

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

"Yes, Arabella, we will go to the Wigwam tonight. Everything there is of the best—so trot along and get ready."

Table d'hote dinner at the Nash grill Sunday evening. Special music.

There is a letter for "M" at this office. Call.

The following were the scores made at the regular weekly shoot of the Medford Gun club held on the club grounds: Seely broke 42, Enyart 40, Bordeaux 37, Whitney 39, Mrs. Enyart 19.

Apprentice girls wanted at Barnard & Connayer's millinery parlors. 139

Miss Bessie Newtown has returned to her home in Gold Hill after a visit in Medford.

Apprentice girls wanted at Barnard & Connayer's millinery parlors. 139

Orders for sweet cream or butter-milk promptly filled. Phone the creamery.

J. M. Peterson has returned from a trip to Klamath Falls.

Professor J. M. Mack, who announced his intention of opening a business college here on September 1, has been compelled to relinquish the project, owing to the fact that it is utterly impossible to secure a suitable building in time for the opening of the fall term. He will go to the Ashland commercial college for a while, but will eventually return to Medford to establish his school.

Ella Gannaway, public stenographer, room 4, Palm building.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Thomas spent Thursday in Ashland with friends.

Everybody comes to the Rogne River Fish Co. for dressed chickens, fresh fish, oysters and imported cheese. Phone 3063.

Here is a snap. Come and look it over with us. Eighty acres first-class fruit land in brush; level, good soil, well located, only $1500. J. W. Dressler Agency, West Main. 132

George Daniel of Prospect was a recent visitor in Medford.

Fletcher Linn of Portland arrived in Jacksonville Thursday to look after his orchard.

Do you like crawfish? The Nash Grill serves them. Fresh shipments daily from the famous Quelle cafe at Portland.

William M. Colvig has returned from a hunting trip in the Galice country with his brother-in-law, Wesley Birdsey. Mr. Birdsey got three deer and a brown bear. Mr. Colvig got—mosquito-bitten.

Fred Offenbacher and J. A. Krewson of Applegate were in Jacksonville Thursday.

Orchestra music during dinner each evening at the Nash Grill.

M. E. Morgan has returned from a trip to Crater Lake.

Ernest Elmer and wife of Portland are visiting the former's mother, Mrs. Amelia Elmer of Jacksonville.

Phone your want ads to the Tribune for quick results.

A representative of the Chicago Packer, a fruit publication, is in Medford looking over the field preparing a special article on this year's fruit output in the valley.

Table d'hote dinner at the Nash grill Sunday evening. Special music.

Mrs. Zach Cameron of Uniontown and daughter, Mrs. Guy Lawton of Medford, left for Seattle the first of the week to take in the fair.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Altie of Atlanta, Ill., are in Medford visiting Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Conklin. Mr. Altie is a retired rancher and while he received 70 cents a bushel last year for corn, is amazed at prices received for fruit locally.

Tea, coffee, beer or claret, with club lunch, 30 cents, at the Emerick Cafe.

Lon Stone has returned from a trip through northern California. He is more pleased with this valley than ever.

Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Pottenger have returned to their home on the Applegate after a visit of some days in Medford. They will probably return to make Medford their home in the winter and will erect a handsome new bungalow on North Central avenue. Best 25-cent dinner in town served every day at the Spot Cafe.

A. B. Cornell, the insurance agent, was up from Grants Pass the first of the week.

M. Marshall, the well known rancher from Central Point, spent Friday in Medford. He brought with him a fine load of tomatoes from his ranch. Something doing at the Wigwam tonight.

Richard Gaskin, who is located at Sisson, is making this part of the valley a visit.

Tea, coffee, beer or claret, with club lunch, 30 cents, at the Emerick Cafe.

See the Bijou ad for tonight's program.

Mrs. Florence Whitaker of Independence is visiting her brother, Dr. R. T. Burnett of Jacksonville.

Fresh crawfish received daily from the Quelle at Portland at the Nash Grill.

Byers & Bros., the greatest trick bicycle riders of the age, at the Bijou tonight.

Read the new ad of the Ashland Commercial College and enter September 6th.

Mrs. A. L. Eddy of Jacksonville has returned from a visit to Portland.

You have paid $2.50 to see and hear a poorer performance than you will hear at the Bijou tonight for 10c and 25c.

Tea, coffee, beer or claret, with club lunch, 30 cents, at the Emerick Cafe.

The wonderful Venetian musicians at the Bijou tonight.

Missing His Calling.

—Harper's Weekly.

DAVIS-DAVISON.

Mr. Lester Davis, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. Davis of Central Point, and Miss Eva Davison of Ashland were quietly married in the latter city on July 22, Rev. McHenry of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony. In fact, so very quiet was the wedding and so well did the happy young couple, aide dand abetted by Rev. McHenry, guard the secret that not even the parents of the young people were aware of what had happened until last Saturday, when, having gotten a home ready in which to commence housekeeping, they let their parents and other friends into the secret.

Both the young people are well and favorably known all over the country, and their many friends will unite in best wishes for their future happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis spent last Sunday with his parents in this city. They will reside in Ashland.

More Economical.

"When I bought that house it wasn't fit for a dog to live in. It has cost me over $1,500 to put it in shape."
"So? Don't you think it would have been cheaper to poison the dog?"

Tea, coffee, beer or claret, with club lunch, 30 cents, at the Emerick Cafe.

"I love my band concert—but, oh! you Wigwam!"

"Come on in—the water's fine"—at The Wigwam. Best of music. And oh! so cool.

IN MEMORIAM.

Edward Tryer was born in Lowell, Henry County, Ia., March 21, 1872. When a boy he moved with his parents to California, from which state he moved to this city in 1877, where he lived with his parents until grown to manhood. After living in Medford several years he moved to Seattle, Wash. From Seattle he again returned to Medford, where he lived several months, when he moved to Grants Pass, in Josephine county, Or., where, after a short illness, he died of abscess of the brain on August 17, 1909.

Mr. Tryer leaves to mourn his loss a sorrowing wife, two daughters, Edna and Ramoh Tryer, besides an aged mother, and the following brothers and sisters: Mrs. Annie Schreyer, living in Kansas City, Kan.; Marion Tryer of this city; Lydia Schreyer, Tacoma, Wash.; Samuel Tryer, Kennett, Ca., and Mrs. R. H. Toft also of this city.

Funeral services were held at the home of his sister, Mrs. R. H. Toft, in this city, August 19, conducted by C. H. Hoxie.

Descent of Man.

Good driving horse wanted in part payment on piano. Van Walters, opposite Tribune office. 130

Don't forget the regular dance at The Wigwam on West Seventh tonight.

Tea, coffee, beer or claret, with club lunch, 30 cents, at the Emerick Cafe.

BUTTE FALLS ITEMS.

M. L. Alford and wife and Earl Gaddis and wife drove down from Camp Entrop to Butte Falls on Sunday.

The mill is manufacturing a large number of fine fruit boxes and are supplying Medford and Eagle Point orchardists.

B. L. Brown of Seattle, Wash., has purchased a fine business lot on Broadway and is very much enthused over the prospects of Butte Falls.

Bill Perry and Mr. Nyhart of Rogue River section are intending to make a trip to the mountains during the week on business bent.

Dr. and Mrs. Holt of Eagle Point have been entertaining Mr. and Mrs. Pratt of Berkeley, Cal.

Colonel Fred Medynski drove to the valley on Monday to look after business matters. He left his wife and Mrs. Palmer at the homestead. William Erickson took a trip to Medford on Monday with Scott Claspill.

Huckleberries are a scarce and scanty crop this season which will be a great disappointment to many of our people as they usually can large quantities of this delicious fruit.

Charley Obenechain is gathering up his beef cattle and will market them. J. I. Patton and family have become residents of Butte Falls.

There is much activity in railroad matters and the price of men and teams has been largely increased, as it is the intention to rapidly push matters.

Fred Reinecke is kept busy at the mill in getting out tie and box timber.

Mrs. John Allen of Derby is visiting her mother, Mrs. B. F. Edmondson.

"Man Overboard" on the Ark.

The Duck-Dod gasts the silly idiots! If they don't stop throwing those life preservers they'll hit and kill me yet.—Harper's Weekly.

WANTED—To rent, furnished house or furnished or unfurnished rooms; two adults. Address Box 462, Medford, Or. 132

HEADQUARTERS FOR
Harness Saddles
Whips Robes
Tents Blankets
Wagon Sheets
Axle Grease and
Gall Cure
ALL KINDS OF CUSTOM WORK
J. C. Smith
 314 E. Main

WHAT HAS BEEN DONE NEAR MEDFORD CAN BE DONE NEAR MERLIN

Twenty acres in bearing orchard near Medford means an independent fortune. I can sell you 20 acres of unimproved land near Merlin for $400. See me for investments.
 CHAS. E. SHURT, Merlin, Or.

The PACIFIC MONTHLY

TEN REASONS WHY You Should Be a Reader of The Pacific Monthly

- 1st. It is the leading magazine of Western America, published on the Pacific coast edited by western men and its entire contents are Western. With pen, brush and camera, it tells the story of the wonderful progress of the West.
- 2nd. No other section of the entire world is experiencing such a rapid industrial and commercial growth as that section of the United States west of the rockies. It is a duty you owe to yourself to keep informed—The Pacific Monthly completely covers the field.
- 3rd. There are opportunities for the extension of practically every line of business in this territory, and The Pacific Monthly tells of these opportunities.
- 4th. If you are looking for a chance to invest or locate—commerce, farming, orcharding or professional work, if you are worn, tired or in ill health, seeking rest or reasonable, The Pacific Monthly will give you a thousand valuable hints.
- 5th. Here also you can get close to nature. The great snow-capped mountains, in all their rugged grandeur, the boundless plains and the virgin forests, "God's Country," untarnished by the hand of man. Do you not wish to spend a few hours each month with us?
- 6th. The best of western literature to be found in the Pacific Monthly. Live topics of THE DAY, stories of progress and of opportunities, the Romance of the mountains and the plains, always intensely human.
- 7th. One never tires of beautiful pictures and the Pacific Monthly is famous for its illustrations, always a veritable picture book of Western scenery, from Mexico to Alaska and from Denver to the coast. No expense is spared in securing the most striking photos for reproduction in colors and halftones.
- 8th. The Pacific Monthly should be in every home. From cover to cover it is clean wholesome reading of an educational nature. It is particularly interesting and valuable both to teacher and students.
- 9th. Look upon your map, note the great area west of the Rockies, think of the wonderful resources of this section of the country—thousands of acres of agriculture land, billions of feet of standing timber, mineral riches beyond comprehension, extending to the shores of the mighty Pacific, the highway to the Orient—Do you not want to know more about this marvelous country?
- 10th. A spirit of optimism prevails throughout the west that lends life and vigor to all. That is why the Pacific Monthly is different. It comes to you each month breathing this spirit of the west. It will put the red blood into your veins—try it.

Sample copies at the Tribune office where subscriptions can be left.
 MEDFORD DAILY TRIBUNE FOR THREE MONTHS $1.50.
 THE PACIFIC MONTHLY ONE YEAR $1.50
 BOTH FOR $2.00

