FIRE IN FOXTAILS CALLS OUT ENGINE

Much Excitement is Caused by Alarms Being Turned in From Bailey Avenue.

The fire bell created no little excitement shortly after 10 o'clock this morning, when an alarm was turned in from Bailey avenue.

The fire company came out in record time as usual, only to find that a small blaze had been started in some dry grass near the barn of J. H. Fitzgerald. Fortunately no damage was done, but the buildings on two sides escaped by a narrow margin.

As soon as the alarm was sounded J. B. Wood, the real estate man, offered the use of his car, recently purchased of E. W. Bank, to The Tribune reporter, and made the run from Main street to the scene of the excitement in a timelike enough to do honor to an old driver.

Mrs. Deek Hale was the first to see the fire and ported that the fire company was on the ground in less than six minutes after the alarm was turned in.
