We are glad you have called attention to the violation of the game law by the rangers in and around the Brown cabin. There are lies near this cabin and a secret trail leads to them. It seems to be the policy of the government to employ men who have little, if any, reputation as rangers and whose sole aim is to make trouble for the worthy homesteaders and who desire the advancement of their own interests irrespective of the damage and cost to homesteaders and the government. We understand serious charges have been made against at least one of the rangers, and the forestry department cannot do better than to probe these charges to the end.
