 The railroad is making good progress and is now making a rock fill of several hundred feet in length and 30 feet wide on the Frank Brown ranch. The force of men and the number of teams have been increased and the work will be rapidly pushed. President Allen will be on the ground soon and as the Portland draymen have been about settled there is no reason why the road should not reach Butte Falls this fall or early winter.
 Tronson & Guthrie of Eagle Point have been having some inside masonry work done by the Medford Brick company under the supervision of Mr. O'Brien.
 The irrigating ditches along the road between Eagle Point and the Jack place are playing havoc with the road and in many places foot travelers find it a hard problem how to get along. There is no foot bridge over the stream near Jack's and pedestrians must climb or cling to barb wire fence to cross from one side to the other of the road. The ditch company and the county should see to this obstruction at once.

 There are a few tracts of alfalfa around Talent that will yield their owners a heavy fourth crop this year. Many acres have not been irrigated at all, and each crop has been a heavy one this season. Next to orchards in this vicinity comes the raising of alfalfa.
 Speaking of the first young orchards in the valley, Dr. H. P. Hargrave of Medford has 20 acres of Newtown apple trees on his land between Talent and Phoenix which are just coming into bearing that are hard to beat. They are uniform in shape, healthy, well grown trees, on deep rich soil, that produce an apple of fine flavor and good keeping qualities, because of proper maturity. This orchard will yield its owner a neat little bank account each succeeding year.
 How did you like that last lot of tea and coffee you ordered of the Southern Oregon Tea & Coffee Co.? Good, wasn't it? 123

Care Much About How Your Shoes Look?

Few shoes keep their style after they have been worn a short time. This is generally due either to poor "lasting" or else to the use of improper material for stiffening the toe and the back of the shoe around the heel.

"Lasted" by the best paid shoe workers in the world and made with box toes and counters of real leather, WALK-OVER shoes never fall in at the toe or bulge out at the heel. You can be sure of it.

FUEL FOR 1000-MILE AEROPLANE FLIGHT

NEW YORK, Aug. 11.—Before sailing for Europe Orville Wright, the aviator, announced that he had perfected a device for carrying fuel which would make it possible to drive his aeroplane 1000 miles without stopping.

He said he was confident that the aeroplane would be used very soon for carrying mails, as it would be able to exceed in swiftness and directness of route the fastest trains that could possibly be operated on railroads. He said the aeroplane for use in carrying freight was still in the distant future.

With the new fuel carrying device he expects to be able to keep the aeroplane in the air 28 hours without landing.

Wright was accompanied by his sister Catherine. He said he would not try for any more records soon, but would devote his time to perfecting the machine.
