TO ASK THAT BARRIER BE MOVED

City Attorney Neff Will Move to Dissolve Injunction Barring the City From Hanley Premises Soon.

CITY ATTORNEY PREPARING EXTENSIVE BRIEF IN CASE

Judge Hanna Will Be Asked to Dissolve Temporary Injunction Granted Last Friday.

Within the next few days, possibly on Wednesday, City Attorney Neff will make a motion in the circuit court to dissolve the temporary injunction granted by Judge Hanna on last Friday restraining the city from entering upon the Hanley premises on Little Butte creek. The city attorney is very busy at present preparing his brief and hopes to make it so clear to Judge Hanna that the injunction will be dissolved and the city allowed to go ahead with the construction of the gravity water system.

Should Judge Hanna dissolve the injunction, then the city would proceed upon the judgment rendered during the special term of court. If he declines to grant the motion then the case will wait until the case is tried in the September term of court.

"THE WIGWAM" WILL OPEN NEXT FRIDAY

F. W. Walters Fitting Up Model Amusement Tent in West Medford.

F. W. Walters is planning to open his new place of amusement on West Main street, on next Friday evening. It will be known as "The Wigwam" and will afford the Medford public an ideal place of amusement.

Mr. Walters plans to give dances and skating parties in the huge tent he has had erected. Later moving pictures will be added and vaudeville. The best of music will be offered, the orchestra being under the direction of Professor Anton Romanoff, who has won a place for himself in Medford among those who love music.

Refreshments are to be served and in all probability operas will be presented later.

The hall will be for rent to those who wish to give dancing parties and Mr. Walters states that any church which wishes to use the hall will be permitted to do so rent free.

During the summer Mr. Walters has spent time and money in giving Medford high-class musical operas, and it is to be hoped they show their appreciation by a liberal patronage of his new place.

EAST SIDE WANTS SCHOOL

Movement Is Placed on Foot to Secure a New Building to Save Children Long Walk to West Side School—Want First Four Grades if More Cannot Be Secured—East Side Building Up Rapidly.

There is a movement on foot to secure a new school for the East Side in order to save the children of that section of the city a long walk to the West Side to attend school. The East Side is almost unanimously in favor of the new project and a determined effort will be made to secure such a school.

If it proves not possible to provide a school for the eight grades,

IRRIGATION CONGRESS MEETS

Delegates Gather in Spokane by Hundreds—Governor Hay Delivers Address of Welcome to the Members.

CLASH EXPECTED BETWEEN BALLINGER AND PINCHOT

Roosevelt Policy for Irrigation and Reclamation of Lands Will Be Discussed Pro and Con.

SPOKANE, Wash., August 9.—The Roosevelt policy for the irrigation and reclamation of arid lands throughout the west is expected by the delegates to the 17th national irrigation congress meeting here today to precipitate a clash between Secretary Ballinger of the interior department and Gifford Pinchot, chief of the forestry bureau. Pinchot champions the Rooseveltian policies and Ballinger, while not opposing, has changed Roosevelt's plan, thus meeting Pinchot's opposition.

Both men will meet before the congress and the advocates of both sides will fight it out on the floor, as they both wish to place the congress on record as being in their favor.

The morning session of the congress was called to order by R. Ininger, chairman of the board of control. A musical invocation followed and then came the address of welcome by Governor Hay of Washington.

A message from President Taft was read and then the business of the congress was taken up.

Many prominent men from all sections of the country will address the congress. Hundreds of delegates are in the city.

SALEM, Or., August 9.—J. W. Rodgers, general superintendent of the Pacific Express company, has under consideration the complaint of the Troutdale Fruit & Produce association relative to alleged discriminatory rates on produce from that point to the east. It was alleged by the secretary of the produce association that higher rates were charged from Troutdale to Wasco and to other points of the Oregon Railroad & Navigation company's lines east than were charged from Portland to points east.

The matter had been taken up with the railroad commission by Miss M. Dewey, secretary of the Troutdale organization, and today Mr. Rodgers notified the commission that the rates from Troutdale will be modified and made the same as the rates from Portland.
