

Bud: "Say, Annie, give me another cup of Coffee."

Annie: "No Bud, your mother doesn't want you to drink more than one cup."

Bud: "But, Annie, mother is now using Folger's Golden Gate, and it's so good I am sure another cup wouldn't do any harm."

Folger's Golden Gate is the purest and best Coffee we know of. We sell it absolutely on merit.

CENTRAL POINT NEWS.

(The Herald.)

Miss Iva Dungey of Gold Hill was here Tuesday evening attending the local talent show. Miss Dungey is the guardian angel of the Gold Hill News office and while in town she favored the Herald office with a neighborly call.

W. C. Leever and J. W. Merritt visited their mines on Elk creek during the week. They are doing extensive development work and expect to begin shipping ore from the property in the near future.

Work is being rushed on the Rossel building. When completed this will make an elegant business block.

Prof. F. P. Cooper and family left Saturday for Lane county, where they will spend their vacation. Their postoffice address is Pleasant Hill and it is a safe bet that there is some good fishing and other pleasant features near that place.

Miss Nellie Mulkey, the talented young musician, will spend her vacation with the Bowers family, on Jenny creek, about 40 miles south of Ashland.

Mr. and Mrs. August Muller, of Streator, Ill., accompanied by his father, Adolph Muller, are here visiting Mrs. Muller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. Olsson. August Muller is well known here, having had charge of the construction of the Central Point creamery three years ago. Both the gentlemen are looking for land investment and will probably locate permanently in this vicinity.

Judge Wedekind, a recent arrival from San Francisco, was here Monday arranging to open a law and abstract office in this city. He met with every encouragement from the business men and expects to locate here permanently. Judge Wedekind is a pioneer of California and for many years has been prominent in legal and political circles in the Bay City. He came to this valley without thinking of locating here, but was so well pleased with the country and its opportunities that he decided to remain.

H. C. Cook has purchased a large grocery and furnishings store at Cottage Grove and is taking over the same this week. Mrs. Cook will shop their household effects north in a day or two and they will take up their residence at Cottage Grove. Their son, Frank Cook, and his family will also go to Cottage Grove, where he will assist his father in the management of the store. Mr. Cook and family have resided here for two

WATKINS WHISPERS.

D. H. Harrell and sister, Mrs. Jones of Hutton, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting friends in Watkins.

James Henry, who has been receiving medical treatment in Ashland, returned home Tuesday much improved in health.

Miss Maud Harr closed a three months' term of school in Buncom district, and is again at home with her many friends.

Bert Harr and Z. J. Collings are now in the employ of the Penn Mining Co.

Good fishing is reported at Squaw lake, and many parties have been sojourning there the past month.

Miss Laura Dorn of Ruch spent Sunday visiting with home folks.

On Saturday evening a party was given at the home of A. E. Collings. A dainty luncheon was served at midnight, after which the guests took their several ways homeward, reporting a very enjoyable time.

J. W. Lowdon, late of Klamath county, has purchased the old Fauchett place of Wm. Lowdon, and has moved his family here. We are pleased to welcome them in their new home.

Mrs. R. E. O'Brien made a business trip to the county seat Wednesday.

F. Zell is doing assessment work for G. W. Parker of Portland, who has many promising placer claims on the middle fork.

The Watkins and Palmer Creek boys are to play a game of baseball on the latter's grounds on July 5. The game will be called in the forenoon, and is expected to be a good one, as the teams are evenly matched.

Fred Dorn has been spending the past week in Medford, where he is detained on business.

Messrs. Spiker and Spencer, who are prospecting in the Steamboat country, accidentally killed a bear a few evenings ago while trying to protect their camp, and bear meat has been on the menu ever since.

Miss Emma Wendi has returned to her home in Jacksonville after completing a most successful term of school in this district. At the closing exercises Friday evening a delightful program was rendered, and all present were well pleased with the entertainment. Both pupils and teacher are to be congratulated on their success.

years and have many friends here all of whom will wish them success in their new home.
