CENTRAL POINT BREVITIES.

(The Herald.)

Chadmas Gilmore was at Medford Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Baker of Ashland is visiting Mrs. L. L. Love this week.

Mrs. Drake and two daughters of Meadows precinct were shopping in our city Monday.

J. B. Welch, the well known lumberman of Asbestos, was in our city Monday.

Merrit Brown, one of Eagle Point's best known merchants, was in town the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Boswell have returned from Butte Falls, where they have been camping for several weeks. Elmer and Floyd Kyle left Sunday evening for Lebanon, Or., where they will visit with friends and relatives for a couple of weeks.

Jacob Jones left Monday evening for an extended trip through Minnesota and other northern states. During his absence of three months he will visit his old home at Crystal Lake, Minn.

Henry Clock, who has been gone from here 17 years, came in the first of the week. He was renewing acquaintances with old time friends, and sees great changes in our valley since leaving here.

Professor P. J. O'Gara, the government-fruit expert, has been called to Washington upon some business connected with his department. He expects to return to the Rogue River valley about September 1.

Will Mueller and L. F. Gregory of Medford were in town Tuesday. Mr. Mueller is engaged extensively in bee culture and his business in this city was to dispose of some of his product to the local merchants.

Mark Welch drove his White Stag over the Siskiyou mountains last week, going as far south as Hill. On his return trip he was less than two hours making the trip from Coles, Cal., to Ashland. He reports some very bad roads in that section.

A fire alarm was turned in yesterday afternoon about 1:30 on account of a blaze on the roof of Mrs. Mann's residence in the northern part of town. Citizens soon had the blaze extinguished and the only damage done was from tearing the roof off in order to get at the fire.

Tom Ross received a badly sprained ankle as the result of his wagon getting away from him on a steep grade out on Lanes creek on Monday of this week. He was engaged in hauling lumber and while going down one of the innumerable steep grades in that locality the brake on his wagon gave way and the heavy load plunged down the hill, throwing him out and badly bruising him. The physicians do not think that any bones are broken, but from the severe nature of the spring he will be confined to his room for some time. The ball game between Grants Pass and Hill, at Hill last Sunday, resulted ed in a 12-inning game with a score of 5-3 in favor of the boys from Josephine county. Bridane Sandersou played with the Pass, holding down short, and from the report that we get of the game we are led to believe that Sandy was there with the bells all of the time. Two spectacular doubles were credited to him as well as being responsible for two runs in the 12th by a little clever head work. "Who'd think it?"
