PROSPECTIVE PROFITS ON ONE BIG VALLEY ORCHARD

Fred H. Hopkins has returned from a month's vacation in the Siskiyou Pass country and is busy picking and shipping fruit from his Snowy Butte orchard. From present indications he will market 15 cars of pears, mostly Winter Nellis, and 15 cars of apples, mostly Newtowns. From present indications, the orchard's net profits this year approximate $20,000, or 8 per cent on $250,000, so that those who figured on purchasing it at $150,000 would have secured a bargain.

Grand Historical Pageant.

One of the greatest historical pictures ever produced is being shown at the Savoy tonight. It portrays the life of "Washington Under the American Flag" from the battle of Bunker Hill until his retirement from public life. Realistic battle scenes are shown, the one where Washington is crossing the Delaware being a beautiful and grand conception of this remarkable feat. We are all familiar with these events of history, but this picture serves to rivet them the more vividly in our minds and we are able to live over the stirring events, the fruits of which we enjoy. This picture is of great educational value as well as entertaining and is a treat from an artistic standpoint. By all means see it.

"Little Busybody" and the "Bewitched Manor House" are novelty films of the first water, alive with funny situations. Don't miss this bill of pictures. Entire change of program tomorrow night. The Savoy, cool, cozy, one dime.

CROSS CONTINENT TO FISH IN ROGUE RIVER

P. E. Clendening of New York, who last year traveled across the continent to fish for Rogue river trout, has again made the trip and will spend a few weeks on the upper Rogue angling for the steelhead. General Alfred S. Beebe of Portland accompanies him. With H. B. Tronsen of Eagle Point, they left for Trail Monday evening.

GOATS MAKING SELVES USEFUL

Angora Goats Prove of Great Benefit to Government in Constructing Trails.

The brush-eating instinct of the Angora goat is being successfully demonstrated on the Lassen national forest in California, where they are cutting trails for fire guards through the brushy areas on the slopes of the mountains.

The animals, which number 3000, have been divided into two bands and under the care of the herders are grazed within certain well defined areas so that their work may be concentrated on the brush within those limits. The result is that they have practically killed nearly all the brush in the course either by eating it up entirely or by barking, as in the case of the heavy manzanita bushes. At the beginning of the experiment there was some doubt as to the goats' willingness to eat the manzanita, but it has been found that where there is little else they will just as readily attack it as any other bushes.

The grazing season was so late this year on the Lassen forest that the goats did not begin operations until about the middle of June, but since then they have made rapid progress and the result promises to be a success from every point of view. The trails will first be opened and then kept free of sprouts by the goats, saving the government considerable labor in cutting them out by hand, as has been done heretofore, while the brushy forage which otherwise would have been wasted, will support 3000 goats very comfortably.

TAFT UNABLE TO VISIT CRATER

President's Secretary Advises Chamberlain That His Chief Will Not Visit Crater Lake.

In spite of the efforts of United States Senator George E. Chamberlain, President Taft will not visit Crater Lake on his western trip. Senator Chamberlain urged upon the president both by letter and in person to visit the lake, but he has found it impossible, as the following letter shows:

"The White House, Washington, August 5.—Hon. George E. Chamberlain, United States Senate—My Dear Senator: The president requests me to acknowledge receipt of your letter of August 3, together with its enclosure, inviting him to visit Medford, and to thank you cordially for writing. He regrets, however, that it will not be possible for him to include that city in his itinerary. He has already arranged the schedule for the proposed trip and with the limited time at his disposal he cannot make any additional stops.

"Assuring you of the president's appreciation of your courtesy, I am, very truly yours,

"FRED W. CARPENTER, Secretary to the President."

O. M. MURPHY, Dated August 17, 1909. 137

Wes Green, Bert Anderson and S. S. Smith of El Dorado, Kan., are visiting Crater Lake.

The PACIFIC MONTHLY

TEN REASONS WHY You Should Be a Reader of The Pacific Monthly

- 1st. It is the leading magazine of Western America, published on the Pacific coast, edited by western men and its entire contents are Western. With pen, brush and camera, it tells the story of the wonderful progress of the West.
- 2nd. No other section of the entire world is experiencing such a rapid industrial and commercial growth as that section of the United States west of the Rockies. It is a duty you owe to yourself to keep informed—The Pacific Monthly completely covers the field.
- 3rd. There are opportunities for the extension of practically every line of business in this territory, and The Pacific Monthly tells of these opportunities.
- 4th. If you are looking for a chance to invest or locate—commerce, farming, orcharding or professional work, if you are worn, tired or in ill health seeking rest or reasonable, The Pacific Monthly will give you a thousand valuable hints.
- 5th. Here also you can get close to nature. The great snow-capped mountains, in all their rugged grandeur, the boundless plains and the virgin forests, "God's Country," untarished by the hand of man. Do you not wish to spend a few hours each month with us?
- 6th. The best of western literature to be found in the Pacific Monthly. Live topics of THE DAY, stories of progress and of opportunities, the Romance of the mountains and the plains, always intensely human.
- 7th. One never tires of beautiful pictures and the Pacific Monthly is famous for its illustrations, always a veritable picture book of Western scenery, from Mexico to Alaska and from Denver to the coast. No expense is spared in securing the most striking photos for reproduction in colors and halftones.
- 8th. The Pacific Monthly should be in every home. From cover to cover it is clean wholesome reading of an educational nature. It is particularly interesting and valuable both to teacher and students.
- 9th. Look upon your map, note the great area west of the Rockies, think of the wonderful resources of this section of the country—thousands of acres of agriculture land, billions of feet of standing timber, mineral riches beyond comprehension, extending to the shores of the mighty Pacific, the highway to the Orient. Do you not want to know more about this marvelous country?
- 10th. A spirit of optimism prevails throughout the west that lends life and vigor to all. That is why the Pacific Monthly is different. It comes to you each month breathing this spirit of the west. It will put the red blood into your veins—try it.
