

Running Water in House and Barn Every Day of the Year

As the owner of a house or barn, you can have an abundance of water under strong pressure, to all fixtures and hydrants. No water bills and repairs.

Every Kewanee System is installed at our risk, not yours. To avoid unsuccessful water systems, insist upon the genuine Kewanee plates on tank and pumping machinery. Get the genuine and you will take no chances. The best and most efficient water supply will be yours if you install the Kewanee System of Water Supply

No More Elevated or Attic Tanks
With the Kewanee System, the tank is located in the cellar, or buried in the ground. This tank is made of steel plates and will last almost indefinitely. The Kewanee tank rests on solid ground, and is protected from all extremes in weather; it is not subject to overflow or collapse. It is a Kewanee System, pumping the water to the air pressure.

Engineering Service FREE
We do not merely manufacture water supply plants. We solve water supply problems. During the last ten years, we have successfully solved over 8000 water supply problems. The largest buildings, as well as the smallest homes, are equipped with Kewanee Water Supply outfits. We are experts, and have practical experience. Every Kewanee System has the Kewanee trade mark and must come up to the Kewanee standard. And has the Kewanee guarantee of satisfaction behind it. Our engineers will plan your complete water system free of charge.

Our Guarantee Every Kewanee System is guaranteed to give a first-class water supply and to do everything we claim for it. If it fails return it at our expense and your money will be refunded. We take all the risk.

"No, I wouldn't do that, because I won't take up any settlements with him or any one else."

"Have you after this any objection to my alliance with Mr. St. Aubyn?" she inquired, her anger at white heat.

"It isn't an alliance with Mr. St. Aubyn you're after," he replied calmly. "You're after something there ain't anything to. If I'd let you buy what you want you'd find it as empty as the judgment day the morning after. You think because I'm a jay country lawyer I don't understand. Why, we've got the same thing at home. There was little Annie Hoffmeyer. Her pa was a carpenter and doing well, but Annie could not get into the Kokomo Ladies' Literary society, and her name didn't show up in the society column four or five times every Saturday morning, so she gets her pa to give her the money to marry Artie Seymour, the minister's son, and a regular minister's son he was! Almost broke Annie's heart and her pa's, too, but he let her have her way and went in debt and bought them a house on Main street. That was two years ago."

Pike paused momentarily.

"Annie's working at the deepo candy stand now," he resumed, "and Artie's working at the hotel bar—in front—drinking up what's left of old man Hoffmeyer's—settlement!"

She flung away from him in a temper and then wheeled on him in a flash.

"And you say you understand—you, who couple the name of a tipping yoke with that of a St. Aubyn, whose ancestors have fought on every field of battle from Crecy and Agincourt to the Crimea!"

"But you won't see much of his ancestors!" complained Pike.

"He bears their name," she answered.

"That's it, and it's the name you want. Nobody could look at you and not know it wasn't him! It's the name! And I'd let you buy it if it would make you happy—if you didn't have to take the people with it. Don't you see they're counting on it? The earl—his counting on living on you." The Indian became excited. "Why, a Terre Haute pickpocket could see that! And this old lady Crecy—she's counting on it, and this Frenchwoman that's with them—ain't she trying to land your brother? The whole kit and boodle of them are on the track of John Simpson's money!"

"I gave Americ my promise. It was forever, and I shall keep it," she answered slowly, as if she had been impressed with his earnestness. He looked at her quietly.

"I'm not going to let you," he replied.

"Then I'll throw your interference to the winds. I shall marry without your consent."

"Do you think they'd let you?" Pike asked quickly. For a moment she stood still, and then came the sound of the guitars from over the wall. Pike went on after a time.

"Sounds kind of foreign and lonesome," he said. "I'd rather hear something that sounded more like home—'Sweet Genevieve,' for instance. You know it, don't you?"

"I used to," she answered, hanging her head. "It's old fashioned and common, isn't it?"

"That's why I like it, I guess," he answered. "I couldn't get you to sing it for me before I go home, could I?"

She looked at him thoughtfully for a moment.

"I'm afraid not," she answered and went quickly into the hotel, leaving him looking after her curiously.

REACHING THE SPOT

It Can Be Done, So Scores of Medford Citizens Say

To cure an aching back. The pains of rheumatism, The tired-out feelings, You must reach the spot—get at the cause.

In most cases 'tis the kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills are for the kidneys.

G. L. Boone, corner Ninth and C streets, Medford, Or., says: "I was troubled with rheumatism when I first began using Doan's Kidney Pills. I did not think they would do me any good, but finally procured a box at Irskins' drug store. They proved to be the remedy I required. My kidneys were restored to their normal condition, and the pains and aches in my back were removed. Doan's Kidney Pills lived up to their representations in my case."

COST OF LIVING CHEAPENED.

Over One-Half Million People Benefited in Oregon Alone.

When you can save about 30 per cent on the cost of an article and at the same time get the highest standard of quality at a time when most manufacturers are talking of raising prices is something that consumers should not forget. The price made on this particular article is not a price forced by competition, nor is it a price made in a spirit of philanthropy. It is made strictly as a business proposition; the idea being that a large business with small profits is better than a small business with large profits.

Made of the finest grade of cream of tartar, it is put up in tins of all sizes, the most economical sizes perhaps are the 3-pound cans selling for $1.00 and the 5-pound cans selling for $1.65.

It is now generally conceded by all that there is nothing on the market showing more merit for quality and price than the article here referred to—(Cleveland Superior Baking Powder.

Intense Colicky Pains Relieved

"For some years I suffered from intense colicky pains which would come on at times and from which I could find no relief," says I. S. Mason, of Beaver Dam, Ky. "Chamberlain's Colic, and Diarrhoea Remedy was recommended to me by a friend. After taking a few doses of the remedy I was entirely relieved. That was four years ago and there has been no return of the symptoms since that time." This remedy is for sale by Leon B. Haskins' Pharmacy.
