On Saturday Arlie Powers left for Colestine in order to fill up on soda water.

W. N. Cunningham and wife on Saturday left for Grants Pass. Mr. Cunningham has engaged a big contract of carpenter work in Grants Pass.

Andrew Briner who lives near the base of Mt. Talent was doing business in Talent Saturday.

J. L. Hopkins who has been visiting relatives in Talent returned to Oklahoma a few weeks ago. He reports the weather as being very hot and disagreeable, registering 120 degrees in the shade.

The McDonald place east of Talent, consisting of eight acres has recently been sold for $1600. A. C. Hoag negotiated the sale.

On Sunday Guy Snavelly returned from a visit to Klamath county.

J. N. Manning and family made a visit to Jacksonville recently.

A few days ago some of the employes of the electric light company, in order to completely insulate the wires, cut off several branches of the fine walnut trees in front of C. W. Walter's residence. This tree is a splendid specimen of its kind and is admired by everyone in the community. The electric light people may consider the mutilation a matter of business, but to the people of Talent it seems like an act of vandalism.

The gentle old horse which has been used to deliver goods for Peter Vandershuis, died last Sunday evening. He has been very useful and faithful and his soul should be immediately transported to the horse heaven.

The big snow bank on Mt. Talent is plainly visible from Talent.

A party consisting of the families of Jess Adams, Andrew Briner and Wm. Kirby and Wm. Fox, on Sunday, were having an outing to Gillette Soda Springs.

Henry Helms has returned from San Francisco, where he visited his father who is being treated by his son,

Dr. George Helms. Mr. James Halmis reported to be very much better than when he left Talent.

Little Miss Opal Clemens entertained a few of her playmates on Monday afternoon. Ice cream and cake were served at four and all the little folks reported a good time.

Miss Clara Terrill returned Wednesday night from Monmouth, where she has been attending summer normal.

Mrs. Buckles and daughter, Helen, of San Francisco, are visiting Mr. Dodge and his mother in Talent.

Henry Helms has sold his share in the meat shop of Phoenix to his partner, Mr. Shaffer.

On Thursday a party was given by Miss Alice Manning. The evening was spent in music and games. Miss Sophie played some charming pieces on the piano.

A few of the intimate friends of Harry Maran surprised him on his seventeenth birthday, Saturday evening. The young ladies served the lunch they brought at eleven and the evening was voted a success.

Mr. Johnson, Mr. VanDyke and Mr. John Beeson were in Talent Sunday to visit the tennis club and play tennis.

Bert Bell and Miss Ora Bouy were in Colestine Sunday.

Wilson and Hearings Patent Automatic Gates are made one and one half miles north of Talent by Wilson and Peebler. Mr. Wilson of Talent is the inventor of this gate and it is considered a success. Mr. Peebler is the salesman and has already sold twenty gates which are to be installed in a few weeks. For further information inquire of C. G. Peebler, Ashland.
