

HIGHWAYMAN IS HELD TO ANSWER

Gabriel Gunderson, Who Was Arrested Charged With Robbery, Bound Over.

Gabriel Gunderson, who was arrested on Tuesday evening and charged with holding up Ira Kine and robbing him, was bound over to the circuit court by Justice Canon at a hearing Wednesday afternoon. It is charged that Gunderson met Kine in the alley back of saloon row and after beating him up took his pocketbook. The pocketbook was subsequently found upon the person of Gunderson. The only denial entered by the accused man was that he was drunk and did not know what he was doing.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

"Mikado" tonight. Price 50c.

Hear Professor Rameroff tonight between acts of the "Mikado" at the opera house.

The verses which appear in another column regarding Jack Withington should have been credited as follows: "Adapted from James J. Montague."

We have customers who will pay 10 per cent interest for money; good real estate security. Come in and get particulars. Benson Investment Co.

In order to house its enlarged enlarged stock of men's furnishing goods, the "Wardrobe" has been compelled to add to their floor space. This was accomplished by removing a partition in the rear of the old quarters and installing new shelving.

Call up Main 3303 for your next lot of tea or coffee. Wholesale and retail. Southern Oregon Tea and Coffee House, 36 S. Grape street.

A. C. Randall of the Mountain view orchard at Talent spent Thursday in Medford.

Orders for sweet cream or buttermilk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

H. L. Kelly, Jr., of the bureau of fisheries at Trail spent Thursday in Medford.

Four rebuilt typewriters, as good as new; two Underwoods, visible, $50 each; two Remingtons, $45 each. Apply to C. E. Taylor.

P. H. Holden is again in the valley looking after railroad interests.

Are you a good shot? If so we have a watch for you. The Shooting School.

F. T. Findlay has returned from a visit to Portland Seaside. He reports the weather cold and disagreeable along the coast.

Why rush home this hot weather, when you can get best lunch in town at the Spot cafe for 25c?

Frank Woodard of the Allen-Lewis company and G. H. Fitzgibbons of the W. P. Fuller company are among the popular commercial travelers now in Medford.

Still another fresh shipment of fish today at the Rogue River Fish Co. Don't forget, dressed chickens every day in the week.

H. von der Hellen of Wellen spent Thursday in Medford.

Remember the "Mikado" tonight. Price 50c.

The sport-loving public of Medford will be treated to an interesting exhibition of fancy pool playing at the Owl billiard hall this evening, when O. J. Mills, the Pacific coast

BROWN ORCHARD SOLD; $21,000

Illinois Man Buys 80-Acre Tract, Paying $21,000 for It—Syndicate Made Sale.

Frederick Trapp of Lincoln, Ill., father of Mrs. Dr. Walter Stokes, has purchased through the Oregon Oregon Orchards Syndicate the W. H. Brown orchard on the Big Sticky road three and one-half miles southeast of Medford for $21,000.

The orchard consists of 80 acres, most of which is planted to commercial varieties of fruit. There are some bearing trees, but most of the orchard is from 3 to 6-year-old apples and pears. The orchard is opposite that of Tronson & Guthrie and is one of the finest young groves in the valley.

Dr. and Mrs. Stokes will reside upon and manage the orchard after this autumn, it being Dr. Stokes' intention to give up his practice this fall.

Exceptional Pictures at The Savoy.

Tonight at the Savoy will be shown the best program of pictures witnessed in Medford for some time.

"An Inspiring Sunset" is the most beautiful scenic subject ever portrayed. A picture of this kind is indeed a revelation of the heights that can be obtained in clever photography, for we see reproduced nature's most gorgeous wonder, a sunset as seen across the silent waters of the bay. The photography is wonderful and the scene inspiring, and inadequate of description, for one must see it in order to fully appreciate its artistic merits. "Washington Under the British Flag" is a historical reproduction of Washington's life before the revolutionary war. It is cleverly portrayed and imprints vividly the events of history in our minds. It is of great educational value. "Self Taught Hypnotism" and "A Determined Wooer" are long, lingering laughs and cause one continuous eruption of mirth. Don't miss these pictures. Entire change of program Friday night. The Savoy is cool and comfortable. One dime.

champion, will play George Barber, a local player of some repute. Mr. Mills will play 50 to Barber's 35, and agrees to the 15-balls each run or no count. After the game Mr. Mills will show some entirely new shots, one stunt wherein he uses two cues, "alle same Chinese chop stick," being especially interesting. As Mr. Mills has played here before and the exhibition is free, a large crowd is assured.

Specialties between acts of the "Mikado."

If you are in need of a pumping system, gasoline engine or automobile, you are requested to look up the announcement of E. A. Washburne & Son, appearing in this issue. Although these gentlemen have been in Medford but a short time, they have already secured contracts for installing the "Kewanee" in various sections of the county.

Phone your orders for sweet cream or buttermilk to the Creamery.

Indian baskets: I offer for sale my entire collection of Indian baskets, in lots to suit purchaser. The collection consists of some very fine specimens made by the Pitt River, Modoc, Hoopa, Pinte, Klamath, Chippewa and Sioux. This kind of work is getting to be harder to acquire each year, as the Indian basket makers are dying off very fast. They make fine hall decorations, good presents to send to eastern friends, and are constantly increasing in value. This sale will continue until Wednesday, August 4 only. The prices will be about 25 per cent less than is ordinarily asked for such baskets. They can be seen at Dr. Goble's optical parlor on Seventh street. 114

George May, superintendent for Colonel R. C. Washburn at the Table Rock orchard, was successfully operated upon Wednesday for appendicitis by Drs. Conroy and Seely.

PICTURES OFF TO THE FAIR

Framed Pictures of Crater Lake Are Shipped to Exposition—Committee to Hang Them.

The Commercial club was advised today that the views of Crater Lake by Kiser for the Seattle fair have been framed and have been shipped. There is a series of six views arranged in a panorama. There is also a panoramic series of a local orchard.

Dr. J. M. Keene and George Hoyer of the committee are in Seattle and will attend to hanging the pictures.

Giving the Bride a Tip.

"Here's a little pointer for you," said the bride of last year to the bride of this year. "I'll tell you my own experience, and you can judge for yourself what to do. When we returned from our wedding trip and I began to rummage through George's belongings I found six or seven pairs of gloves and at least nine pairs of silk hose, things that he had never had on. They had been tucked away in all sorts of places. Most of them I at once recognized as presents I had given to him from time to time. Besides them, I found a lot of handkerchiefs still unused, handkerchiefs that I had embroidered his initial on with my own hands.

"What do you suppose I did? Foolishly I gathered them all together and spread them out on the bed where he would see them when he came home and feel ashamed of himself for never using my presents. Just think what a lack of forethought I showed! Consider what a saving of pin money it would have been if I had put the things away and then doled them out to him for Christmas presents or birthday presents one by one. It would have served him exactly right too."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Are You a Beggar?

All the beggars are not holding out a hand to passersby in the street. You probably know the man who is ever whining for help. If a farmer, he thinks his neighbors should help him get in his grain or do his plowing. If in business, he is always trying to borrow or wanting some one to boost him or drum up customers. He never seems to think of relying on his own efforts. There is a well known fable about the larks in a grainfield. As long as the farmer depended on his neighbors and relations to come and cut his grain the larks felt perfectly safe. When the man determined to cut the grain himself the larks knew it was time to seek safety elsewhere. There are times when every one needs help, but help should be asked only when one has made every possible effort for himself. Too much help given a man weakens his character.—Milwaukee Journal.

A Quiet Rebuke.

An "object admonition" like the one described by Warren Lee Goss in his article, "Campaigning to No Purpose," published in Johnson's "Battles and Leaders of the Civil War," is often more efficacious than storms of reproach. One day the colonel of the regiment noticed a soldier on parade wearing a badly soiled pair of gloves. "Corporal," said the officer, "why do you set the men such a bad example as appearing before them in dirty gloves? Why is it?" "I've had no pay, sir, since I entered the service," returned the corporal. "I can't afford to have them done up."

The colonel drew from his pocket a pair of gloves, spotlessly white. Handing them to the corporal, he said quietly: "Put these on. I washed them myself."

It was an unforgotten lesson to the whole regiment. Taunting Him. It was housecleaning time, and Mr. Stubb was removing the dusty pictures from the walls. The frames slipped, the step-ladder creaked ominously, and the perspiration rolled from Mr. Stubb's brow. In the humor to bite a nail in half, he turned and discovered Mrs. Stubb laughing. "That's it!" he roared as the step-ladder swayed. "Laugh and show your gold teeth."

And still she laughed. "Do you think there is anything funny in my moving these pictures?" he spluttered in fiery tones. "No, indeed, John," said Mrs. Stubb soothingly; "but, you know, you look so funny it looks like a moving picture show."

Then Mr. Stubb swallowed a pint of dust and simply fumed.—Chicago News.

IMPROVEMENT IS RULE ON OAKDALE

Many Changes Being Made on Popular Avenue in West Medford—Street of Homes.

Improvement is the order of the day along Oakdale avenue, south of the end of the paving, and it is evident that this section will soon be dotted with fine villas.

Mr. Brown, who purchased the Roddle orchard, is preparing to build a handsome bungalow and will make it his future home.

Mr. Campbell of Minneapolis, who purchased the Bliss place, is also planning to erect a costly bungalow for his residence and to fix up the grounds in keeping with the new home.

Howard A. Hill, who was recently married, is to build a fine home in the oak grove opposite the Root residence. The grounds will be beautified.

John Cox is preparing to park five acres including the oak grove on his place, and will erect a slightly bungalow in the center as his future home.

The city water main is being extended to Mr. Root's "Oak Lodge" and the water will be turned on within a day or two.

No Accent.

Many stories are told of a former Canadian bishop who had passed his youth in Scotland, but flattered himself that not a hint of his origin could be gained from his speech or manner.

One day he met a Scotchman, to whom he said at last abruptly, "Hoo lang hae ye been here?"

"Aboot sax years," was the reply. "Hoot, mon!" said the bishop sharply. "Why hae ye na lost yer accent, like myselt?"

It Didn't Work.

"I haven't anything fit to wear," she said. "Neither have I," he replied. "Let's stay at home."

Taken up thus, there was nothing for her to do but hurry and get ready.—Buffalo Express.

The Chump.

Miss Gatt-Thayer—Do you know, Mr. Slowboy, you remind me of the Venus de Milo.

Mr. Slowboy—But I've got arms. Miss G. T.—Have you, really?—Boston Transcript.

Time and Life.

What we call time is but a single sun ray thrown across the infinite void of eternity, and life is but a floating flicker or mote that vanishes even as it becomes visible thereon.—Exchange.

Perhaps.

"Who was it said that art was long?" "I don't remember now, but I think it must have been somebody who was trying to learn to fiddle."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Half a man's wisdom goes with his courage.—Emerson.

HOT WAVE AGAIN HITS CHICAGO

Two Dead and Scores Prostrated During Past Two Days as Result of Heat.

CHICAGO, July 29.—Two are dead and scores prostrated as the result of the heat wave sweeping over this city. Hundreds slept on the sidewalks and in the parks last night. No prospect of relief is in sight. It is expected to be hotter this afternoon.

Geographical Knowledge in 1492.

But very little was known in regard to the extent of the world in Aristotle's day, in the fourth century before Christ, and but very little more was known about it 1,800 years later, in the time of Columbus. In 2,000 years the world had in reality retrograded rather than advanced. It was the popular belief in the time of Columbus that the world was flat, though many contemporary scholars thought differently. The great civilizations of the world at that time were grouped around the Mediterranean sea, although England was a considerable power and the Scandinavians were a great maritime people. But Europeans at that time knew but little of Asia and but little of Africa and America, of course, was undreamed of. Even after Columbus had discovered the latter continent he was perfectly oblivious of the fact. He thought Haiti was Cipango or Japan and for a long time regarded Cuba as a part of the mainland of Asia.

A Famous All Potato Banquet.

One of the most remarkable men ever drawn up must have been that of the feast in Paris to which Benjamin Franklin, Lavoisier, the founder of modern chemistry, and other distinguished men sat down as guests of Parmentier. Every dish at this banquet was made of potatoes, and even the brandy and liqueurs were the product of the same vegetable. This was Parmentier's final proof to his skeptical fellow countrymen that potatoes were not poison, as they persisted in believing. Louis XVI, himself was one of Parmentier's earliest converts, granted him land on which to grow his plants and did not disdain to wear the potato flower as a buttonhole. Then Parmentier cleverly posted guards round his potato fields by day and withdrew them by night, so that people were tempted to come then, steal, eat and be convinced. The all potato banquet was the climax of the great campaign.—Chicago News.

Horses in Pantaloons.

"Equine sunbonnets are very well," said a veterinary, "but what would you say to equine trousers? You'll see them in Guayaquil. There the mosquitoes and greenhead flies are so thick that horses and donkeys, unless their legs are cased in cloth, become unmanageable with the pain. Guayaquil is in Ecuador. It is directly under the equator. The heat there is insufferable. Up and down its narrow and foul smelling streets in bluish clouds of buzzing insects walk horses and donkeys in sunbonnets and pantaloons."—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

LUMBER RATE TO BE $1.25

Taft Writes to Conference Committee Insisting that Rate on Lumber Not Exceed $1.25.

WASHINGTON, July 29.—President Taft today in a written communication to the conference committee insisted that the lumber tariff should not exceed $1.25 per thousand feet and that the senate rate on gloves and hosiery be retained.

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS.

Mrs. F. Merrick of Medford and Mrs. Horace Nicholson are the chaperons for the young ladies at Camp Nick.

Mr. Bonney and wife of Medford drove into town on Sunday, spending the night and part of next day with us.

Butte Falls presented quite an animated city appearance on Sunday, visitors from Entrop, Camp Nick, Brownsboro, Dudley, Rancheria and other points being on our avenues, and all intent upon enjoyment. The stores and refreshment parlors were well patronized and many pleasant acquaintances were made between the city and village folks. The sole inquiry under nearly all circumstances is Is the railroad building and coming to Butte Falls? We, having just returned from the valley and knowing a few things, encouraged the people by telling them the officials of the railroad were pushing matters and that in the near future we would be blessed with the sight and sound of the iron horse.

We are pained to chronicle that Emanuel Poole, who has been out in the valley under the care of physicians, does not improve rapidly and that his wife and children have gone to him. We trust there may be a favorable change for the better, as Mr. Poole, after years of hardship, has just accumulated a competence and can take life in ease and comfort the rest of his years, and it would be sad that he be called away.

John Allen of Derby has gone to his mountain ranch with a large force of men and animals to hay. Mr. Allen has just completed one of the finest barns on his ranch near Derby, but says that crops are not an average this year.

Quite refreshing showers visited Butte Falls and vicinity on Monday, which may interfere with haying in this section, as crops and harvest come later here than in the valley.

NOTICE.

Water bills for June and prior thereto, not paid by the 2d of August, will necessitate the shutting off of water without further notice.

BENJ. M. COLLINS, City Recorder. By R. W. T.

The Hutchason Company

See Tomorrow Night's Tribune for Big Sale
Saturday - Monday - Tuesday

Never in history of all Medford has there been a sale of its kind—never again will there ever be such a volume of bargains offered at one sale.

See tomorrow's paper—one entire page. Read carefully and see what we offer. It will out-class any sale attempted.

We will not be open until 9 a. m. Saturday. Extra salespeople will be on hand to serve you.

The Hutchason Co.

Successors to
Baker Hutchason Company

The Hutchason Company
The Hutchason Company