Company is on this week at the opera house. Go and see for yourself.

O. Hall of Hornbrook spent Thursday in Medford.

Don't miss seeing the play tonight, "Olivette" at the Medford Opera House. If you do you will sure be sorry.

Ella Gannaw, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

Misa Brown left Friday for a visit in San Francisco.

The Nash Grill now sets a business men's lunch at noon for 35 cents.

C. G. Smith of Astland was a recent Medford visitor.

The Nash Grill now sets a business men's lunch at noon for 35 cents.

V. M. South of Grants Pass was a recent Medford business visitor.

Ladies, Attention!

All handbags for sale at cost in cheap and entire stock. I. F. Battle's Hardware Shop on First Main street, 68

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

FOR SALE—At a bargain 240 acres of timber land on Upper Horse River and 210 acres of farm and fruit land in Sams Valley. For full particulars and price apply to Owsen, care Daily Tribune. 81

WANTED—Two subeditors. Apply 21 Jackson. Co. Book. $18 per week. 66

WANTED—To trade a good "Carr" horse for horse suitable for freight wagon, will pay difference. Apply at office of Exchange, 29 so. C street. 67

"OLIVETTE" PROVES TO BE MOST POPULAR WITH FIRST NIGHTERS

To remark that a thing is performed in a farcical manner is not generally complimentary to the action in question, but when it is said that a farcical handling is given a farcical part by a comedian, of which acting more than farcical treatment can be demanded to make the farcical part a success, it would be farcical to attempt to apply any other term of commendation to the acting.

All of which has about its own continuity of thought and sense to it as has the part of A. C. Burgess in "Olivette" the charming 5th opera the Boston Ideal opened with at the Medford last night. For "Coquelinot" is not supposed to be a serious or even a sensible affair. It is simply a conspiracy to get a continuous laugh of two hours and a half duration, with short breathing spells worked in as a physical relief.

A. C. Burgess is a real comedian. He won laughs last night when the times of the play alone would not have brought a smile. He broke his own record for unadulterated foolishness—and it pleased the audience.

F. W. Walters—the same who recently got that slap in the wrist—was given a hand by the audience when he first appeared last evening. Medford theater goes thereby signifying their appreciation of his efforts to give Medford something clever in the show line. He scored his usual success and handled the comedy in his part much smoother than heretofore.

Emil Payette was the surprise of the evening. His work was appreciated. He was applauded time and again. His portrayal of "Captain De Morsmoro," a stiff legged old sea dog was great. It is hoped that Manager Walters finds a permanent place for him in his excellent company.

Now what is the use of my saying any thing about Mrs. Hazeltrun? I have already used all of the adjectives in the dictionary—and some that aren't—and here she is again more deserving of praise than ever for as the Countess in "Olivette" she is superb. Mrs. Hazeltrun's chief claim to her ability to complete is obliged self and her part. By all means see her this week.

Miss Dora Polson is as dainty and charming as ever and plays a part in which she is well fitted. Misa Kirby Debbay scored a distinctive hit in a "Ballet" dance.

"Olivette" bids fair to rival "The Masque" in popularity. The company possesses "The Bohemian Girl" for next week. X. N. Z.

What's doing at the Medford opera house tonight? "Olivette" of course. If you didn't see it last night don't miss it tonight.

The Nash Grill now sets a business men's lunch at noon for 35 cents.

The Nash Grill now sets a business men's lunch at noon for 35 cents.

WOULD HAVE RATE INSISTED UPON

SPOKANE, June 4.—Graham R. Dennis, a millionaire mine owner who operated the first electric railway in the Northwest in Spokane and the third on the continent, has issued an open letter to the people of the inland Empire and interior cities west of Denver, urging them to insist upon the enforcement of the original order by the Interstate Commerce Commission in the Spokane rate case. He also declares that the future of the interior lies in the institution of supplemental suits to cover 1,700 other commodity rates in dispute. He says that the strongest political influence is being brought to bear by the Pacific coast to secure the modification of the recent order, adding:

Apparently, contrary to the provisions of the law, the Spokane case seems to be merging into a stage where the railroads and the coast cities are attempting to fix the rate for the commission, or at least to act as the commission's advisor over the protest of the complainants. In view of this every interior town should send one or more delegates to the hearing at Washington, D. C., on June 9, and advise the congressional representatives to support Spokane in this battle, in the outcome of which the entire intermountain country is vitally concerned.

Misleading Statements.

(The Herald.)
The Central Point correspondent of the Medford Tribune is responsible for the statement that Goodpasture and Kincaid, pitchers for the local ball teams, have signed with the Hill team, thereby giving the impression that the local teams are seriously crippled for the rest of the season. Manager Jas. Grieve takes exception to the publication of such statements and has informed the Herald that neither of the boys have signed with Hills but are both here with the Central Point team.

Another misleading statement by the same correspondent, Mr. Grieve says, is the score given of the practice game last Sunday. Instead of the score being 13 to 19 it was 2 to 19 in favor of the regulars.

For Sale.

One of the best riding mares in Southern Oregon. Many people know her. Gentle, pretty, fast. For sale at Court Hall.

Very seldom ladies have the opportunity of buying ribbon-socks, scarves with goods, lingerie, lace-trimmed white blouses, evening frocks, jackets, silk and cotton. Handkerchiefs and fancy notions and necessities. All at less than wholesale prices, as they can do this work at the Westroble store when this fine goods is being sold out to make room for men's and boys' furnishings and shoes.

Prepaid Railroad Orders.

"Something which is of considerable interest to the public generally and which is perhaps not generally known is the system of prepaid orders now in effect between stations of the Southern Pacific company and all points in the United States. By means of this system tickets may be purchased at Medford from any place in the United States and mailed or telegraphed direct to the party wishing to come here. Sleeper accommodations and small amounts of cash in connection with these tickets may also be forwarded at the same time."

Special Dinners.

The Nash Grill now makes a specialty of banquets, wedding breakfasts and dinners, and special feasts of all kinds. Private dining rooms for special occasions. No better service between Portland and San Francisco.

Tribune Want Ads Bring Results.

The SPOT Cafe

Will be opened for business Saturday, June 5
Short Order Meals and Lunch in Connection

GIVE US A TRIAL

Corner Main and Bartlett Streets
TYRRELL & McDONNALD

The Echo

The wail has been sent up, "The Galled Jades Wince." There is sorrow in the homes of the would-be Competition. We are not surprised. The firm of the Baker-Hutchason Co. at Medford, Oregon, has placed itself on the map, as one of Oregon's most progressive stores. It has from the very outset had the support of the public. It has heeded the cry of the people, who have not only asked, but demanded, dependable merchandise at legitimate prices, but like a great many merchants they have overstocked themselves. This is the very reason that this UNLOADING sale is on at this time.

Since this sale opened, and up to this good hour, there seems to be no let up in the crowds; this fact has caused the "wail of lamentation."

No firm or corporation, no, nothing can exist very long, without being backed by public patronage and public opinion. Some merchants whom we know, not having either it is the very reason that this UNLOADING on the wail." We have dug their grave, assisted by the people and will say, that the interment is now at hand. With malice toward none, we are erecting a slab that shall mark their last resting place, assisted by a generous public, which have made our labors comparatively easy, and on that slab, great large letters are being cut "Died of Ennui," "Sacred to Forgetfulness."

Baker-Hutchason Co.

Central Avenue,

Medford, Oregon.

L. ADKINS HALL, SALES MANAGER.