JACKSON PIONEERS MEET IN ASHLAND

Annual Reunion This Year Will Be
Held August 26 in Ashland—
Gillette Is President.

A fair representation of the early settler element met at the office of C. H. Gillette in Ashland last Friday, at which meeting Mrs. Ellen Wagner presided and Mrs. Van Sant acted as secretary, says the Tidings. C. H. Gillette was elected president to fill unexpired term of Mrs. Kinney of Jacksonville. Silas J. Day of the vicinity of Jacksonville has been secretary of the organization since a period when the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. The time and place for the 26th annual reunion was set for August 26 at Ashland. Matters pertaining to the observance of the anniversary were also discussed, and the appointment of various committees and arrangement of preliminaries will be announced through the county press later on.

Ashland bids fair to be all torn up during the sessions of the pioneer reunion, incident to the improvements in progress throughout the city, but the parks not only remain intact, but are being extended. The Tabernacle is commodious and convenient so that in spite of the lack of rapid transit facilities for the present, arrangements can be perfected to entertain the old settlers in a manner befitting the occasion, and it is to be hoped that a goodly number will be present at the 1909 reunion.

SNEAK THIEVES OPERATE IN ASHLAND. GET LITTLE

A sneak thief unlocked the door of the office of Dr. W. L. Nichols in the Mills-McCall block in Ashland Friday morning about 8 o'clock and made away with a pocket case of instruments lying on the doctor's table, says the Tidings. He was seen to enter the room by occupants of an adjoining office, who supposed, however, that he was a workman on a legitimate errand.

Mrs. J. J. Cambers reported to the police that someone attempted to break into the Cambers residence of Knob Hill street Thursday night, but was frightened away.

Orders for sweet cream or butter-milk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.
